FUNERAL OF MRS. GOLDEN.

Remains Were Laid to Rest in Hanover Cemetery.

At Parsons yesterday occurred the funeral of Mrs. Margaret Golden, who died Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Jordan, of Green Lodge. The funeral was from the residence of another daughter, Mrs. Patrick Cox. At 10 o'clock a requiem high mass was celebrated in St. Dominick's church by Rev. T. F. Kiernan, pastor, assisted by Rev. J. F. Jordan, of Rendham, as deacon; Rev. F. J. McCarthy, of Ashley, as sub-deacon; and Rev. M. B. Donlan, of Dunmore, as master of ceremonies. There were present in the sanctuary Rev. R. A. McAndrew, of Wilkes-Barre; Rev. John O'Malley, of Kingston; Rev. M. F. Crane, of Avoca; Rev. Stephen O'Boyle, of Providence.

The sermon was preached by Father Kiernan, who took for his text the words: "I have fought the good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith." He delivered a simple, touching eulogy of the deceased, referring to her long, helpful, Christian life.

All of the pall-bearers were grandsons of the deceased. They were Dr. James J. Walsh, New York; Dr. Joseph Walsh, Philadelphia; Martin Walsh, Patuxent, Md.; William J. Walsh, J. Walsh, Martin J. Golden and Martin P. Golden, of Parsons. Interment was made in Hanover cemetery.

MUST REST ON SUNDAY

Recorder Connell Has Issued an Order with Reference to Merry-Go-Rounds and Razzle-Dazzles.

Recorder W. L. Connell issued an order yesterday directing that the noisy "merry-go-rounds" and "razzle-dazzles" outside and inside of Noy Ave park be hereafter closed down on Sunday. This order was issued after a hearing in the case of J. L. Crosby, who conducts an amusement station at the Mulberry street entrance to the park.

Crosby was arrested Thursday by direction of Building Inspector Jackson for erecting a building near the site of his "razzle-dazzle" and "merry-go-round" without obtaining a permit. There had been many complaints about persons who erect buildings without taking out a permit, and Alderman Howe, before whom Crosby was arraigned, fined him $50.

When Recorder Connell heard of this yesterday, he entered a protest, believing the order excessive. "I don't think it's justice," he said, and he recommended that Director of Public Safety Wornser take steps to have the fine placed at a more reasonable figure.

Many complaints had been lodged with the recorder and Director Wornser concerning the nuisance Crosby's amusement enterprise is to the people who live in that vicinity, and the recorder directed him to appear yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The matter of the building permit was first taken up and the recorder explained to Crosby that he had made a mistake in not getting the necessary permit. He advised him to do so at once and that action would be taken to have the fine considerably reduced. Crosby promised to get the necessary permit at once.

The recorder then read a number of letters for the benefit of Crosby. They were from people of the vicinity of his enterprise and complained that Crosby's amusement machines and games of chance are an intolerable nuisance and bring to that neighborhood a number of belligerent characters, who at night shout and use indecent language.

Crosby denied that he conducts games of chance. "We claim they are games of skill," he said. As to the complaints about the music ground out at his "merry-go-round," Crosby was visibly hurt.

"We claim our music is right up to date," he said, and into these words he compressed all the sorrow he felt for the benighted individuals who could not appreciate "My Hannah Lady," when from the front of the palpitating chest of an automatic organ with lusty lungs, "One of the best men" in Philadelphia set that music up for us, and we claim it is first class in every respect."

He then explained the mechanism of the organ, how certain stops, when brought into play, gave a piccolo and flute effect to the music. People come there in their carriages, he said, and clamor for him to use the piccolo and flute stops when the organ is in action. He intimated that it was not his fault that the people of the neighborhood who do not have to employ carriages to get the benefit of his organ recitals, with the wonderful piccolo and flute effects, to complain about the very thing that people who come in carriages want. And Crosby shook his head regretfully, as much as to say "there are people and people."

He invited the recorder up to attend one of his recitals, but the recorder was unmoved by all this. He told Crosby that his games of chance must cease at once and for good; that his "merry-go-round" and "razzle-dazzle" must take a rest on Sunday. "If the music constitutes a nuisance in the neighborhood, we will have to take the necessary steps to have it formally declared a nuisance," said the recorder. "The rights of the people of that part of the community must be respected."

After the Crosby hearing, the recorder issued a general order applying his ruling in that case to all the amusement enterprises in and around the park. The "merry-go-rounds" will take a rest Sunday and the big organs will be silent.

FIREMEN CLOSED DOWN NO MORE MINES YESTERDAY.

The Companies Succeeded on the Other Hand in Resuming Work at Five Collieries Which Had Been Closed by the Strike—The Pumps at the Glenwood Mine Are Once More Working and the Threatened Flooding of the Jermyn Mine Has Been Averted.

