

Office: BURKE BUILDING

Carbondale Department.

Phone: NEW, 286 OLD, 0423

THE PEOPLE'S EXCHANGE

A PUBLIC CLEARING HOUSE for the Benefit of All Who Have Property to Sell or Exchange...

WANTED—Good girl for general housework; child; good preferred; wages, $10 per week...

IN RE: ESTATE of James Madison, late of Carbondale city, Lackawanna county, Pennsylvania, deceased.

ORPHANS' COURT SALE—Estate of James Madison, late of Carbondale city, Lackawanna county, Pennsylvania, deceased.

By virtue of an order of the orphans' court of Lackawanna county, the undersigned, administrator of the estate of James Madison, late of Carbondale city, in said county, deceased...

Beginning in the easterly line of an irregular lot, at the northwesterly corner of said lot...

Terms of Sale—One-half down on day of sale, balance on continuation of the sale and delivery of the deed.

CHARLES H. HORTON, Attorney for Estate.

CAR GOES OVER AN EMBANKMENT

Trolley Car Jumps the Rails This Side of Richmond—One Woman Shakes Up Passengers—One Woman from Forest City Injured—Traffic Delayed for Several Hours.

There was more than an ordinary week on the Traction company's line north of the city yesterday afternoon when a Forest City car left the rails and plunged down an embankment.

There were three passengers on the car, John Cunningham, of the Forest home, Forest City; a drummer from Wilkes-Barre, and a woman whose home was also Forest City.

The only one injured was the woman passenger. She was not dangerously hurt. She was badly shaken up, more than the rest of the passengers, and she was considerably unnerved by the shock.

What caused the car to leave the rails was probably a loosening of a rail joint.

The plunge of the car down the bank took place about a half mile on this side of the Richmond street, and while a hill was being descended. The car, when it left the rails, went down the bank for about six feet, the wheels sinking into the ground so deeply that it required nearly all of the afternoon to replace the machinery which was interfered with for several hours.

At Keene's Pond. Master Ralph Histed, of Maple avenue, is spending a few days at Keene's pond.

Visiting in Lewisburg. Mrs. E. H. Stone and children, of Birkett street, on an extended visit at Lewisburg.

Fished at Robinson's. John Gilbert and John Beck were fishing at Robinson's pond Tuesday, and returned with a fine mess.

Contest for a Medal. A. W. Hazlam, the bustling contractor and superintendent of the International Correspondence schools, in order to stimulate the students which his men have enrolled, has offered as a prize a gold medal, which will be awarded to each scholar who enrolls another between now and July 1. The medal is of pretty design and one side contains the emblem of the schools, and on the other the monogram, "I. C. S."

RECRUITS ARE SCARCE. Corporal Mortenson Meeting with Poor Success at the Recruiting Station.

That army life has few, if any attractions to the young men of this community when there is an abundance of work in and about the mines and workshops hereabouts, is attested by the fact that as yet no recruits have been secured at the recruiting station opened in this city several weeks ago.

Corporal Mortenson, who is in charge, has certainly found it hard to engage himself, for in all the time he has been here he has had no work whatever to do, save to remain on duty at the office. This is rather irksome, when one is accustomed to active duty, and the corporal feels that there will be no activity here for him unless there be a surprising change.

Only three applications have been received, and none of these were able to measure up to the requirements. It is not likely that the office will remain open after this month.

ANOTHER JUNE DAY'S WORSHIPPERS OF HYMEN

Three Couples United Yesterday at St. Rose Church—The Killen-O'Rourke, Duckett-Callahan, Walker-Farrell and Creagan-King Nuptials Some of the Joyous Events.

That the month of June is the month of weddings was further exemplified yesterday, when three marriage ceremonies were solemnized at St. Rose church.

At 9 o'clock in the morning one of the prettiest weddings witnessed in the beautiful church took place, when Miss Annie Killen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Killen, of Brooklyn street, was wedded to John S. O'Rourke, of Wyoming street.

