

The KODAK Speaks a tongue known of all people... The perfect camera adapted to all purposes and places, all climates and conditions... Take one with you on your vacation and have us do your finishing when you return.

All styles to select from at Kemp's Studio 103 Wyo. Ave.

FOUR BOLD, BAD BOYS.

Arrested Yesterday Morning in an Improvised Shelter on Penn Avenue.

Four boys, about 14 years old, who have not lived at home for months, were discovered early yesterday morning by Patrolmen Karus and Perry in an improvised shelter which they had made for themselves near the abandoned Penn avenue entrance of the Lyceum theater.

Patrolman Karus had noticed boys climb over the big bill board in front of the place shortly after 2 o'clock, and calling Patrolman Perry, he started to investigate. The officers got behind the bill board and down into the hollow all right, but they could see nothing.

Suddenly they heard a match struck and burning around they saw the gleam of its light coming through a crack in a board. Investigation revealed the presence of the four boys in a shelter created on the ruins of the bicycle repair shop, which was entered on some month ago.

The boys had rooted over a portion of the foundation walls with old planks and to hide the place had piled a promiscuous heap of stones and general rubbish all around and across the roof, leaving an opening at the far end.

Entrances could only be effected by crawling on the hands and knees. Inside, a number of hunks were arranged, and on these the boys sat. They had slept every night for the last two months. There are ten in the club who made their headquarters at the place, they say. All members of the organization are either hoodlums or ne'er-do-wells. The big bill board surrounding the place reduced the chances of discovery to a minimum.

The boys arrested gave their names in police court yesterday morning as Andrew Schmidt, Sandy Dintovsky, Willie Garrow, E. Watkins was attorney for Mrs. White.

David T. Brown and Lottie Brown are the first couple to get a divorce in Lackawanna county. He alleges unfaithfulness and desertion. He married Lottie E. Watkins in December, 1895, and she left him in June, 1894. The husband was a druggist. The attorney for the libellant was Louis Gerner.

CRUELTY CHARGED. Cruelty was the charge in the Smith case. They were married December 29, 1882, by Rev. Stephen Jay, Susquehanna, and separated August 6, 1890. She now lives in Green Ridge. H. L. Taylor was Mrs. Smith's attorney.

Mary Myers and Stephen Myers were married November 15, 1892, by Rev. R. L. Evans, West Scranton. She left him July 5, 1899, on account of cruel treatment and non-support. Walter S. Boyan was the libellant's attorney.

The Cobbs are from Mt. Cobb, Mrs. Cobb was a Van Buren. In September, 1885, two years after her marriage, she went back to her father, and declared she would never live with her husband again. She never returned except once, and that was to attend her mother-in-law's funeral. Alfred and Maria were the attorney for Mr. Cobb.

Jennie Wilson alleged cruelty and threats against her husband. They were married October 13, 1881, in Whether, Fayette county, and separated August 4, 1885. Mrs. Wilson came here to live four years ago. They have five children. Vosburg & Dawson were Mrs. Wilson's attorneys.

In the Ariz case, one of the allegations against the alleged cruel and inhuman treatment was that he left his family so destitute at times that on one occasion his little son had to subsist on walnuts, gathered in the woods, near their home, near Lebanon. Since March 1, 1909, she has been living in this city. C. H. Soper represented Mrs. Ariz.

The Baillys were married at Eaton, Wyoming county, September 24, 1867, by Rev. J. S. Lewis. They came here to live a short time later. September 1, 1884, he deserted her and told her he would not support her. She is living with her son, in Green Ridge, and he with his daughter, in Dunmore. Joseph F. Gilroy was Mrs. Bailey's attorney.

FOR MINE INSPECTORS. Board of Examiners Held a Meeting and Organized. The board before whom candidates for mine inspector will be examined, yesterday. It is composed of James Young, of Dunmore; John P. Snyder, Scranton; Vaughn Richards, Priesburg; Alex. Rubland, Old Forge; James P. Morrison, Carbondale.

