WATCHMAN ASSAULTED

JAMES COLWELL THE VICTIM OF TWO UNKNOWN MEN.

His Assaulters Knocked Him Down and Relieved Him of His Star, Club, Watch and Revolver—Another Victim Maltreated and Robbed on North Hyde Park Avenue—Young Girls in Danger—Death Caused by a Fractured Skull—Organization of Good Fellows—Other Notes.

It has just been learned that a fellow, whose name could not be learned, was held up and robbed early Sunday morning at the corner of Pease street and Hyde Park avenue, by two bold highwaymen.

The victim was returning home, and as he reached the corner indicated was knocked down and relieved of what little money he had on his person. When the robbers discovered that they had not received very much money for their dastardly work, they proceeded to victimize into unconsciousness and left him lying on the sidewalk.

After awhile the victim recovered sufficiently to stagger away. The assault was witnessed by a woman living in that neighborhood, but she was too much frightened to make an outcry or call for help.

Special Officer Assaulted.

James Colwell, who is employed as a night watchman at McChave & Brooks' laundry, was the victim of a vicious assault late Monday night at the hands of two unknown men on Scranton street. According to his own story, Colwell went into the Hatfield house, near the Scranton street crossing, and ordered a glass of beer.

After drinking it he started out of the place and was called back by two strangers at the bar, who invited him to drink. He refused, but they insisted, and to please them he took another drink. He then left the place, and started up Scranton street.

After he had proceeded a short distance the two strangers whom he met in the saloon accosted him, and without warning dealt him a vicious blow with some blunt instrument over the head. He was knocked down, and relieved of his watch, revolver, club and star.

The assaulters then proceeded to punch and kick Colwell until he was almost insensible. His face and body is badly distorted as a result. Patrolman Thomas Jones, who was on the beat, responded to Colwell's call for help, and Patrolman Thomas Evans assisted in the search for the assaulters, but they were unable to locate them.

Young Women in Danger.

Nearly every night in the week the residents of West Park are regaled with the screams and mutterings of young women, who have been inveigled into the dark places of the plot by designing young men. In some instances the girls are as much to blame as their companions.

Only a year ago two young women were assaulted in that vicinity, and the newspapers at that time called the attention of parents to the danger of allowing their girls to go out there after dark. Electric lights are needed on the plot, and better police protection should be afforded that locality.

All-Collegiates Are Practicing.

The base ball game arranged for next Saturday at Athletic Park between the All-Collegiate team and the West Side Browns, is attracting unusual attention, and the way the college boys practiced at the park yesterday would indicate that they mean to win.

The Browns have been materially strengthened and Manager Thomas promises to present a most formidable team for the game. The contest will be played purely for the enjoyment to be derived and as no admission fee is to be charged, it will readily be seen that the boys are merely in for good, clean sport.

Royal Society of Good Fellows.

District Deputy Linney, who has in charge the instituting of an assembly of the order in West Scranton, had intended to launch the society this evening, but owing to the inability of Supreme Secretary A. J. Bates, of Boston, to arrive this week, the matter has been deferred until Monday evening next.

The charter list contains the names of a large number of well-known young men, and they have engaged Red Men's hall for the occasion. Following the institution of the assembly, a social session and smoker will be held.

Died from His Injuries.

He is survived by his wife and eight children. The funeral announcement will be made later.

Those who attended the excursion last year know that it was one of the most pleasurable events of the season. It was this fact that prompted the committee to again arrange for a union excursion. It will be a basket picnic in every sense of the word, and will be conducted on good old-fashioned lines. Many will be the family groups scattered here and there throughout the day during the lunch hour. At the same time ample provision is being made for all who do not care to take their lunch with them.

Sandwiches, coffee, lemonade, cakes and fruits of various kinds will be served on the ground at nominal cost.

The union is composed of the following churches: The Hampton Street Methodist, the Simpson M. E. and the Washburn Street Presbyterian. Trains will leave the Delaware and Hudson depot on the 21st of July at 8 o'clock sharp.

OBITUARY.

In her home, loving hands gave willing service and her husband was constantly near her, lending his strong help and comfort to the afflicted wife. Louisa Jane Reed was born at Windsor, Broome county, New York, in 1829, and was the only daughter of Spencer J. and Adaline N. Reed. In 1857, she married the late U. G. Schoonmaker, who joined the Episcopal church at Binghamton. She was married to U. G. Schoonmaker thirty-five years ago, and in 1866, with her husband, settled in Scranton and there became interested in the work of the church, with which she identified, being among the number who were identified with the church in its early days, and was a teacher in its Sunday school. Mrs. Schoonmaker will be remembered in Scranton for her good business and many acts of kindness and love.
