BODY STILL IN LAKE LODORE

SEARCHERS WERE UNSUCCESS-FUL AGAIN YESTERDAY.

Soliciting Committee Have Already Secured Sufficient Money and Pledges to Insure the Services of a Professional Diver-Young Woman Injured by Falling from a Street Car-Coming Ball Game. Other Shorter Paragraphs of Interest.

Another day has passed without the -recovery of Daniel Meredith's body from the bottom of Lake Lodore. Similar efforts to those already made were tried yesterday, but without suc-Mr. Mcredith had not returned home up to a late hour last night, and the particulars of the day's work could not be obtained.

A message was received, however at the West Scranton office of The Tribune at 9 o'clock last evening to the effect that the body had not been recovered. Professional divers will be secured, as the money to defray the expense is in sight.

The committee having in charge the raising of funds to assist Mr. Meredith in finding the body met at the home of Morgan Thomas last evening, and the reports from the solicitors who were out yesterday were very encouraging. Nearly two hundred dollars have already been collected, and many pledges have been received for more

This sum is insufficient to defray the expenses of professional divers and the solicitors will continue their work today. The following are the authorized collectors: Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, Thomas H. Jones, John L. Jenkins, James A. Evans, P. J. Gibney A. B. Eynon, Mrs. Morgan Thomas, Miss Alice Thomas, Mrs. Thomas Thomas and Miss Mary Hobbs.

Each of the above-named have books issued by the committee, and any others are unauthorized. This state ment is made because it was reported last evening that collectors had been out who were not authorized, and had obtained money which was not turned over to the committee. Money forwarded to A. B. Eynon at the West Side bank or to any of the above-named solicitors will reach the relief fund and be properly applied. Mr. Evans will look after all collections at the Diamond mine, where Mr. Meredith has been employed for over thir-
