MISS CLARK'S PUPILS. They Gave a Recital at the Cottage Residence Last Night. Margaret Clark gave a piano recital last night at the residence of D. C. Cottle, 644 Clay avenue. They were assisted by Miss Margaret Mitchell, soprano, and William Jones, tenor. The playing of Miss Clark's pupils demonstrated the thoroughness of her methods and her ability to impart, not only the technical part of music but to inspire the pupils with the ideas of the composers whose works they interpreted last night. The programme, which was brilliantly rendered throughout, follows:

ARE UP AGAINST IT. Darlings Little Darlings Give Up in Despair—Pursued by a Hoodoo. Ill luck is pursuing the Darling and their little darlings. Last week, it will be remembered, that at Wilkes-Barre Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Darling were arrested on a charge of poisoning one of their employees. When they proved themselves guilty of the alleged offense, they found their show disgraced and their treasury depleted.

PERMANENT VIEWERS. City Solicitor Watson Says There is an Act Which Provides for a Board to Serve Three Years. City Solicitor Watson has discovered an act applying to cities of the second class, providing for the appointment by council of a permanent board of viewers to assess benefits and damages caused by public improvements. This act, he says, was repealed by the "ripper" bill, but has been restored to the statute books by the "chaser," which is now a law.

THE INJURED. The list of those seriously injured, as far as could be learned, was as follows: Jacob Mendelsohn, Mayfield, both legs badly crushed. Mrs. John Maze, of Belmont street, Carbondale, shoulder broken and severe bruises. John Manley, of Jessup, back sprained and head badly bruised.

CONDUCTOR INJURED. The motorman escaped uninjured, but Conductor Brownell sustained a badly strained back. Mr. Mendelsohn, who is probably the most badly injured, was on the rear platform, ready to alight, when the car overturned and was pinned underneath the car. It was several minutes before he was taken out.
