

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES

Statement Made by the National Educational Association at its Meeting at Detroit.

PROBLEM OF EDUCATION

The Most Important Problem with Which the State Must Deal—Free People Must Be Developed by Free Schools—Stability of a Nation Depends Upon the Virtue and Intelligence of the Individuals Comprising the Nation—Public School System of a State Should Be Unit from Kindergarten to University.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Detroit, Mich., July 12.—The National Educational Association met at the last session of its fortieth convention, adopted a declaration of principles declaring that the problem of elementary education is the most important one with which the state must deal.

The National Educational association, now holding its fortieth annual meeting in the city of Detroit and representing the teachers and friends of education throughout the United States, makes the following statement of principles:

1.—The problem of elementary education is the most important problem with which the state must deal. The progress and happiness of a people are in direct ratio to the universality of education.

2.—The bureau of education, under the direction of William T. Harris, commissioner of education, has rendered invaluable service to the cause of education throughout the United States. It is the judgment of this association that the powers of this bureau should be greatly enlarged and that the general direction of public education in all the territories of the United States not under state control, including our new possessions, should be part of the duties of the bureau.

3.—We reiterate the statement that the public school should be the center of the educational life of the community in which it is located. Especially should this be true in rural districts. Here should be found the public library for the use of all; here the educational extension courses should draw the old and the young; here may literary and social meetings be held which will tend to uplift the mental, social and spiritual life of the people.

4.—Our system of education will not be wholly free until every grade of school from the kindergarten, and including the university, shall be open to every boy and girl of our country.

5.—The liberality of men of wealth in making large donations to institutions of learning is to be strongly commended and encouraged. At the same time it should be borne in mind that popular education rests upon the people and should look to them for their chief support and control.

6.—The public school system of a state should be a unit from the kindergarten to and including the university and all private institutions should endeavor to work in harmony with the ideals of public education so far as their special purpose will permit them.

7.—The National Educational association recognizes the principle that the child has the same right to be protected by law from ignorance as from abuse, neglect and hunger; and it therefore records with approval that many of the leading states of the nation have compulsory education laws upon their statute books.

8.—While many cities have at least partly solved the problem of school supervision in most rural communities the problem is almost wholly unsolved. Close, constant, expert supervision of schools in both city and country is imperatively demanded, not only on account of the supreme importance of the teachers' work and the lack of well rounded preparation on the part of many teachers.

9.—The National Educational association watches with deep interest the solving of the problem of consolidating rural schools and transporting pupils at public expense, now attempted in many of our leading states. We believe that this movement will lead to the establishment of township and county high schools and thus bring advanced education to rural communities. We also believe that supplementary state support of rural high schools is in the highest interest of the entire state.

10.—The state should support and control institutions whose object is the preparation of teachers for the public schools. Normal schools free to persons preparing to teach are an absolute necessity in a perfected system of education.

11.—No one should be placed in charge of a school who has not been previously trained for the work of teaching. The plan of issuing teachers' certificates of low grade year after year is at best a makeshift and should be discontinued whenever the state is sufficiently advanced in education to warrant its discontinuance. There should be a limit to the length of time a person can serve as an apprentice in the vocation of teaching.

COLUMBIA WINS YACHT RACE

She Beats the Constitution by One Minute and a Half at the Finish.

BOSTON BOAT'S MISHAP

The Independence Loses Her Top Mast at the Very Start, but Sails a Magnificent Stern Chase with All Her Upper Canvas Gone—Yesterday's Race Closed the Series. The Official Time.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Boston, July 12.—The Columbia won today's race, the fourth of the series, beating the Constitution by a minute and a half at the finish, but by something more in corrected time. The feature of the day was the fine work of the Independence, which, after losing her topmast at the very start, sailed a magnificent stern chase with all her upper canvas gone and was only beaten by ten minutes at the finish. The day was the best that the yachts have had so far, a fine breeze blowing from the northeast, which sent them over the triangular course of thirty miles in a little over three hours. The new Herreshoff yacht was never ahead, although getting within two minutes of Columbia at the second mark. The Independence, after a delay of nearly six minutes in clearing away the wreckage, rounded the first mark about as many minutes behind the Columbia. The official time was as follows:

Table with columns: Boat Name, Elapsed Time, Corrected Time. Includes Columbia, Constitution, Independence, and Herreshoff.