The bridegroom, a handsome young man, was bridesmaid, and Charles O'Connor, of this city, was groomsmen.

Rev. M. P. O'Rourke, of Athens, brother of the groom, was the celebrant of the high nuptial rites which blessed the union. In the sanctuary were Rev. P. J. Bohand, of Towanda, a cousin of the bride, and Fathers Broderick, of Susquehanna; Crane, of Avoca, and Gorman, of St. Rose church.

LIBRARY ORDINANCE PUT TO SLEEP

Measure Directing the Acceptance of Andrew Carnegie's Offer Will Never Leave Committee's Hands. It Is There to Slumber Indefinitely and the Library Will Never, It Is Safe to Say, Be Established.

The Fletcher ordinance directing the acceptance of the conditional offer of $25,000 by Andrew Carnegie, for the establishment of a public library for the city of Carbondale, has been left to slumber in the committee's hands and it is likely to have a Rip Van Winkle slumber for unless present indications go for naught, there will be no attempt made to awaken it to light.

Nearly all of the vitality has been taken from the measure and unless it be endowed with new life it will soon pass away and its existence will only be a memory.

This measure has met with many vicissitudes since it was born, and its passing will not be marked by a universal display of grief or regret. This is not through any lack of appreciation for Mr. Carnegie's offer, but because the taxpayers of the city, particularly those who pay the greater part of the taxes, believe that the city in the event of the municipal ownership of water, which now seems to be the measure of the day, should be able to care for the increased burden that the cost of a library site would mean.

This is the stumbling block in the path of the library project, the measure of the day. When this part of the ordinance was met, a serious problem confronted committee. The building contemplated in the offer from Mr. Carnegie was beyond what the available public grounds could accommodate. This was the option shared in by many when the site question was first considered, and it was subsequently confirmed by the architect who was consulted for his judgment.

A canvass among the citizens who would be affected most by the cost of a site and the maintenance of the library showed that there was no lack of appreciation of the offer to provide Carbondale with a splendid public library home, but the objection was against the expediency of expenditure and in accordance with this, it was decided to leave the ordinance remain in the committee, whence it was.

MORE DISCUSSION ABOUT EARLY CLOSING

Spirit of Dissatisfaction Among a Number of the Town's Merchants Over the Results of the Movement. Discussion by Merchants' Association Shows That There Is Considerable Division of Opinion. What the Clerks Say.

The early store closing movement, which it was supposed had been settled for all time, is again disturbing the merchants, and there is a growing tendency among a number of storekeepers to prolong the hours of business to 8 or 8:30 o'clock evenings.

This subject was the chief topic of discussion at the meeting of the Merchants' association, and there were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

There were merchants present who expressed the belief that the early closing of the stores was affecting their sales, and that it was necessary to place where in the habit of coming to town evenings, the only opportunity given them to do shopping, were now remaining at home and were making their purchases at stores along the way-side, where the closing hour was regulated only according to the convenience of patrons. There were others who believed that the Clerks' association was not so diligent as it might be in holding certain local meetings, and that the merchants were various comments on the success of the movement.

OLYMPHANT.

A pretty, quiet wedding took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Taylor, of Dunmore street, Blakely, when his daughter, Miss Etta Davis, was married to Richard Evans, of Blakely. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Hague, pastor of the Susquehanna Street Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Mr. McKins, of Wilkes-Barre. Only a few friends and relatives of the young couple were present. The bride was most becomingly attired in white organdy, with lace and ribbon trimmings. She was attended by Miss Lizzie Evans, Lewis Evans was groomsmen. After the ceremony and congratulations were offered to the newly wedded pair, a delicious supper was served. The wedding party departed in the midnight train on a wedding journey to the Eastern States. On their return they will reside in Blakely. Both have many friends, who extend to them their sincerest wishes of enduring happiness and prosperity.

