After a brief illness, Mrs. John Driscoll, a highly respected resident, died ta her home, on Prospect street, this morning. She is survived by the husband and several children, including a babe a few days old. The funeral will probably take place from St. John's 'atholic church on Monday morning. Business is brisk in and about the Erie shops.

William Malpass, of East Main street, was arrested this morning by Constable Washburn, charged by his wife with assault and battery. He will have a hearing this afternoon.

Miss Lulu Reilly has returned home rom a visit with Carbondale relatives. The Erie has purchased several new ocomotives of a much larger type than any heretofore used on the road. The first of the new order was put out on Saturday. It is No. 1,417, and is of the new compound cylinder type, designed for speed and heavy work.

The headquarters of A. E. Mitchell, chief mechanical engineer of the Erie railroad, will be removed from New York city to Susquehanna, and office rooms are now being fitted up. It is believed that the office of several other officials will soon be removed to this place, and that the town will enjoy a lecided boom. Machinery to the value of $275,000 has been put in the shops this season, and more will follow, in the enlarged botter shop and elsewhere, The old town is prepared to stand a very large amount of prosperity,

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, July 12. Today's stock market was ubmitted to another drastic process of liquidation, which caused some severe losses in the prices of stocks. In the late afternoon there was a substantial rally, which wiped out important. proportion of the demand and declines. The priportion of the demand and declines. The closing was irregular, but with prices near the top on the terrovery. The bears were the active factors in breaking prices, but the speculators long of stock stood passive without any assistance in the shape of buying to support the market. The consequence was that on each successive raid by the brain stop loss orders were incovered and speculative margins wiped out, forcing the brokers to sell out their customers to stop losses for themselves.

There was large selling through commission houses from all quarters by that these of helders which is discouraged by the mere fact of a decline and which sells on the prespect of getting stocks back at a lower fagure. Rehaying by this class of helders added to the demand from the corn belt showed no improvement in the view of stock operators, and it was the opening quotations to corn which toppied over prices of stock stier some progress laid been made toward recovery in the early dealings.