The board organized by electing Mr. Snyder, president, and Emil Bonn, secretary. It will hold another meeting on Friday. The examination conducted by this board will not be under the provisions of the Garner bill, which does not go into effect until January 1, 1902.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CLUB. Will Give Strawberry and Ice Cream Social This Evening. Among the talent who will entertain this evening at the strawberry and ice cream festival to be given by the Catholic Young Women's club at their rooms on Washington avenue, are: Will P. Burke, Miss Mary L. Mahon, Miss Agnes A. Callahan, W. A. Lynott, Poole Brothers, Misses Golden, Master Decker, the famous boy soprano; Miss Hannah Maguire.

The club extends a cordial invitation to its host of friends to come and enjoy one of the greatest events of the season.

For Sale—Building lot 25x100 feet on the 300 block Lackawanna avenue. Railroad alley in rear. For price and terms, write to "Anthracite," care Tribune Office.

Smoke the Pocono cigar.

TWO DIVORCES ARE GRANTED

SEVEN WIVES AND THREE HUSBANDS ARE LIBELLANTS.

One Woman Deserted Her Husband Eleven Times in Four Years and Attempted to Excuse Her Truancy on the Grounds That She Was Bewitched—Another Who Was Beaten Every Day Quit Her Husband When the Semi-Monthly Pays Came.

Ten divorces were granted yesterday, seven by Judge Kelly and three by Carpenter. The cases were entitled as follows:

MARGARET W. FOWLER against CHANCEY W. FOWLER. FLORENCE M. SMITH against HARVEY J. SMITH.

MARY MYERS against STEPHEN MYERS. DAVID T. BROWN against LOTTIE BROWN. JENNIE WILSON against JAMES E. WILSON. JOHN SCHULTZ against CAROLINE SCHULTZ. KATHY ARIZ against EDWARD ARIZ. CASSE E. BAILEY against EDWIN T. BAILEY.

Most of the cases were very recently brought. One of them was instituted during the May term of this year. Cruel treatment or desertion, or both, were the grounds assigned, though some of the cases those causes had rather interesting variations.

In the Nichols case, the aggrieved husband testified that he was deserted by his wife eleven times in five years, the periods of desertion ranging from three weeks to three months. When he took her to task for her truancy on one of the later occasions, she declared that the only way she could explain her conduct was that she was bewitched. He also testified that she called him an English devil more than a hundred times, and frequently beat him. As an evidence of her bad temper, he told that she drove away fourteen different servant girls in five years. He was widower and she was a widow when they married. The marriage took place April 12, 1895, at Binghamton, Rev. Mr. Nichols officiating. They resided at Dunmore. E. C. Newcomb was attorney for the libellant.

HUSBAND BEAT HER. Elizabeth White and three witnesses testified that her husband, George White, beat her regularly once a month, every month since the first month of their marriage, ten years ago. The beatings would always occur when he got drunk on pay-day. She put up with his abuse until the semi-monthly pay was sent into effect hereabouts. They lived at Lackawanna. They were married by Alderman Post, of the Seventeenth ward, September 24, 1889. He works in the mines. She is now working as a servant in the city.

DAVID T. BROWN and LOTTIE BROWN are the first couple to get a divorce in Lackawanna county. He alleges unfaithfulness and desertion. He married Lottie E. Watkins in December, 1895, and she left him in June, 1894. The husband was a druggist. The attorney for the libellant was Louis Gerner.

CRUELTY CHARGED. Cruelty was the charge in the Smith case. They were married December 29, 1882, by Rev. Stephen Jay, Susquehanna, and separated August 6, 1890. She now lives in Green Ridge. H. L. Taylor was Mrs. Smith's attorney.

Mary Myers and Stephen Myers were married November 15, 1892, by Rev. R. L. Evans, West Scranton. She left him July 5, 1899, on account of cruel treatment and non-support. Walter S. Boyan was the libellant's attorney.

The Cobbs are from Mt. Cobb, Mrs. Cobb was a Van Buren. In September, 1885, two years after her marriage, she went back to her father, and declared she would never live with her husband again. She never returned except once, and that was to attend her mother-in-law's funeral. Alfred and Maria were the attorney for Mr. Cobb.

Jennie Wilson alleged cruelty and threats against her husband. They were married October 13, 1881, in Whether, Fayette county, and separated August 4, 1885. Mrs. Wilson came here to live four years ago. They have five children. Vosburg & Dawson were Mrs. Wilson's attorneys.