The result of the four contests between these three boats leaves much to be desired, especially as to their respective merits in anything except light airs. Today's race was sailed in a 15-knot wind, the northeast today being much stronger than the southwest of yesterday.

The accident of the Independence occurred within two minutes after the start, the pre-emptor backstay breaking near the mast so that the top mast with no support broke short off at the mast head.

Fortunately none of the main sail halyards on the stays for the headstays were affected so after that the wreck went clear away the yacht was able to keep on.

The race today closed the series and the yachts will not meet again for at least ten days, the Constitution going to Bristol, the Columbia to New York, and the Independence probably to New London. Of the four events under the Newport Yacht Racing association the Constitution won the first two in light airs, beating the other yachts by a large margin, while the Columbia won the two in the hands of the new Bristol yacht. The Independence has lost in every race, although quite near the other two yachts in the last two contests.

DAY AT THE RACES. Losing Events at the Lake Erie Circuit—Results at Utica.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Utica, July 12.—The closing day of the Lake Erie circuit races at the local driving park were one-sided to be very interesting. Both events were captured by the Columbia.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Utica, N. Y., July 12.—Results: 2:23.45, pace; 3:00, trot; Wilkes, B. G. H. Crumpton, Canada; Walter Bar, second; Wood, H. C. Crumpton, Canada; 2:24.27, class; trotting; pace; Mattie Smith, ch. m., C. P. Doble, Birmingham; Capt. Murray, second; Mand D., third, Best time, 2:24.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Utica, N. Y., July 12.—Results: 2:23.45, pace; 3:00, trot; Wilkes, B. G. H. Crumpton, Canada; Walter Bar, second; Wood, H. C. Crumpton, Canada; 2:24.27, class; trotting; pace; Mattie Smith, ch. m., C. P. Doble, Birmingham; Capt. Murray, second; Mand D., third, Best time, 2:24.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Utica, N. Y., July 12.—Results: 2:23.45, pace; 3:00, trot; Wilkes, B. G. H. Crumpton, Canada; Walter Bar, second; Wood, H. C. Crumpton, Canada; 2:24.27, class; trotting; pace; Mattie Smith, ch. m., C. P. Doble, Birmingham; Capt. Murray, second; Mand D., third, Best time, 2:24.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Utica, N. Y., July 12.—Results: 2:23.45, pace; 3:00, trot; Wilkes, B. G. H. Crumpton, Canada; Walter Bar, second; Wood, H. C. Crumpton, Canada; 2:24.27, class; trotting; pace; Mattie Smith, ch. m., C. P. Doble, Birmingham; Capt. Murray, second; Mand D., third, Best time, 2:24.

LETTER FROM THE POPE

It is Received by Cardinal Gibbons at Washington.

THE UPRISING IN QUELPART

Reports of the Killing of Christian Converts on the Island Off Korea Are Confirmed.

FRENCH WARSHIPS THERE

They Find the Insurgents in a Menacing Attitude—Marines Are Landed and Two Missionaries Held by the Insurgents Are Rescued—All the Japanese Residents of Quelpart Are Saved—Korean Troops Sent to Quell Disturbance Find Quiet Restored.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Washington, July 12.—The reported uprising on the island of Quelpart, off the Korean coast, and the killing of several hundred Christian converts, is confirmed in mail press advices reaching the Japanese legation, which contain the reports of the captain of the Japanese man-of-war Senzen. The Senzen was at Chimuco, Korea, when the first word of the uprising was received. She made a rapid run to the island, arriving June 27. The captain reports that when two French men-of-war had arrived at the island they found the insurgents in a menacing attitude. Attempts were made to land French marines, but the landing was opposed. The French warships made a demonstration and succeeded in landing their marines. The insurgents then were repulsed and two missionaries held by them were saved.

