Susquehanna, June 25.-Edward Cheeseman, of Gulf Summit, a few days since killed two black snakes and a rattlesnake. The blacksnakes showed fight, and but for the assistance of his dogs. Cheeseman would have been second in the fight. One of the blacksnakes measured six feet three inches in length and the other six feet ten inches. The rattler was a small one and was easily vanquished.

Mr. Cheeseman has had queer adventures with snakes. A few years since he noticed that one of his cows gave very little milk, and he set about solve the mystery. One morning. while riding behind a log, watching the herd, he was astonished to see a big rattlesnake crawl from under a rock and begin milking the cow in question. Cheeseman attacked the rattler with a club and soon placed it hors du combat. The cow missed the companionship of the snake for a few days and refused to eat, but in a week she resumed the business of pro-

ELOPED WITH GRANDDAUGHTER It is reported that Fred T. Graves has been sentenced from Broome county for falling in love and eloping with his granddaughter. Graves, who is said to be a former resident of Elgin, Illinois, came into this section three years ago, and a short time after married his boarding-house mistress. Later he fell in love with his granddaughter, Delia Mae Vanderbo, and the couple eloped. They were pursued and overtaken by the irate wife and grandmother, who caused Graves' arrest on a charge of abduction, the girl being scarcely 16. Mrs. Graves is now suing for a divorce. The granddaughter declares that on the expiration of Graves' sentence she will marry him.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, June 25.—Prices of stocks re-acted sharply today and were carried down under such active selling as has not been seen in the market for several weeks past. This development did not make itself felt until late in the day. There was a continual slight dribble of stocks on the market, under which prices slowly, but pretty steadily yielded, except for a few special cases where a desultory speculation for the rise centered on where buying was induced by causes individual to the stocks.

These were entirely without influence on the general list. A rather general tendency to recover from some opening declines had the edge taken off it by the first bulletin announcement of the suspension of an important bank in Leipsie. The course of German bank shares for the last few days has indicated an unsettled condi-

sic. The course of German bank shares for the last few days has indicated an unsettled condition of affairs in Germany and today's occurrence arouses apprehension that the coming semi-annual settlements in Berlin may be the occasion of a more or less extended collapse.

These conditions made the speculative mind sensitive and late in the day when rumors began to circulate of local banking troubles there was a lively spilling out of stocks all through the list. The bears made the most of their unexpected opportunity and offered prices down boldly while the rumors were at the high tide of exaggeration. They succeeded in breaking through the defenses which had been established by the bull leaders while they were away for their vacations and licavy stop loss orders were uncovered. Stocks with any large speculative accounts in them were most naturally affected. covered. Stocks with any large speculative accounts in them were most naturally affected. St. Paul and Missouri Pacific were conspicuous in the decline, as were a number of less prominent stocks, which were marked up in the early dealings. The drop in St. Paul extended to 3 points. When the nature of the investigation being made by the clearing house association became more accurately known and it was announced that no action would be necessary there was a lively scramble on the part of the professionals to cover. St. Paul recovered 2½; Missouri Pacific, 2½, and Manhattan, 2½. But the closing was not free from teverishness and was rather irregular.

The bond market was affected by the late selling, but in a much less degree than stocks. Total ing, but in a much less degree than stocks. Total sales par value, $2,770,000. United States refunding 2s and new 4s adcanced 14 per cent, on the last call,
