NO EXCITEMENT AT TEACHERS' ELECTION

School Board Unanimously Elected All but Those of the High School, on Which Action Was Postponed Because of the Chairman's Absence.

A large number of spectators were at Saturday night's meeting of the school board, but the excitement attendant upon the election of teachers which they looked for failed to materialize. The meeting was a model of

All of the tenchers were elected except those of the high school, over which the contention exists. Action on the principal and other teachers of the high school building was postponed, owing to Mr. Hughes' absence, which was caused by the critical illness of his mother. There being no fight over the teachers for the outlying schools, they were elected by unanimous vote as follows: Anna Dunstan Elizabeth Thomas, Nellie Sherrer, Anna Murphy, No. 1 school; Janet Bryden, Jennie Fox, Mary Murphy, Ella L.