In the Ariz case, one of the allegations against the alleged cruel and inhuman treatment was that he left his family so destitute at times that on one occasion his little son had to subsist on walnuts, gathered in the woods, near their home, near Lebanon. Since March 1, 1909, she has been living in this city. C. H. Soper represented Mrs. Ariz.

The Baillys were married at Eaton, Wyoming county, September 24, 1867, by Rev. J. S. Lewis. They came here to live a short time later. September 1, 1884, he deserted her and told her he would not support her. She is living with her son, in Green Ridge, and he with his daughter, in Dunmore. Joseph F. Gilroy was Mrs. Bailey's attorney.

FOR MINE INSPECTORS. Board of Examiners Held a Meeting and Organized. The board before whom candidates for mine inspector will be examined, yesterday. It is composed of James Young, of Dunmore; John P. Snyder, Scranton; Vaughn Richards, Priesburg; Alex. Rubland, Old Forge; James P. Morrison, Carbondale.

The board organized by electing Mr. Snyder, president, and Emil Bonn, secretary. It will hold another meeting on Friday. The examination conducted by this board will not be under the provisions of the Garner bill, which does not go into effect until January 1, 1902.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CLUB. Will Give Strawberry and Ice Cream Social This Evening. Among the talent who will entertain this evening at the strawberry and ice cream festival to be given by the Catholic Young Women's club at their rooms on Washington avenue, are: Will P. Burke, Miss Mary L. Mahon, Miss Agnes A. Callahan, W. A. Lynott, Poole Brothers, Misses Golden, Master Decker, the famous boy soprano; Miss Hannah Maguire.

The club extends a cordial invitation to its host of friends to come and enjoy one of the greatest events of the season.

For Sale—Building lot 25x100 feet on the 300 block Lackawanna avenue. Railroad alley in rear. For price and terms, write to "Anthracite," care Tribune Office.

Smoke the Pocono cigar.

WON MEDALS AND DIPLOMAS

GRADUATING CLASSES AT ST. THOMAS COLLEGE.

A Great Audience Attended the Tenth Annual Commencement Last Night at College Hall—Hon. L. D. Stapleton, of Brooklyn, Delivered the Night's Address and Rt. Rev. Bishop M. J. Hoban Presided Over Exercises—Addresses Made by the Graduates—Awarding of Prizes.

The great auditorium of St. Thomas College hall was thronged last night by an audience which was present to witness the graduating exercises of the class of 1911 of the institution. It was the tenth annual commencement of St. Thomas College hall, and the class of thirteen young men left the scenes of their scholastic triumphs in a veritable blaze of glory.

The hall was magnificently decorated. On either side of the stage was a platform, on one of which were seated a knot of clerical dignitaries and on the other the graduates and juniors. Palms, ferns and potted plants formed a border around the forms and stage, and a lavish use of the national colors in the decorations brought the Stars and Stripes everywhere before the eyes.

Large banners were draped across the front of the stage, and a number of large American shields were also in evidence. On the platform to the right of the stage were seated the Rt. Rev. Bishop M. J. Hoban, who presided over the exercises, and at his right hand was seated the Rev. Monsignor Eugene A. Garvey, of Pittston, while at his left hand was seen the Hon. L. D. Stapleton, city attorney of Brooklyn, N. Y. The Rev. Father Martin, of Nantuxet, Rev. Father Moffatt, of Taylor, Rev. Father Jordan, of Randolph, and a number of the local Catholic clergy were seated about the platform.

THE GRADUATES. It was about 8:45 o'clock when the graduates entered, followed by the juniors, and took their seats on the platform to the left of the stage. The graduates, four in the classical and nine in the commercial course, are: The degree of Bachelor of Science, conferred on John Aloysius Ruddy, Joseph William Fote, Thomas Martin Jordan, James Gerald Cullen. Commercial diplomas—Thomas Haggerty, James Joseph Cawley, Moses Whitty O'Malley, Bartholomew Francis Murphy, John Francis McAnn, Thomas Joseph Needham, Michael Joseph Dalley, George Francis Stuckart, James Francis Cummings.