At 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at St. Patrick's church, Miss Bridget Murphy and Charles Beatty, both of Dunmore street, were joined in marriage by Rev. P. J. Murphy, the pastor. The bride was attended by Miss Alice O'Hara, wore stylish gowns of castor lainsdowne and white applique garniture. They carried bouquets of carnations and maiden-hair ferns. James Murphy, a brother of the bride, was groomsmen. After the ceremony the bridal party were driven to the bride's home, on Dunmore street, where a reception was held. They received a large number of beautiful and useful wedding gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Beatty will go to housekeeping on Dunmore street.

Miss Anna Nolds and Gomer Davis, of Pileburg, were married at the Presbyterian manse on Susquehanna street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, by Rev. B. H. Hamann, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The bride looked very attractive in a costume of white organdy, trimmed with lace. They will reside in Carbondale, where Mr. Davis is employed in the Erie shops.

At 10:30 o'clock, a wedding ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hemmelreich, on First street, Blakely, at 7 o'clock last evening, by Rev. James Healy, pastor of the Primitive Methodist church, of this city. The bride, Miss Lizzie Miles, both looked very charming in dresses of white mull. Thomas Williams, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. A wedding supper was partaken of by the guests, and for several hours the festivities were enjoyed.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The funeral of the late Justice of the Peace Cannon was held from the family home, on Dunmore street, yesterday morning. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. At 10 o'clock the remains were taken to St. Patrick's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. John McLaughlin, who also preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

TAYLOR.

The home of Foreman and Mrs. J. C. Taylor was the scene of a most brilliant evening on Monday evening, when they celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. The front parlor, in which the occasion was held, presented a delightful appearance with its pretty decorations and beautiful illumination made the occasion a merry one for the guests. Progressive euchre was among the features of amusement, and fifteen tables were filled. Lawrence's orchestra, of Scranton, furnished the music for the occasion. A sumptuous repast was served during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were the recipients of many elaborate silver presents. Those who enjoyed the festivities were: Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Anderson, of West Pittston; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Green, Jr., of Pottsville; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kerster, Jr., of Harris, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Harris, Wyoming; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Richards, of Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Jermyn, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. George Ridgway, Dr. and Mrs. Gibbs, Mr. McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Macquay, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bradford, the Misses Broadbent, of Scranton, and C. B. Johnson, of Wilkes-Barre.

A delightful reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. David Rossar, of Ringo street, on Monday evening, in honor of the latter's fifty-third birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent, and the following programme rendered: Solo, Mrs. Robert Llewellyn; recitation, Miss Sallie Price; witty selection, William Rossar; musical selections, Mrs. S. J. Phillips and A. C. Duck, which added greatly to the pleasure of the evening. Refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. David Rossar, Mrs. Robert Llewellyn, Mrs. John J. Price, Mrs. S. J. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Williams, Mrs. David Jones, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Harris, Misses Sallie Price, Jane Williams, Gwen Jones, Mary J. Nicholas and Messrs. A. C. Duck and William Rossar.

The union excursion of the Methodist Episcopal churches of Yatesville, Taylor, Old Forge, Avoca and Moosic will be run to Mountain Park today and Monday. Tickets, adults, 50 cents; children, 25 cents.

It is said that work on the erection of the proposed new culvert to be built on Main street, between Depot street and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western freight branch, is about to be commenced.

At 8:30 a. m. today John L. Neiger, the popular young townsmen, and Miss Maime Schien, an estimable young lady of Newark, N. J., were united in marriage by Rev. J. H. Welsh, Memorial church at the latter place.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Philip Heiser, an old and much respected lady of Rendham, will occur from her late residence this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Forest Home cemetery.

The Bat Smashers and the Watkins team, two local aggregations, will battle for supremacy on the school house grounds on Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Messrs. Joseph Fairclough, Sr., Edward Harvey, Ben Taylor, Fred Wilson and Peter Parrington spent Monday on a fishing expedition at Lake Henry.

The benefit drawing and concert of Mrs. William Goodwin will be held at Weber's rink on Thursday evening, June 27. All tickets and money must be in the hands of the committee before Tuesday, June 25.

