THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, July 26.-There was no indication of any change in speculative conditions when the stock market opened this morning. The dullness and aluggishness were unrelieved. An effort was made to inaugurate an upward movement based on a show of grength in the United States Steel Martin visited their husbands, who were enjoying a few days' sport along stocks which were marked up something over a point each. The demand was attributed to Lon don eaccount and was said to be due to a report that the dispute underlying the strike was in course of adjustment. This report could not be confirmed in New York. The upward movement in the general list therefore proved abor-tive and was checked before it had proceeded as far even as yesterday's limited movement. The hardening tendency of the London money mar-ket was watched with some jealousy, as the future course of that money centre has an it 4th floor of the Tribune building, here. The continuance of deposits at the sub-treasury for transfer to the interior shows the illusiveness of hopes indulged to some specula-tors that the usual interior demand upon New suitable for light maufacturing. Including heat, light and power. York for currency to move the crops would be missing this year owing eciointly to the short crop of corn and the unusually large reserves held at this time by interior banks. Much inferest attaches to the further consideration whether foreign money centers will be able to space gold fl New York demands them when the crop export movement begins. This week's re-ports of the great banks abroad gives promisthat there will be. A rice in the London more; rate would be another deterrent effect upon any movement of gold to New York. It is reply from the mines, the normal autumn flow of gold from London to New York has been cut off with the consequent stringency in money in New York, Relief for New York from that FOR SALE-Mar's 1900 chainless Spalding bicycle for want of use. 123 North Sumner avenue. source this fall is therefore problematical. KNIGHTS OF MALTA.

The new edition of the constitution of the Grand Commandery of Penn sylvania has been mailed to all com manderies and deputy grand com-manders, and is printed in sheets for use by subordinate comanderies when wanted for binding with the by-laws.

Holy Temple Commandery, No. 24 at Lewistown, Pa., attended church in a body on July 7, and listened to an able and learned discourse by Rev. A. H. Spangler, Chaplain of the Grand Lodge of Masons, on "The Order of

The fund for "The Knights of Malta nospital" has grown to one thousand iollars, and the interest is more genral than at any earlier time. Among ollowed those already named at St John's Day donations, are those re-ceived from Plymouth Commandery No. 241, of Plymouth, in a check for $25; from Mount Carmel Commandery No. 22, of Mount Carmel, with con-gratulations on the fact that the fund progressing: from Tyrone Command ery. No. 239, at Tyrone, with the hearty good wishes of Sir Rev. S. F. Forgeus haplain of the Pennsylvania Industria Reformatory; from Bruce Commandery No. 214, at Catasauqua; Keystone Com mandery, No. 23, at Nanticoke: Black Knight Commandery, No. 109, at Easton; Past Commander Sir John Russell, No. 21, at Philadelphia; Cal-yary Comandery, No. 123, of Shamekin; James Commandery, No. 68, at Allentown; Shiloh Commandery, Com-

104, at Bangor, and St. John's C mandery, No. 2, at Trenton, N. J. The grand recorder has prepared a form of application for special class dispensations, and has placed on the back of the paper the laws and usuages relating to classes. A copy will mailed to each commandery.

Past Grand Commander Sir G. Hutchins, of Nashua, New Hamp-shire, has been awarded the prize in a great newspaper contest in which 174,-000 votes were cast for the most nopular clerk in Nashua. 43,580 were Companion Hutchins, and he will visit the Pan-American Exposition at the expense of the newspaper

Past Grand Commander Sir Ernst Ivn Hammarberg, of Brooklyn, N. Y., editor and one of the proprietors of the Malta World, died Monday evening, July 14, of diabetes. He was 39 years old, born in Sweden and came to the United States when he was four years old. He was an active and energetic business man, and a hard and faithful worker for the Order of Malta. He was a charter member of Palestine com-mandery, No. 143, of Brooklyn, N. Y. For many years he was on the staff of the New York Journal. While he will be greatly missed by his companions in Malta, his real loss will be most sorely felt by his mother and sisters. For three years, in partnership with Past Commander Dr. William Silber-man, he edited the Malta World with splendid zeal and enthusiasm, and his place will be most difficult to fill.
