BOOTBLACK AND WATCH MISSING

The Colored Shoe Shiner Whose Stand Was at the Anthracite Building Suspected of Decamping With Time Piece Belonging to Dan Collins—The Story of the Disappearance.

The colored bootblack whose stand was in front of the Anthracite, the young artist who is as dark as midnight and whose frock name is "Lou." The last supposed to be Jackson, left town yesterday and is suspected by the police of taking with him a watch belonging to Dan Collins, a tailor.

BOOMING CENTENNIAL.

Abe Sahn, the Director of the Department of Publicity of the Semi-Centennial Association, Circulates Among the Merchants and Stirs Up Interest and Incidentally Gathers Up Some Good-Size Contributions—More Plans of Celebration.

The booming of the semi-centennial celebration was well started yesterday, when Abe L. Sahn circulated among the stores of the town, stirred up new interest and enthusiasm in the plans of the city's jubilee, and incidentally gathered up subscriptions to the amount of $200.

BASE BALL DOINGS.

Manager Fox Gives an Encouraging Talk to His Players and Feels Confident That the Exhibition of This Week Will Not Be Repeated—A Game on Friday and One on Sunday—A Local Team and a Nine from Honedale the Opponents.

Manager Fox, of the Crescents, is not dismayed by the loss of this week's game, and after an encouraging talk to his players he feels that there will not be another "exhibition" this season, such as was witnessed on Sunday by the "cranks" who were attracted to Alumni Park with the hope of seeing the crack nine of Carbondale in their usual form.

ENTERTAINMENT COURSE

The Splendid Talent Controlled by the Brockway Lecture and Entertainment Bureau Secured by the Enterprising Young Men to Entertain Carbondale Residents During the Theatrical Season—The Entertainers of the Course.

Arrangements for the entertainment course, which has been told of at length in The Tribune, have been completed, and Carbondale residents are assured of as high class entertainment during the theatrical season as it is possible to obtain.

LT. COL. HALL HONORED.

Recommended for the Grand Decoration of Chivalry of Odd Fellows. Lieutenant Colonel Harry J. Hall, of Carbondale, patriarch of the militia, who has already received signal honors, will be honored further on Odd Fellows' day at Lake Lodore, on Friday, August 22, when he will receive the grand decoration of chivalry.

This degree is the highest of the honorary degrees of Odd Fellows, and is conferred only on those who are recommended in consideration of honorable or meritorious services in the cause of patriarchal Odd Fellowship or for fidelity in fulfilling a special commission. Five officers are named each year for this decoration, one from a different regiment, and the high honor which Lieutenant Colonel Hall brings to Carbondale is the first ever granted to a patriarch of the militia in this city.

Successful Fisherman.

The number of fish in the Susquehanna county lakes is considerably less after the fishing trip which Ticket Agent Claude Smith, of the city station, and Greer John Reese made yesterday. They returned last evening with a mess of beauties that would make envious even such capital fishermen as Chief McNulty and John Gubert.

A Pleasant Evening.

A very pleasant gathering was held Monday evening at the home of the Misses Farley on Canaan street. The hours sped quickly, music and games being the principal amusements of the evening. As a fitting close to the festivities a dainty luncheon was served.

On a Wheeling Tour.

Joe McGarry and Daniel Monahan accompanied by Mrs. McGarry, left Monday en route from Honedale to Scranton on a wheeling trip. While in town they were the guests of the latter's cousin, "Dick" Monahan, of the Anthracite barber shop.

Renovating Shoe Store.

Manager Vincent Manners, of the People's shoe store, is having the store interior renovated. New shelving is being put in and other changes will be made, which will add to the store's accommodations.

Popular Drummer Here.

William Filly, the jolly and popular salesman for the David Spruiks jobbing house of Scranton, made a business trip to Carbondale yesterday.

Gilbert Street Resident Ill.

Mrs. V. A. Swingle is confined to her home on Gilbert street by illness.

Abbe Sahn, the Director of the Department of Publicity of the Semi-Centennial Association, Circulates Among the Merchants and Stirs Up Interest and Incidentally Gathers Up Some Good-Size Contributions—More Plans of Celebration.

The booming of the semi-centennial celebration was well started yesterday, when Abe L. Sahn circulated among the stores of the town, stirred up new interest and enthusiasm in the plans of the city's jubilee, and incidentally gathered up subscriptions to the amount of $200.

Mr. Sahn is director of the publicity department, as it were, of the semi-centennial association and he has been wisely chosen, for there is no man in all the town who is so well fitted for the position. Mr. Sahn has been nearly a quarter of a million members, and his camps are to be found in the principal cities and towns from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Thus far it has paid out $7,000,000 to beneficiaries.

Carbondalian Chosen for Leader.

A Honedale correspondent has the following to say of John Neuser, recently of this city, who always held a similar position in band circles in Carbondale. At the request of David Gill, leader of the Maple City band, John Neuser, recently of Carbondale, was elected to that position at the late rehearsal of this organization. Mr. Gill has been an excellent leader, and under his efficient supervision the band has constantly grown in popular favor both in this and other sections of the state. Mr. Gill will still retain his position as a member of the band.
