He Thought the Charge He Had Ignited Had Exploded and Returned to His Chamber to Receive the Full Force of the Explosion. Funeral of Rev. William Boucher Former Pastor of the Chestnut Street German Presbyterian Church-Great Waste of Beer.

Early vesterday afternoon there or curred a terrible accident at the Mt. Pleasant mine, in which an employe logt his life. James J. McGowan was a miner working in his chamber as usual. He prepared to fire a blast, and after fixing the hole retired to a place of safety. Another miner in an adjoining chamber had also charged a hole, and his blast went off first. Mc-Gowan, hearing the report, supposed this to be his own blast that had gone off, and returned to his chamber. Just as he was about to examine the result of the blast, it went off, and the unfortunate man received the full force of the charge. It was some time before he was discovered, but when his fellow-workmen arrived they found him cut, brulsed and bleeding. covored with rock and dirt, lying some ties of the deceased. distance away from the "face," mine ambulance and a doctor were body was prepared for burial.

Laid at Rest.

The death of the well known Rev. William Brucker, who was formery pastor of the Chestnut street Grman Presbyterian church, has cast a pall of gloom over his many friends, ecially those who were most intimate with the deceased minister. Rev. Brucker was called to his heavenly iome a few days ago at Saranac Lake, N. Y., where he had gone in vain to recover lost health. The body was rereived in this city early yesterday morning and taken to the home of John Schlentz, of 214 Chestnut street, where at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the sorrowing friends gathered to bid a last long farewell to the one so dear, Many noted divines from the city and elsewhere attended the funeral to pay their last tribute to the dead. Rev. Steinman, of Petersburg, preached a sermon in German that moved the many of that language to tears. He was followed by the Rev. James Benninger, of the Hampton street church, who gave an eloquent eulogy on the past life of the deceased. Rev. Schoettle, the present pastor of the Chestnut street church, who was a classmate of the late Rev. Brucker, then gave a short sketch of the beautiful Christian life, manly character and sterling quali-

MANY PERSONS ILL WITH MAL ARIAL GRIP.

Physicians from This Part of the City Report a Large Number of Cases. Arrangements for the Joint Excursion of the Congregational Churches-Fire in the Two-Story Frame Building of John Regan on Cayuga Street - Meeting of Stationary Engineers.

A sickness which the physcians designate a malarial grip, and which affects the liver, seems quite prevalent in the North Scranton section just now. One physician yesterday had sixteen calls on cases of this nature alone before dark, and another reports eighteen. There are sore throat, with a tendency to tonsilitis, headaches, general weakness, vomiting of bile among its attendant features. The long spell of excessive warm and iry weather, with the tendency to vegetable decay, followed by the cool weather and cold rains, and then the warmth of the atmosphere during the past two days, are believed responsible for this new physical ailment

Arranements for Excursion.

Rev. R. S. Jones, pastor of the West Market Street Welsh Congregational church, last evening announced all the arrangements for the joint excursion of the Welsh Congregational churches of Providence and Hyde Park to Lake Lodore on next Tuesday. The committee has secured a number of gifts to be offered as prizes in a number of contests. One of the interesting events arranged for is a base ball game between clubs representing each of the churchs. Another is the ball game between the married and single men of the Providence church.

In the afternoon an open competition will occur at the pavilion in singing. declaiming and impromptu speeches. Each singer will select his or her own plece. There will also be a competition for sole singing by persons over 45 years old, a boat race, a wheelbarrow ace, a fat man's race, and an egg ace for those under 15 years. The exursion train leaves Scranton at $.15 and perhaps two years. clock, stopping at all stations this side of Olyphant.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

There now seems to be no question but that select council will concur in the resolution adopted by common council on Thursday night providing for a ratification of the contracts for fire apparatus entered into on the day that Director of Public Safety F. L. Wormser assumed office. This will save the city an inconceivable amount of bother and will place the fire department in splendid shape before a month elapses. The sentiment of the majority of the councilmen on the matter is perhaps best crystalized in the remarks made on Thursday night after the council meeting by Com- will be a ladies' assembly. Two other mon Councilman Luther Keller, who said

"I don't believe that it was right to award the contracts to the highest bidders, but on the ground of expediency I think it is best to ratify them. If we don't we'll get the city into a law suit which would probably be decided in our favor, but which wouldn't be finished for over a year

"What we want now is to get insurance rates lowered and if we can do this by securing the new hook and ladder truck and new engine, as I believe we can, why it's to the advantage of every citizen in the city to get them just as soon as possible, even we have to pay a little more for them than we should."

There are some who contend that I the matter ever did come up in court the city wouldn't have things as much its own way as some people imagine. The fact that the city solicitor approved the contracts, it is argued, would relieve the company from any loss in case they were found to be illegally awarded.

Director of Public Safety Wormser has granted the captains of all the fire companies a nine days' vacation or one day more than the permanen men, who are this year being allowed eight days. Substitutes who are recommended by the chief of the bureau arappointed to take the places of all men who are off on a vacation.

Chief Zizelman, in a recent communication to Director Wormser ointed out the danger which constantly exists by reason of the closeness of the wires of the fire aarm system to live electric light and other wires, and for a four-room building. the director has under consideration several plans for the removal of this danger. If the fire alarm wire is blown up against a live wire during a rain or snow storm it temporarily throws the whole circuit out of order and there are several cases on record where entire circuits have been rendered use less for a whole night by this crossing of wires.

The two ways in which this difficulty could be averted would each entail much expense. One would be the stringing of all the circuits with infriends the past two weeks, returned sulated wires and the other the place ing of the wires underground. former plan would be much less ex-Providence Prespyterian church tomor- pensive and will probably be adopted, if any.