Dr. J. W. Houser is in Philadelphia. Mrs. Thomas M. Howells, of South Taylor, has returned home from Philadelphia, where she visited her son at the latter place.

Lackawanna Valley council, No. 81, Junior Order United American Mechanics, will meet in session this evening.

John F. Gibbons, of Oak street, is sending a few dollars in Atlantic City.

Mrs. David Lloyd and daughters, Mrs. Sidney Lewis and Miss Blodwin visited relatives in Green Ridge recently.

Daniel Enderline has returned from his trip to Buffalo and the Pan-American exposition.

Your friends are interested in Scranton. Send them a copy of The Tribune's Souvenir.

BALD MOUNT.

Mrs. Jane Thompson, better known as "Gran," one of the pioneer residents of this place, celebrated her eighty-fourth birthday on Sunday last. The following grandchildren with their families assisted her in the celebration: Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Thompson and family, Edward, Bessie, Walter, Vida and Gladys, of Peckville; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Van deBogart and daughter, Maude, of Blakely; Superintendent and Mrs. Andrew Thompson and son, George, of Newton Park Farm; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rogers and family, Leon and Mildred, of Harvey's lake; Mr. and Mrs. Burton Vandeventer and son, George, of Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Thompson, of the Hillside Home. The descent of the guests upon her home early on Sunday morning was a surprise to "Gran." Dinner was served by the granddaughters upon the lawn, the table surrounded by six grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. "Gran" was the recipient of a number of presents, including a substantial purse.

Mrs. Jane Thompson, better known as "Gran," one of the pioneer residents of this place, celebrated her eighty-fourth birthday on Sunday last. The following grandchildren with their families assisted her in the celebration: Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Thompson and family, Edward, Bessie, Walter, Vida and Gladys, of Peckville; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Van deBogart and daughter, Maude, of Blakely; Superintendent and Mrs. Andrew Thompson and son, George, of Newton Park Farm; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rogers and family, Leon and Mildred, of Harvey's lake; Mr. and Mrs. Burton Vandeventer and son, George, of Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Thompson, of the Hillside Home. The descent of the guests upon her home early on Sunday morning was a surprise to "Gran." Dinner was served by the granddaughters upon the lawn, the table surrounded by six grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. "Gran" was the recipient of a number of presents, including a substantial purse.

Mrs. Jane Thompson, better known as "Gran," one of the pioneer residents of this place, celebrated her eighty-fourth birthday on Sunday last. The following grandchildren with their families assisted her in the celebration: Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Thompson and family, Edward, Bessie, Walter, Vida and Gladys, of Peckville; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Van deBogart and daughter, Maude, of Blakely; Superintendent and Mrs. Andrew Thompson and son, George, of Newton Park Farm; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rogers and family, Leon and Mildred, of Harvey's lake; Mr. and Mrs. Burton Vandeventer and son, George, of Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Thompson, of the Hillside Home. The descent of the guests upon her home early on Sunday morning was a surprise to "Gran." Dinner was served by the granddaughters upon the lawn, the table surrounded by six grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. "Gran" was the recipient of a number of presents, including a substantial purse.

Mrs. Jane Thompson, better known as "Gran," one of the pioneer residents of this place, celebrated her eighty-fourth birthday on Sunday last. The following grandchildren with their families assisted her in the celebration: Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Thompson and family, Edward, Bessie, Walter, Vida and Gladys, of Peckville; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Van deBogart and daughter, Maude, of Blakely; Superintendent and Mrs. Andrew Thompson and son, George, of Newton Park Farm; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rogers and family, Leon and Mildred, of Harvey's lake; Mr. and Mrs. Burton Vandeventer and son, George, of Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Thompson, of the Hillside Home. The descent of the guests upon her home early on Sunday morning was a surprise to "Gran." Dinner was served by the granddaughters upon the lawn, the table surrounded by six grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. "Gran" was the recipient of a number of presents, including a substantial purse.