When the applause created by the graduates' entry had subsided the college club played an overture, and the exercises proper then began. James Gerald Cullen was the first speaker of the night. His subject was "National Sentiment," and he treated it in a manner both careful and thoughtful. There is no better illustration in the history of time, of national sentiment, than in America, where true love of country prevails, he claimed. In part, he said: "The ardent enthusiasm which is the well spring of great deeds is everywhere found in this country. The glory of the age is the national sentiment for suffering humanity. Sentiments of peace, which make rulers hesitate before throwing down the gauntlet of war, sentiments of patriotism, and sentiments of industry, are the sentiments which give life and vigor of a greater life to all the countries in which they prevail."

"THE IDEAL REPUBLIC." "The Ideal Republic" was the subject of John Aloysius Ruddy's oration. One of the speakers, in his opinion, makes this the ideal republic of the world is the national combining of the great qualities which taken alone were not enough to preserve the giant republics which have in the world but to enter that place which you have been taught is the inheritance of the Christian gentleman.

The awarding of medals was next on the programme and the following students proved the prize winners: Medal for Evidence of Religion—Joseph Andrew McNulty. Next in merit, Edward Joseph O'Hara. Donated by Right Rev. Michael J. Hoban. Medal for Oratory—Aloysius Francis Colligan. Next in merit, John Edward McHale. Donated by Colonel Ezra H. Ripple. Medal for English Essay—Joseph W. Fote. Donated by Rev. Edward J. McLaughlin, pastor St. Cecilia's church, Brooklyn, N. Y. Medal for English Literature—Thomas Martin Jordan. Next in merit, Joseph Andrew McNulty. Donated by Hon. Frederick A. Tamm, New York city. Science Medal—Joseph William Fote. Next in merit, John Aloysius Ruddy. Donated by Matthew McKee, New York. Medal for Mathematics—John Aloysius Ruddy. Next in merit, Thomas Martin Jordan. Donated by Thomas J. Foster, president of the International Correspondence Schools. Excellence Medal (Junior Class)—William Martin Kilkullen. Next in merit, Joseph Andrew McNulty. Donated by Messrs. Clarke Brothers. Excellence Medal (Freshman Class)—Joseph Raymond Jordan. Next in merit, Edw. Joseph Gardner. Presented by Rev. Michael R. Dunham, pastor St. Mary's church, Dunmore.

Tuesday morning the closing exercises of the preparatory school were held and the following prizes awarded: Special prize, gold watch, John Fadden, election. Freshman class, special prizes, Frederick Thompson, Robert Gardner and Thomas Burke. First preparatory, special prizes, Thomas Burke, Hugh, Edward Donnelly, Patrick Foley, John McHugh, William De Lacy. Second preparatory, John Fadden, John Lottis, Joseph Bongiorno, Aloysius Mulligan, Fred Linsler, John Gilroy, Thomas Mullen, Clair McHale, Robert Tindin, Third preparatory, Edward Burke, Michael Abel, John Powell, Cecil Foster, Stanford Burke, William Foster. Special remembrance prizes, Patrick McAndrew, John Rietveld.

First Presbyterian Sunday School. Excursion to Heart Lake, near Montpelier, on Friday, June 28. A delightful ride of about forty miles to a beautiful lake situated about 1,600 feet above sea level. A special train will leave the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad station at 8:30 a. m., and will stop on flag signal at Glenburn and Delton. All members of the school are carried free. Others can purchase tickets at the rate of 75 cents for adults and 40 cents for children. Train will leave the lake for return trip at 5 p. m., and will stop at Delton and Glenburn upon notice to conductor.

Wall Papers, All Grades, All Prices. Norton's, opposite Hotel Jermyn. Your friends are interested in Scranton. Send them a copy of The Tribune's Souvenir.

Wayland Case Argued. Major Warren Attacked the Indictment Which Was Found Against Him on Several Grounds.

Only one of the more important quarter sessions cases on yesterday's argument list was reached. This was the case of the commonwealth against S. E. Wayland, charged with obstructing justice, in which an effort was being made to quash the indictment. Major Warren and Joseph O'Brien are attorneys for Mr. Wayland. The commonwealth is represented by District Attorney W. R. Lewis and E. C. Newcomb, of counsel for the Municipal League.

