MONTROSE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Montrose, July 19 .- This has been busy day with the boys of Company G, getting in readiness to leave for Scranton tonight. The boys presented a very neat and dapper appearance at the Lackawanna station to take the 6 o'clock train, and Montrose is excusable for taking the pride that she does in such a handsome and soldierly looking body of men. There were many relatives and friends-wives, mothers, sisters and sweethearts-at the station to say a fond farewell and give the company a hearty send off. Their many smiles, a few tears, a waving of handkerchiefs by the ladies and lusty good byes by the men as the train pulled out. The company was in charge of Captain John C. Harrington, First Lieutenant Leon L. Barron and Second Lieutenant William H. Dennis,

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review. New York, July 19.—The character of today's stock market was about the same as that of yeaterday, but there was a conspicuous absence of the late enormous demand which lifted Union Pacific yeaterday in the closing dealings. The volume of transactions was rather larger than yesterday, but the market was, nevertheless, highly professional. Much liquidation had to be absorbed by these who had set themselves to the task of supporting the market and the burden seemed to be too heavy to carry. Price broke through support in the late dealings and the market closed weak at the lowest figures of the day.

e selling for London account was another intertant factor in the day's market. Total sales