After that affairs quieted and the uprising was quelled. During the outbreak 200 converts were killed by the insurgents. The captain of the Senzen reports that all the Japanese residents were saved and that the trouble was over when he arrived. Although a body of Korean troops had been sent to quell the disturbance they found quiet restored by the time they arrived.

PRINCE CHUN LEAVES FOR GERMANY

Will Visit Berlin and Formally Apologize for the Murder of Baron Von Ketteler.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Peking, July 12.—The departure today from Peking of Prince Chun, younger brother of Emperor Kwang Su, who has been selected formally to apologize at Berlin for the murder of Baron Von Ketteler, was a spectacular event. A special train took Prince Chun and his suite from here to Taku, from which port he will proceed by steamer to Shanghai. He sails from Shanghai July 20 for Genoa, and will proceed direct to Berlin to deliver his apology.

Prince Chun came to the station to bid the prince farewell. Two German officers formerly attached to the staff of Field Marshal Count von Waldersee will personally conduct Prince Chun and his party to Berlin.

Then Tsin, July 12.—James A. Ragsdale, American counsel here, has sentenced three American looters caught in the Chinese quarter of this city to four years imprisonment in the American jail at Shanghai, who were charged with the murder of a German minister to China, Dr. Munin von Schwartzstein, a German military band and a guard of honor and two of his brothers, many other persons and the destruction of property to the value of $100,000.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Pottsville, Pa., July 12.—Your marked entry the hotel of Peter Hoke at Yorkville late last night and entered into a scuffle with the proprietor, which resulted in the death of the stranger and the wound in the left thigh of Mr. Hoke, who was shot in the assault. The men were taken to the hospital and Mr. Hoke died. The three escaped, leaving the dead man behind them.

The body of the dead burglar has been identified as that of Charles E. Linebar, who was five at Erie, Pa. Linebar has been away from home for six months or more. He served in the United States army in Cuba. The parents will take charge of the body. He was 29 years of age.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Toronto, N. Y., July 12.—The British Zepplin, which was captured by the British in the North Atlantic, is being repaired at the Naval Dock, Halifax, N. S. The ship was captured by the British on July 8, and is being repaired at the Naval Dock, Halifax, N. S. The ship was captured by the British on July 8, and is being repaired at the Naval Dock, Halifax, N. S.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. London, July 12.—A dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, and made public today, says he has awarded a colonial post office. The post office was awarded to a private individual, and is being operated by him.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. London, July 12.—A dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, and made public today, says he has awarded a colonial post office. The post office was awarded to a private individual, and is being operated by him.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. London, July 12.—A dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, and made public today, says he has awarded a colonial post office. The post office was awarded to a private individual, and is being operated by him.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. London, July 12.—A dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, and made public today, says he has awarded a colonial post office. The post office was awarded to a private individual, and is being operated by him.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING

Weather Indications Today: PARTLY CLOUDY; WARMER.

MACHINISTS' STRIKE OVER

The Cincinnati Tie-Up Began May 20 and Involved from 5,000 to 7,000 Men.

CAUSE OF THE COLLAPSE

At a Secret Mass Meeting of Strikers a Report Was Made That It Had Been Found Impossible to Secure Assistance in Money from Headquarters in Washington—As Funds Had Been Exhausted the Strikers Were Advised to Return to Work.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Cincinnati, July 12.—The machinists' strike in this city, which began May 29 and involved from 5,000 to 7,000 employees, practically has been declared off.

A secret mass meeting of strikers was held today, at which a formal report was made that it had been found impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and they all refuse to be quoted, saying they do not care to do anything which might affect the injunction proceedings against them, set for hearing July 15. It is said, however, that the strikers failing to receive funds from Washington sent an agent to Washington to secure money. His report was that it was impossible to procure assistance in money from the headquarters in Washington. As the strike benefit fund is exhausted, the strikers were advised to return to work. Already about 600 have applied for reinstatement, and many more will do so tomorrow and Monday. No official statement has been made by the leaders of the strikers and