LOITERING IN THE SHADOWS

POLICE ENDEAVORING BREAK-UP THE PRACTICE.

One Young Woman Arrested on South Main Avenue Last Evening and Others Will Follow-Aldermanic Cases That Savor of the Ridiculous-Quartette of Young People Left at Lake Lodore-Enterprise Lodge Outing Postponed. Other News Notes and Personals.

Despite the vigilance of the police a number of young people persistently lofter in the shadow of the trees on South Main avenue, between Scranton and Washburn streets. Last evening Patrolman Hart dispersed them a number of times, but they returned each time, and finally he arrested a young woman and took her to the station

Lieutenant Williams who enrolled her name together with several of her companions on the dockets. For the sake of the families the names are withheld, but the parents will be called upon to chastise their children for leftering on the streets every evening.

This practice has become so general of late that it has become a nuisance end unless parents take cognizance of their children's conduct, the police will, and there will not be any lieniency shown as has been the rule in the past. An order prohibiting this practice was issued by ex-Director of Pub-Safety Hitchcock and is yet in

The police are determined to put a step to this sort of thing and if the offenders do not take warning through the newspapers and the examples already offered in arrests, imprison-bent or fines will rollow. The language used by some of these boys and girls is detestable, and it is surprising that parents allow some of them out after dark at all. Children whose ages range from five years up can be found loitering along Main avenue every evening, some jumping on street cars, others on wagons, and into all sorts of mischief.

Very frequently narrow escapes are recorded of them in avoiding accident, and others less fortunate are more or less injured by being run down by bicyclists, street cars and vehicles, Prequently these neglected children fall into the hands of the police for petty crimes, and their acte can be indirectly traced to their being allowed to roam the streets.

Aldermanic Cases.

Mrs. Kate Trice, of Price street, arested at the instance of Frank Hazletine, a neighbor, was arraigned be-fore Alderman John last evening on a harge of assault and battery. The defendant was released upon payment of Hazletine also had Mrs. Brown, of 1920 Price street, arrested for the larceny of mining tools, but owing to the lack of evidence the case was dis

Willie Reese, of Morris court, was arraigned before Alderman Davies for pointing a blank cartridge pistol at Winnie Ackerman. The girl alleged she had been disfigured, but the Alderman ould not see it that way and dismissed

Mrs. Elizabeth Pinder, of Price street, had Charles Tugend arrested before Alderman John for assault and battery and making threats, and he was held in $300 bail. The parties have been mixed up in a general quarrel for some time, in which suits and countersuits have been instituted, until they are al under bail. The evidence was too filthy to print. David Hughes originaly had Mrs. Pindu arrested, and last evning's proceedings were the outcome of the previous suits.

Assembly of Good Fellows.

District Deputy William Linney, , of the Royal Society of Good Fellows, is organizing an assembly of the order in West Scranton and already has a number of names on his errollment list. He expects to institute the assembly on July 24 at a hall to be announced later.

The society is a fraternal and beneficial organization, and was started in Providence, R. I., in 1882. Its mission is to aid members in sickness and distress and to unite its members in the bonds af fraternal good fellowship. Women are eligible as well as men, but they are restricted to their own branches. The central city assembly will hold a smoker in Guernsey hall this evening.

An Unpleasant Experience.

Samuel Jones and William Smith, of Lake Lodore on an excursion Tuesday and missed the last train leaving the They were accompanied by two young ladies from Dunmore, and the quartette became uneasy about how to get back to Scranton.

Finally the boys conceived the idea of renting a team and carriage at Waymart and then enjoyed a delightful drive of nine miles from there to Carbondale. They reached the Pioneer City in time to eatch the last train for Scranton.

Arabians Celebrating.