Major Warren opened the arguments with a vigorous attack on the methods pursued by the Municipal league in its prosecution of Mr. Wayland. He said he had nothing but commendation for the reform work the league has accomplished and is accomplishing, but he was constrained to say that their methods in the Wayland case were illegal, improper and unfair.

After reciting the facts, Major Warren proceeded to tear the indictment into all kinds of shreds. It was presented to the grand jury without any previous binding over, he said, and that is in violation of the decision that will permit of this, while there are any number of them expressly forbidding it. The declaration of rights says there shall be no presentment without a previous binding over, except in cases of flagrant vice or crimes of public notoriety. It is not to be exercised in any ordinary crime. Refusing to answer some questions at an aldermanic hearing, it was contended, was not a flagrant vice or crime of public notoriety.

The offense of obstructing justice, if anything, is where a person hinders a legal proceeding by being obstreperous or wilfully false. The libellant was neither of these, it was held. The failure of the municipal league's representatives to include in the matter of the indictment the replies of Mr. Wayland as well as the questions asked of him, was held to be an evasion and violation of the order of the court, and in consequence, a fatal defect. This omission, it was further stated, does the defendant a gross injustice as it makes it difficult for the jury to know the facts of the case on the constitutional question raised by his replies, the burden of which was that he relied in his refusals on the bill of rights.

The proceedings before the alderman were assailed for various alleged irregularities. It was flagrantly irregular, the major contended, because of the attempt of the magistrate to hear divers causes at one and the same time, and because of the defendant being tried for bribery and some for corrupt solicitation, and the law makes these two separate and distinct crimes. It was manifestly a legal impossibility, it was argued, for the alderman, simultaneously, to try a man for a crime and another for a totally different crime. It was also charged that a fatal mistake was made in not affirmatively setting forth the magistrate's jurisdiction.

The main ground for moving the quashing of the indictment, Major Warren stated, was that the "exception" provision of the constitution in regard to witnesses in bribery cases not being entitled to avail themselves of the protection of the bill of rights is not self-executing and the only law passed by the legislature to carry it into effect makes it apply specifically to hearings before trial judges. An alderman assuredly is not a trial judge, and the bill of rights is therefore in full force in an alderman's court, it was argued.

But even if this contention was not good, Major Warren went on to say, the bill of rights would still stand free. He contended that the exception in question, for the bill of rights of the Federal government has this protecting clause, and the constitution of the United States says that no state shall pass any law that will abridge or infringe the constitutional rights of the individual. "The Fourteenth amendment, which was passed to protect the black man in the South, will protect the white man in the North, and we will secure to our client this protection, if we can get the Supreme court of the United States," declared Major Warren with dramatic force. He concluded with the declaration that the Municipal league would not be permitted to override the constitution of the United States to give Alderman Fuller authority to send S. E. Wayland to jail as a criminal and to allow the league's attorneys to put thumb screws on the free-born citizens of Lackawanna county.

It was approaching 2 o'clock when Major Warren concluded, and the other arguments were in consequence put over until this morning. The motion to quash the indictment in the case against Mrs. Annie Ames, which was argued at length by Mr. O'Brien for the defendant, and District Attorney Lewis for the commonwealth, Mrs. Ames was prosecuted by her husband, but a nol prosequi was entered the next day. Mrs. Knapp, the wife of the man in the case, had Mrs. Ames arrested.

Mr. O'Brien argued that court can abate a prosecution, if, in its discretion, the ends of justice are served, and the court by accepting the nol prosequi in the first case, practically declared that the ends of justice were served by abating the prosecution. This being the case, the new indictment should be quashed. District Attorney Lewis opposed the motion on the ground that it would not be serving the ends of justice to have Dr. Knapp languishing in jail and the woman, who was equally guilty in the eyes of the law, going about scot free.

(Continued on Page 8.)

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.

County Detective Phillip reported yesterday that Joseph Peck, who was arrested by Joseph Rutledge, at the Ridge, Sunday night, is in a serious condition. Court accordingly refused to take bail for the defendant.

