lated. While there was some severe cutting, it is still a fact that Lackawanna, this year, gets more money from the state for its charitable insti tutions than it ever did before. The Lackawanna hospital appropri-governor had vetoed the Taylor hospital appropriation of $15,000, for which Representative James had so carnestly worked. The fact that practically nothing had been done as yet to estab lish this hospital accounts for the gov ernor's action. Altogether the cuts amounted to $2, 00,000. Lackawanna, according to Mr Fleitz, comparatively speaking, suffered the least of any county in the state.

The fact that the Lackawanna hos pital secures an appropriation of $40,000 more than it did last year, and that St Joseph's Foundling home and the Home Guard Duty-Co. A. 92; Co. B. 91; Co. C wanna members are to be congratu

Their Way to Work by Pickets Sent Out by the Striking Car Builders-No Very Serious Vio- a. m lence, However, Is Told of as Yet. Three of the Lackawanna Officials leave at 12:49 p. m. on the Stand-Large Crowd Attending the Hearing.

Judge John P. Kelly yesterday began the taking of testimony on the rule to make permanent the injunction granted last Saturday to restrain the striking car builders from illegally interfering with the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company in its efforts to get men to take the strikers' places.

The main court room could not a times seat all who came to hear the testimony. All the striking car build ers spent the whole day there, and many of the striking machinists and other idle craftsmen looked in for t time.

The plaintiff is represented by Hon E. N. Willard and Hon. C. P. O'Mal ley, of Willard, Warren & Knapp, and Joseph O'Brien, of O'Brien & Martin Mr. O'Brien did most of the question ing of witnesses for the plaintiff's side The defendant's attorneys are E. Newcomb and Clarence Balentine, Mr Newcomb doing most of the examin ing. Master Car Builder L. T. Canfield elts at the plaintiff's table as the rep resentative of the company. At the defendant's table sits P. J. McAndrew president of the Car Builders' associa tion, and Thomas Coyne, its secretary
