MOOSIC IS THE DEBTOR

OWES LACKAWANNA SCHOOL DISTRICT $8,636.

Commissioner John R. Edwards Makes His Report on the Division of School Property-Interesting Question of Law Bound Up in the Meyer's Property-Suit Over Coal Royalties-Wants Damages for False Imprisonment-Good Old Name in Divorce Court.

According to the report filed yesteray by Attorney John R. Edwards, commissioner approinted by court to adjust the division of school property between the Lackawanna township and Moosie borough school districts, the borough district owes the township district $8,636.

Moosic was separated from Lackawanna township and erected into a borough Nov. 28, 1898. The territory embraced in the borough of Moosic contained the Greenwood, Moosic, Stark's Patch and No. 4 schools. The remaining portion of the township contained the Minooka, Lackawanna, Pyne and Continental schools and the Gibbons lots, purchased for school

The commissioner finds that the schools located in Moosic are valued as follows: Greenwood, $2,401; Moosic, $11,076; Stark's Patch, $622; No. 4, $542; total, $14,641. The Luckawanna town-ship schools he finds are valued as follows: Minooka, $4,560; Pyne, $1,813; Continental, $1,779; Gibbons lots, $1,-725; total, $9.877.

The assessed valuation of the township at the time of the division was $1,924,872, of which $695,991 was on property in the township, and $328 .-881 on the property of the borough. The money in the hands of the township school district treasurer at the time of the division was $6,075.61, and the indebtedness was $12,000.

From these figures the commissioner finds that the borough has an undue proportion of the school property of the old district, and directs that judgment be entered in favor of the township and against the borough for

The borough is directed to pay three-fourths of the costs and the township seven-tenths.

Attorneys John M. Harris and M. J. Donahoe, solicitors, respectively for the borough and township, were the attorneys in the case.

Interesting Law Question.

An interesting question in law attaches to the ownership of the Meyers property, at the corner of Linden street and Jefferson avenue. It is to be tried out in an equity suit instltuted yesterday by Attorneys E. C. Newcomb and H. M. Hannah, for Elizabeth Kraft, against Charles D. Neuffer and Minnie Meyers.

The plaintiff's father, now deceased, was the owner of the property. In 1878 he and his wife, Minnie Meyers, one of the defendants, executed what purported to be a deed of trust to Philip Doersam and John Lutz, by the terms of which the property was to be sold after the death of Meyers and his wife, and the proceeds to be divided between Elizabeth Kraft, their only daughter, and Joseph Meyers, a acphew, the daughter to receive the larger share In 1888, Messrs, Lutz and Doersam, on their own petition, were discharged from the trusteeship, and C. D. Neuffer was appointed in their stead.

In 1881, by a supplementary indenture, William Meyers and wife altered the terms of the trust so that it was more favorable to their daughter. In 1886, Joseph Meyers, the nephew, by deed of assignment, assigned and transferred all his interest in real and personal property to J. S. McAnulty. These are still subsisting judgments against Joseph Meyers, which have never been satisfied.

In 1888, Joseph Meyers, the nephew, died intestate. In 1899, William Meyers. Just prior to his death, wholly revoked and set aside the allged deed of trust, if it was then in force, and by his last will and testament, devised the whole of said property to his daughter, Mrs. Kraft, the plaintiff.

Mrs. Kraft now claims that there is now no person who is legally ontitled to take the interest in the said estate which might have remained in Joseph Meyers, the deceased nephew, and that by reason of this fact she is the sole owner of the property.

The trustee, Mr. Neuffer, has advertised the property for sale, June 20, Mrs. Kruft wants the sale deferred until the legal existence of the trust passed upon and the rights of the widow settled. Judge J. W. Carpenter will pass upon the injunction request today. A short time ago, this same property was advertised for sale, but an adjournment was secured to give an opportunity of settling the dispute in a case stated. The parties, however, could not agree on the facts, and the trustee again advertised the property

Judge J. W. Carpenter vesterday neard arguments in the equity case of the West Ridge Coal company against C. S. Von Storch and others.

The case has been hanging fire it the courts for two years. The coal company leased a tract from the Von Storch estate, agreeing to pay certain royalties on a minumum output of 33,000 tons. There was a provision that the lessee should be excused from mining and paying for the minimum in case of faults in the veins or strikes, but "must use all reasonable means to remove such obstacles."

The company made claim that the veins thinned out and would not pro duce more than 8,000 tons, and petiioned court to have the minimum clause in the lease revised accordingly. The Von Storchs opposed the peti tion, alleging that the lowest vein, in which no "fault" was encountered would of itself produce the minimum. if diligently operated.

A great mass of expert and other testimony was taken and from this and the arguments made yesterday. Judge Carpenter is to decide just how much merit there is to the petition. Attorney J. E. Burr appeared for the plaintiff, and Jessup & Jessup for the defendant.

Alleges False Imprisonment.

Alderman Millett, of the Sixth ward, and Max Judkovitz were vesterday made defendants in a $3,000 damage suit. The plaintiff, John Zalweski, alleges that they had him falsely imprisoned.

According to Zalweski's story, Judkovitz had him arrested before Al-derman Millett and he was held in $300 bail to appear at court. He offered competent ball, but the alderman would not accept it and had him sent to jail. Three days later he again proferred surety, but again it was refused, and he was made to lie in prison several days longer. Attorney P. F. Loughran represents the plaintiff.