In the epistle, Michael Holland against Mary Hovey, the demurrer was yesterday sustained and the bill dismissed at the cost of the plaintiff.

Methodist Episcopal church of Hamilton street applied to court yesterday to amend its charter so as to change the title to the Emory Methodist Episcopal church of South Main and Box Main streets, and to change the name to Hamilton township. Attorney G. L. Peck represented the petition.

WAYLAND CASE ARGUED.

Major Warren Attacked the Indictment Which Was Found Against Him on Several Grounds.

Only one of the more important quarter sessions cases on yesterday's argument list was reached. This was the case of the commonwealth against S. E. Wayland, charged with obstructing justice, in which an effort was being made to quash the indictment. Major Warren and Joseph O'Brien are attorneys for Mr. Wayland. The commonwealth is represented by District Attorney W. R. Lewis and E. C. Newcomb, of counsel for the Municipal League.

Major Warren opened the arguments with a vigorous attack on the methods pursued by the Municipal league in its prosecution of Mr. Wayland. He said he had nothing but commendation for the reform work the league has accomplished and is accomplishing, but he was constrained to say that their methods in the Wayland case were illegal, improper and unfair.

After reciting the facts, Major Warren proceeded to tear the indictment into all kinds of shreds. It was presented to the grand jury without any previous binding over, he said, and that is in violation of the decision that will permit of this, while there are any number of them expressly forbidding it. The declaration of rights says there shall be no presentment without a previous binding over, except in cases of flagrant vice or crimes of public notoriety. It is not to be exercised in any ordinary crime. Refusing to answer some questions at an aldermanic hearing, it was contended, was not a flagrant vice or crime of public notoriety.

The offense of obstructing justice, if anything, is where a person hinders a legal proceeding by being obstreperous or wilfully false. The libellant was neither of these, it was held. The failure of the municipal league's representatives to include in the matter of the indictment the replies of Mr. Wayland as well as the questions asked of him, was held to be an evasion and violation of the order of the court, and in consequence, a fatal defect. This omission, it was further stated, does the defendant a gross injustice as it makes it difficult for the jury to know the facts of the case on the constitutional question raised by his replies, the burden of which was that he relied in his refusals on the bill of rights.

The proceedings before the alderman were assailed for various alleged irregularities. It was flagrantly irregular, the major contended, because of the attempt of the magistrate to hear divers causes at one and the same time, and because of the defendant being tried for bribery and some for corrupt solicitation, and the law makes these two separate and distinct crimes. It was manifestly a legal impossibility, it was argued, for the alderman, simultaneously, to try a man for a crime and another for a totally different crime. It was also charged that a fatal mistake was made in not affirmatively setting forth the magistrate's jurisdiction.

The main ground for moving the quashing of the indictment, Major Warren stated, was that the "exception" provision of the constitution in regard to witnesses in bribery cases not being entitled to avail themselves of the protection of the bill of rights is not self-executing and the only law passed by the legislature to carry it into effect makes it apply specifically to hearings before trial judges. An alderman assuredly is not a trial judge, and the bill of rights is therefore in full force in an alderman's court, it was argued.

But even if this contention was not good, Major Warren went on to say, the bill of rights would still stand free. He contended that the exception in question, for the bill of rights of the Federal government has this protecting clause, and the constitution of the United States says that no state shall pass any law that will abridge or infringe the constitutional rights of the individual. "The Fourteenth amendment, which was passed to protect the black man in the South, will protect the white man in the North, and we will secure to our client this protection, if we can get the Supreme court of the United States," declared Major Warren with dramatic force. He concluded with the declaration that the Municipal league would not be permitted to override the constitution of the United States to give Alderman Fuller authority to send S. E. Wayland to jail as a criminal and to allow the league's attorneys to put thumb screws on the free-born citizens of Lackawanna county.

It was approaching 2 o'clock when Major Warren concluded, and the other arguments were in consequence put over until this morning. The motion to quash the indictment in the case against Mrs. Annie Ames, which was argued at length by Mr. O'Brien for the defendant, and District Attorney Lewis for the commonwealth, Mrs. Ames was prosecuted by her husband, but a nol prosequi was entered the next day. Mrs. Knapp, the wife of the man in the case, had Mrs. Ames arrested.