Superintendent J. R. Bryden, of the coal department of the Ontario and Western company, reported that the Richmond colliery at Richmond, which was closed down on Thursday, was re-opened yesterday morning, the places of the strikers being taken by members of the mine workers' organization.

Superintendent Rose, of the coal department of the Delaware and Hudson company, would not see newspaper men at all yesterday. He sent out word that he had nothing whatever to say for publication. Vice President F. M. Olyphant, of the Delaware and Hudson company, arrived in this city early yesterday morning and registered at the Jermyn Hotel. He was around town in the morning and left the hotel at noon, saying he was leaving the city. Just what his mission in the city was could not be learned. The company did not succeed in operating any additional collieries yesterday.

It was stated at the offices of the Pennsylvania Coal and Temple Coal and Iron companies that no additional mines were either shut down or opened yesterday and that the situation as concerned these companies remained precisely the same as on Thursday.

ENGINEERS MITT.

The members of Local Union No. 50 of the International Steam Hoisting Engineers' association held a meeting last night in Leonard's hall, Scranton, but nothing would be given out for publication except that no definite action regarding the firemen's strike had been taken nor would be taken until the result of the conference at Hazleton had been announced. The secretary of the union admitted that the question of ways and means for assisting the firemen in their strike had been discussed but nothing further.

President Mullaly, of the Firemen's association, announced on Thursday night that President Nichols, of the United Mine Workers, first district, had decided to notify all mine workers who have taken the strikers' places to quit work. President Nichols issued no such order yesterday but he went to Hazleton, new district, to leave any instructions to this effect with Secretary Dempsey. Therefore the mine workers who have been firing at some of the collieries continued work yesterday unchecked.

AT MAYFIELD.

The Glenwood, Erie and Keystone mines of the Hillside Coal and Iron company, located at Mayfield, were opened up yesterday morning, as predicted by Superintendent Inglis on Thursday. Only two of the strikers, however, showed up to do any firing. Other employees of the company and a few new men made up a sufficient quota to do all the firing required. The firing at the Glenwood is being done by miners, who volunteered their services to prevent the Jermyn mine from becoming flooded.

Superintendent Inglis said that the miners and other employees at these mines made no objection whatever to returning to work with the men who took the strikers' places, but seemed to be only too glad to get back at work again.

He stated that the strike had done little work which has been done in the last three weeks towards the pumping out of the Glenwood mine, which has been rapidly filling with water since the recent big flood up the valley. If the pump had been left idle for twelve hours longer, he said, the Jermyn mine of the Delaware and Hudson company would have been so flooded as to necessitate a closing down for at least six months.

The water, when it reaches a certain height in the Glenwood mine, flows into the Jermyn mine. Superintendent Inglis said that several new pumps are being installed at the Glenwood, and thought that it would be ready for work again in less than two weeks.

COLLIERY RESUMED.

It was given out from the office of Superintendent Loomis, of the coal department of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, yesterday that the Pettibone mine of that company, located at Kingston, resumed operations yesterday morning, about half of the striking firemen returning to work. The rest of the places being filled by mine workers.

Chief Clerk Tobey also announced that the striking firemen at the Avondale mine waited upon the superintendent yesterday afternoon and asked if they could have their places back. They were informed that they could have, and will, according to Mr. Tobey, all return to work this morning.

DR. BLANCHARD DEAD.

First Assistant Surgeon of the Thirtieth Regiment Passed Away Last Night.

While the Thirtieth regiment was marching through the city streets last night, Dr. George A. Blanchard, the first assistant surgeon of the command, was dying at his home, 613 Quincy avenue. He died about 11 o'clock.

Dr. Blanchard had been ill for about three weeks with typhoid fever, and it was thought up to Thursday night that he would recover. His condition took a change for the worse at that time and despite all that medical assistance could do, he passed away last night.

Dr. Blanchard was born thirty-five years ago in Hudson, New Hampshire, his father being a Congregational clergyman. The doctor received his early education at Exeter academy and later graduated from Williams college. From the latter institution he went to the University of Pennsylvania, where he took his degree in medicine.

After his graduation, he became junior surgeon at the Lackawanna hospital and later served a term as house surgeon. He made many friends in this city and decided to locate here permanently after he left the hospital. After he had been in active practice for about a year he was appointed assistant surgeon of the Thirtieth regiment, with the rank of first lieutenant, by Colonel H. A. Courson.

He entered in the volunteer service for the Spanish-American war with the other members of the Thirtieth and served as first assistant surgeon until the regiment was mustered out. He was later appointed to the same position in the reorganized Thirtieth regiment by Colonel L. A. Watres and held it at the time of his death.

Dr. Blanchard is survived by a bride of a year, he having married Miss Caroline Stuart Dickson, daughter of A. W. Dickson, in June, 1900. He is also survived by his mother and several brothers and sisters, all residing in New England.

The dead physician was a general practitioner of more than ordinary ability and had recently built up an excellent practice. He leaves a wide circle of friends, both in military and social circles, who will long remember him. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.
