special to the Scranton Tribune. Montrose, July 1 .- It's 98 in the shade today, but we also have with us that ever-present breeze for which this town is noted.

The Presbyterian Sunday school will hold its annual picnic at Heart lake on Tuesday, July 9.

Miss Grace L. Smith, an instructor in the public schools of Wilmington, Delaware, arrived in Montrose the last of the week, and will spend the summer at the home of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, on Chenango street, George Mack spent Sunday with friends at Forest lake and Silver lake. L. B. Parks, of Hickory Grove, was a visitor at S. S. Wright's on Saturday. Ralph B. Little, the popular and efficient district attorney of Susquehanna county, has announced himself a candidate for re-nomination to his present position, subject to the decision of the Republican convention to be held next month. Mr. Little has performed all the duties of the office so satisfac torily that not a name other than his has been mentioned in connection with the nomination, and without the slightest doubt he will be named for a second term by the unanimous voice of his party.

S. E. Brodhead was the guest over Sunday of relatives in Scranton and Old Forge.

Mrs. Adeline Stoddard is having extensive improvements made to her residence on South Main street.

Miss Teresa Kelly is at Atlantic City for a couple of months. Miss Blennie M. Bunnell, of Rush, is visiting at the home of George H. Frazier, Mrs. T. F. Mack and daughters, Bessie and Katherine, spent Saturday at Maple Grove farm, the pleasant resi-dence of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hawley, The ladies of the Presbyterian church have arranged to make their patriotic festival, to be held in the chapel this evening, a most enjoyable affair, and there is a prospect of a large attend-

The front of A. B. Burns' Eagle drug store is being repainted.

The appearance of the street foun-tain, presented to the town by John S. Tarbell and which adorns Public avenue, has been much improved by the application of a coat of paint.

The Jessie Sawtelle Dramatic company is booked for a week's engagement at Village hall, for the week beginning Monday, July 8. The Sawtelles are old favorites with Montrose people. and will likely be greeted by large audiences.

The death of Mr. Wilson, father of Dr. J. G. Wilson, occurred at the lat-ter's home on Maple street, in this place, on Saturday evening, after a long illness. The remains were taken to the former home of the deceased at Factoryville, yesterday at noon, following a brief prayer service at the house. The funeral was attended from Mr Wilson's late residence at Factoryville this afternoon. The widow and two sons, Dr. J. G. Wilson, of this place, and Dr. Paul Wilson, of New York, survive.

Miss Josephine Boyce, who has been spending the past two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Boyce, of Pine street, returned to Scranton on Monday.

In March last a young man by the name of Glenn was arrested on a charge of forgery, and after a hearing before Justice Kutz, at which it was proven that he had forged the names of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Depew, of Mill City, to a promissory note for $78, he was committed to jail in default of $400 bail to answer the charge before the April term of quarter sessions. At the April term he succeeded in getting his case bondsman, which writ is in the hands of the sheriff, but on Monday the county commissioners, by their solicitor, order the suit discontinued. The sheriff will serve the writ, however, and future developments will be awaited with interest. It is openly stated that no recognizance has ever been collected in this county and that several citizens have made some money by going bail in such cases, being well assured that no a tempt to collect would ever be made. In the meantime criminals are allowed to go scot free after putting up money for bail, and crime goes unpunished. Many citizens believe that the time has come to call a halt, and public opinion it very outspoken on the subject just at present. Dewitt Smith, of Monroe, was a business man n town on Monday.
