

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

FOREST CITY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Forest City, July 21.—The team of Baker William Weber became frightened on South Main street Saturday and ran away. In front of the McLaughlin house they struck Asher Burdick, of Uniondale, who was holding his team. He was knocked down and his right shoulder was broken. His body was literally covered with bruises. The driver's team was stopped at the place of the accident by Daniel Chambers.

LAKE WINOLA.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Lake Winola, July 20.—A large party from Scranton, Tunkhannock and Wilkes-Barre will attend the shirt-waist hop and reception at the Clifton this evening. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wonnacott, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wonnacott and Mrs. David Robbins, of Carbondale, were in town Monday, attending the funeral of their cousin, the late Edward Wonnacott.

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Tunkhannock, July 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fitch are entertaining Mr. Turner, of Honesdale, this week. Misses Mary and Elizabeth, of Carbondale, and Misses Agnes and Corah Sands returned on Saturday from a week's visit to the Pan-American exposition. Mrs. Giles Ross spent Friday with friends at Eatonville.

BROOKLYN.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Brooklyn, July 21.—Miss Edith Kent has returned from a trip to the Pan-American and will spend her vacation with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kent are visiting friends in New York. Mrs. Hough, nee Miss Beasie Ashley, of Washington, is spending the summer in town.

WAYMART.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Waymart, July 21.—The remains of the late Edward Wonnacott, who was killed by the cars near Port Jervis, last Friday night, were brought here for burial last Monday, arriving on the 11:35 train. The funeral was held in the Methodist Episcopal church, the service being conducted by the Rev. L. W. Karshner. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Harry Ellis, Charles Brown, Charles Pearce, William Sampson, Bert Walker and Charles Ball, all from Port Jervis, who accompanied the remains. Mr. Wonnacott was born and always resided here until the abandonment of the gravity, on which he was employed, when he removed to Matamoras and engaged in work as bookman on the Erie railroad. The interment was made in the family plot in the Methodist cemetery, South Yaman.

MAKING THE JUBILEE.

The first of the religious processions by St. Rose congregation. The first of the public religious processions in observance of the jubilee, advised by Pope Leo to be made by Catholics in every country, took place yesterday afternoon. The women of the congregation of St. Rose church visited the church in a body and recited in common the prayers prescribed for the devotion. Sixty visits to the shrine of the jubilee, and the visits made during the procession are equivalent to twelve individual visits. It will, therefore, take four more processions to complete the sixty visits, and these will be made on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evening. The first of these, commencing at 7 o'clock.

THE CRESCENTS LOSE.

Defeated by score of 18 to 6 by Scranton team. The Crescents went down yesterday before the team of college players from Scranton. The score was 18 to 6. The Crescents seemed to be in the poorest form that the players have shown in this city. The Scranton team pitched well, he was given poor support. In one inning ten runs were scored by the Scranton team, which gave the latter a lead that could not be overcome.

BURIED IN ST. ROSE CEMETERY.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Patrick Wynn, of Jermyn, was conducted Saturday morning by Undertaker Morrison, of this city. Services were held in the Church of the Sacred Heart, Jermyn, after which the deceased was conveyed here and buried in St. Rose cemetery.

REV. M. C. ELLIOTT RETURNS.

Rev. Mortimer C. Elliott, pastor of the First Congregational church, returned on Saturday from his vacation, which was spent in Maryland. He conducted the usual services in the Congregational church yesterday and was warmly welcomed by the members of his flock.

THE PASSING THROUGH.

Miss Moyles spent yesterday at Crystal Lake. The friends of Scranton, is visiting friends in town. Michael O'Boyle, of Archbald, was a visitor in town yesterday. Miss Loretta Coleman of Vine street, was at Crystal Lake yesterday.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Patrick Wynn, of South Main street, took place on Saturday morning and was largely attended. The remains were taken to the Church of the Sacred Heart, where a high mass of requiem was celebrated.

AT ELK LAKE.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. May and their families left yesterday to take up their residence for several weeks in one of the cottages at Elk Lake.

PROPERTY IMPROVEMENTS.

The building on the corner of Lincoln avenue and Church street, occupied by Grocer John Mohrs, is being improved by a new coat of paint.

A TRIP TO NEW ENGLAND.

George S. Kimball left yesterday for Boston. From there he will probably take an extended trip through New England, his native place.

A DILOCATED ARM.

Asa Burdick, who dislocated his arm a few days ago, has had it re-injured at the Emergency hospital.

