

WEST SCRANTON

CLASS OF NINE YOUNG LADIES

GRADUATED FROM ST. PATRICK'S PAROCHIAL SCHOOL.

Closing Exercises Held Last Evening in the Basement of the Church. Addresses by Misses Anna R. Hurst and Alice G. Carey...

The fifteenth annual commencement exercises of St. Patrick's parochial school were held in the basement of the church last evening...

The opening number was a selection by the school orchestra, which was cleverly executed. The players were: Violins—Misses H. Jordan, M. Gilroy, T. McCoy, Misses F. McHale, J. Kennedy, T. Rittenhouse...

The salutatory address was given by Miss Anna R. Hurst, who extended a cordial greeting to the parents and friends of the scholars present.

Those decorated with gold medals were Misses Alice Carey, Anna Hurst, Mary McAndrew, Mary Mack, Mary Jordan, Teresa McCoy, Alice Cooper, Katherine Higgins and Dora Riddle.

Miss Helen May Reese, of 231 Chestnut street, a member of the graduating class of St. Paul's parochial school, met with an unfortunate accident yesterday which will prevent her participating in the school exercises this afternoon and evening.

Among the graduating presents she received was a bicycle from a relative in New York, and yesterday she attempted to ride the machine and fell, dislocating her ankle. Dr. George B. Reynolds was called and attended her.

The annual excursion of the Sloan-Central Athletic fund will be run to Lake Ledore tomorrow morning, leaving the Delaware and Hudson station at 7:30 o'clock.

During the day there will be athletic and aquatic contests, such as foot races, boat races, etc., and the West Side Tennis and Alerts base ball clubs will battle for a prize of $100.

Arrangements have been made by the committee in charge of the Ancient Order of Britons' excursion to Mountain Park on July 4 for four special trains during the day.

Workmen are engaged in placing a curb at the corner of Washington street and South Main avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wenzel and Conrad Wenzel and son Victor, of West Lehigh avenue, are among the visitors at the Pan-American exposition.

Local union, No. 1022, United Mine Workers of America, will meet in D. D. Evans' hall, South Main avenue, tomorrow evening, and give out working cards to those not in possession of them.

Miss Martha Hughes, of Bloomsburg State Normal school, returned home last evening.

Misses Ella and Mabel Hancock, of Evans street, will spend the next two weeks visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

The Epworth league and Sunday school of the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church will run an excursion to Harvey's lake on Wednesday, July 21.

James Gorman, of Hazelton, is visiting at the home of Patrick Conway, on South Bromley avenue.

St. Peter's Total Abstinence and Benevolent society, of Bellevue, will receive holy communion in a body at the St. Paul's church Sunday morning at 7 o'clock.

The funeral of the late H. A. Cramer was privately conducted from the house on Lafayette street yesterday morning.

St. Leo's battalion and St. Paul's Pioneer corps met last evening in regular session and transacted business pertaining to their respective organizations.

The Mothers' jewels were entertained at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church yesterday afternoon with music, ice cream and cake.

Following the lodge session there was a social hour, over which Venerable Counsel Otto D. Myers presided. Addresses were made by Edward E. Rehan, of Hyde Park camp; John R. Hughes, of Green Ridge camp; and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Osterhout, of Oak street, have returned home, after spending the past two weeks at Middleport, Conn.

The entertainment which was given last evening by the children of St. Mary's English and German school at St. Mary's hall, on Hickory street, was, as usual, very largely attended.

Dr. H. Bessey, of Church avenue, is in Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Osterhout, of Oak street, have returned home, after spending the past two weeks at Middleport, Conn.

Miss Sara Bryne's, the salutatorian, welcomed the guests of the evening in an unusually happy manner.

The annual commencement exercises of the Dunmore High school were held last night in Washington hall and notwithstanding the extreme heat, the hall was crowded with friends and relatives of the graduates.