Mr. O'Brien argued that court can abate a prosecution, if, in its discretion, the ends of justice are served, and the court by accepting the nol prosequi in the first case, practically declared that the ends of justice were served by abating the prosecution. This being the case, the new indictment should be quashed. District Attorney Lewis opposed the motion on the ground that it would not be serving the ends of justice to have Dr. Knapp languishing in jail and the woman, who was equally guilty in the eyes of the law, going about scot free.

(Continued on Page 8.)

Dainty Durable and Inexpensive... We are showing a splendid assortment of LIGHT, THIS-BLUES, GLASSWARE, COFFETS, CHAMPAGNE, WINES, CLARETS, FINE, TEA, BOWLS, SERRAVALLES, LARGE AND SMALL, BERRY DISHES, Apple-onia Tumblers, 81-09 dozen, Water-Tumbler, 81-23 dozen. The appearance of these goods, added to their inexpensive price, are strong factors in their favor.

Geo. V. Millar & Co. 134 Wyoming Avenue. Walk in and Look Around.

A Store Filled with Fireworks, Flags and Bunting. In our large "Fireworks Annex," at 422 Lackawanna Avenue, one block below our main store—we have gathered together by far the largest and most varied stock of Fireworks, Flags and Bunting ever seen in Scranton. Both the wholesale and retail trade is being supplied from this store. In this stock of Fireworks you will find a magnificent lot of setpieces and novelties, as well as the usual small pieces. In a word—We have everything in the line of Fireworks.

J. D. WILLIAM & BRO. (Fireworks Annex.) 422 Lackawanna Avenue.

Auction Sale Extraordinary Contents of Westminster Hotel, 217-219 Wyoming Ave., Scranton, Pa. Commencing Tuesday, June 25, at 10 a. m., Continuing from Day to Day Until Stock is Sold. Sale to consist of the furnishings of nearly 100 Rooms. Complete bar outfit—Back bar, front bar, pumps and counters, lunch refrigerator, floor linoleum, ceiling fan, screen partitions. Cash Register. Office fixtures—Writing tables, chairs, desk etc. 10 Large Pier Mirrors; these are all French plate and large enough for bar rooms. Dining Room—25 tables, 2 side boards, silverware, crockery, glassware, table linen. Kitchen—large 2 fire range and boilers, 1 steam table, 1 plate warmer, coffee, tea and hot water urns, carving table, cooking utensils. One Square Piano. Parlor Furniture—odd chairs, couches, lounges, tables, etc. 70 Bed Room Suits—All kinds of woods, hair mattresses, pillows, bed linens, toilet sets, etc. Thousands of Yards of Carpets, Wardrobes, separate bureaus, wash stands, etc. This is the largest sale of the season and those desirous of furnishing or refurbishing their homes should take advantage of this opportunity. Sale Absolute. Terms Cash. The house will be open for inspection from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. Monday preceding sale. JOHN JERMYN.

A Revolution in Furniture... It is furniture made from PRAIRIE GRASS. In over three hundred original styles and designs.

Hill & Connell. Are showing Prairie Grass Furniture in Chairs, Settees, Tables, Stands, Tabourettes, Couches. Call at 124 Washington avenue and look over this very artistic and useful line.

SUMMER RESORTS. Living Inland You Need the Seashore. Fenwick Hall. Has all the usual summer attractions: private golf links, perfect roads for driving and cycling, boating and fishing, bathing pavilions, tennis courts, bowling alleys and billiards. The hotel is furnished with private baths, elevators and all modern conveniences, and supplies a table which cannot be surpassed.

Fenwick Hall. Has all the usual summer attractions: private golf links, perfect roads for driving and cycling, boating and fishing, bathing pavilions, tennis courts, bowling alleys and billiards. The hotel is furnished with private baths, elevators and all modern conveniences, and supplies a table which cannot be surpassed. The social atmosphere, as are all the accommodations, is inviting to refined people. For full particulars, address J. E. Chubb, proprietor, Hotel Jefferson, New York.

