New York, July 10.—With call loan rates yielding to a lower figure, it was nevertheless apparent today that uneasiness over the future of the money market was the principal cause of the renewed weakness in stocks. Anxiety on this point was somewhat relieved yesterday by the indications that July disbursements were beginning to come again into the market, but it was revived today by the engagement for export of $750,000 in gold. Liquidation was in large volume during the latter part of the day and seemed to come from all quarters. The active seiling by commission houses reflected the outside public's share in the movement. The larger part of the dealings and the most notable price movements were in the same stocks as for several days past, motably $1. Paul, Rock Island, Atchison, I nion Pacific, Missouri Pacific and Louisville, but the list was very generally affected, the earnest trunk lines sharing quite fully in the day's weakness, Indications went to show that speculative bivers of the recent past and even long time holders who refused to be shaken out even by the May panic were among the sellers. The giowing consistion that there would he no sufficient case for money before the fall demand for moving the crops to inside active speculation was born in upon speculators who were holding large lots in anticipation of a mid-summer buying incordent and they three over were holding large lots in anticipation of a midsummer buying movement and they threw over stocks in large volume under the conviction that money conditions might be worse before they are better again. The unbroken drought in the corn belt and an effort to discount the account for the general weakness shown. Total