SEMI-CENTENNIAL DOINGS.

Signs of Great Activity to Assure a Celebration That Will Be a Credit to the Citizens of Carbondale, and Will Advertise the City in a Way That Will Be a Great Benefit—Another One Hundred Dollar Subscription—Other Matters of Interest.

MR. O'CONNOR'S SUCCESSOR.

Changes in Office of Hendricks Company Due to Stenographers Resignation. The acceptance of a more favorable position by P. C. O'Connor, who was chief stenographer in the offices of the Hendricks Manufacturing company, has caused a few changes.

THE UNION PICNIC.

A Great Day Anticipated at Lake Lodore Tomorrow—A Fine Programme of Athletic Events Arranged by the Committee. The union Sunday school excursion to Lake Lodore will take place tomorrow, when a great day of fun and pleasure is anticipated.

SAMPSON'S CONDITION.

Though Both Legs Were Amputated, the Lad Shows Wonderful Vitality and is Progressing as Well as the Surgeons at the Hospital Look For. If he recovers, and the indications now are favorable, young Ernest Sampson will be able to follow his father.

MISS SWIGERT A GRADUATE NURSE.

Daughter of School Director Swigert Home from Scranton Private Hospital—To Follow Her Profession. Miss Emma E. Swigert, daughter of School Director G. F. Swigert, is home from Scranton, where she was graduated as a nurse from the training school of the Scranton private hospital.

MEETINGS TONIGHT.

Common council. O'Brien Leaf lodge, No. 156, Independent Order of Odd Fellows. Federal union, No. 724. Patriotic Order Sons of America. Carbondale council, No. 229, Knights of Columbus.

MAIL CARRIER RESUMES WORK.

Mail carrier Martin L. Oliver, of Cemetery street, has resumed his work again, after a few days' illness, which was caused by being vaccinated.

SPENDING VACATION IN KINGSTON.

Hope Smith is spending his summer vacation with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Payne, in Kingston.

NEW O. & W. ENGINES.

The splendid new engine, manufactured at the Scranton shops of the MOTHER GRAY'S SWEET POWDERS for children. Mother Gray, for years a nurse in the Children's Home in New York, treated children successfully with a remedy, now prepared and placed in the drug stores, called Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for Children.

Office: BURKE BUILDING Carbondale Department.

THE HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPALSHIP.

It Was the Cause of a Stormy Meeting of the School Board—The Election of Teachers Held Up—Another Spell—The Story of the Meeting.

A move was carried out by the adherents of the cause of W. D. Bryden at the school board meeting Saturday night, and one which helped up the principal, the election of the entire corps of teachers for the city. The board went into its expected deadlock over the principalship of the High school, and the three directors thereafter refused to vote on any of the other positions, thus leaving but the three votes of Hockenberry, Hughes and Kerwin, an insufficient number to elect.

THE UNION PICNIC.

A Great Day Anticipated at Lake Lodore Tomorrow—A Fine Programme of Athletic Events Arranged by the Committee. The union Sunday school excursion to Lake Lodore will take place tomorrow, when a great day of fun and pleasure is anticipated.

SAMPSON'S CONDITION.

Though Both Legs Were Amputated, the Lad Shows Wonderful Vitality and is Progressing as Well as the Surgeons at the Hospital Look For. If he recovers, and the indications now are favorable, young Ernest Sampson will be able to follow his father.

MISS SWIGERT A GRADUATE NURSE.

Daughter of School Director Swigert Home from Scranton Private Hospital—To Follow Her Profession. Miss Emma E. Swigert, daughter of School Director G. F. Swigert, is home from Scranton, where she was graduated as a nurse from the training school of the Scranton private hospital.

MEETINGS TONIGHT.

Common council. O'Brien Leaf lodge, No. 156, Independent Order of Odd Fellows. Federal union, No. 724. Patriotic Order Sons of America. Carbondale council, No. 229, Knights of Columbus.

MAIL CARRIER RESUMES WORK.

Mail carrier Martin L. Oliver, of Cemetery street, has resumed his work again, after a few days' illness, which was caused by being vaccinated.

SPENDING VACATION IN KINGSTON.

Hope Smith is spending his summer vacation with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Payne, in Kingston.

NEW O. & W. ENGINES.

The splendid new engine, manufactured at the Scranton shops of the MOTHER GRAY'S SWEET POWDERS for children. Mother Gray, for years a nurse in the Children's Home in New York, treated children successfully with a remedy, now prepared and placed in the drug stores, called Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for Children.