The KODAK Speaks a tongue known of all people... The perfect camera adapted to all purposes and places, all climates and conditions... Take one with you on your vacation and have us do your finishing when you return.

All styles to select from at Kemp's Studio 103 Wyo. Ave.

CITY NOTES.

NEWSBOY'S SOCIAL. The Scranton Newsboys' union will give their first annual entertainment in Gaither's hall next Wednesday night.

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE. Attorney G. L. Peck, of Millerton, Pa., was yesterday admitted to practice in the district judicial court.

TEXT MEETINGS. Mrs. Sidwell, of Green Ridge, will speak in the court room at Adams avenue and Mulberry street, at 2 o'clock today.

ST. DAVID'S CHURCH. The choir of St. David's church will practice this evening instead of Friday evening. All members are requested to be present.

EMPLOYED BY OUTING. The popular and well known party boat, the "Maiden," will leave for its outing to the Young Men's Club on Tuesday evening. The ladies are requested to meet at the Young Men's Club on Tuesday evening, June 21, at 8 o'clock. A song service has been arranged for Tuesday afternoon, and any good singer will be welcomed at the rehearsal.

CREMATORY INSPECTED. Recorder Cornell, Director of Public Safety, Wagoner, Director of Health, Allen and several of the commission inspected the crematory yesterday. This was done so that all might have an understanding of the construction of the place before an ordinance is introduced, inasmuch as providing for the repairs necessary at the crematory.

SINGERS TO MEET. Those who assisted in the choir at the laying of the corner stone of the Young Men's Club on Tuesday evening, June 21, at 8 o'clock. A song service has been arranged for Tuesday afternoon, and any good singer will be welcomed at the rehearsal.

WILL HOLD AN INQUIRY. Governor Robert has decided to hold an inquiry in the case of James Lilly, the young man who was found dead Sunday evening on the railroad tracks beneath the Millin avenue retaining wall. The time and place will be announced later. Relatives and friends of the deceased are of the opinion that the young man met with foul play and any means, if possible, to have the mystery cleared up.

NEW GUIDE OUT TODAY. The new issue of the Scranton Pocket Guide and Business Directory, which has been delayed on account of important and numerous changes in the tables, will be distributed today. It contains the complete schedule of Pennsylvania railroad, Lehigh Valley railroad, Central Railroad of New Jersey, Wilkes-Barre, Dallas and Harvey's Lake, also all the new travel changes. This issue of the guide contains, instead of the city map, a new series of road maps of the Lackawanna, Wyoming and Lehigh valleys.

Extra copies of The Tribune's Souvenir sell for 20 cents.

SUNDAY EXCURSION TO LODORÉ. Seventy-five Cent Rats from Scranton Made by the D. & H. Company.

Beginning next Sunday, June 25, and ending Sunday, September 15, the Delaware and Hudson company will run Sunday excursions to Lake Looney.

The rate has been reduced to 75 cents from Scranton for the round trip. This will be the rate at all stations to and including Pikesville. The rate from Pikesville will be 65 cents; Jersey and Mayfield, 60 cents; Carbondale and Honesdale, 50 cents.

Mr. James Gorman, of Carbondale, who gave such excellent service on Memorial Day, will do the catering on Sunday. The menu, which is a new and will serve all manner of refreshments suitable for Sunday, including clams and clam chowder. A new soda water fountain has been set up especially for Sunday business. The boats and launches will be run from the new wharf near the great pavilion. No other place furnishes such opportunities of spending a restful Sunday as this cool drive by Lake Looney. Trains will leave Scranton at 5:30 and 11:30 a. m.

Your friends are interested in Scranton. Send them a copy of The Tribune's Souvenir.

Try the new 5c cigar "Kloun."

And Russell's. DEALERS IN HIGH-GRADE Investment Securities.

DEALERS IN HIGH-GRADE Investment Securities. OFFICES: 66 BROADWAY, N. Y. WILKES-BARRE, PA. CARBONDALE, PA. SCRANTON, PA. (Commonwealth Building.)

CITY NOTES.

NEWSBOY'S SOCIAL. The Scranton Newsboys' union will give their first annual entertainment in Gaither's hall next Wednesday night