High Praise for the Conservatory.

Mr. J. Alfred Pennington.

Dear Sir:—We are highly pleased with the progress which our son, Karl, has made since entering the Conservatory. If there is such a thing as becoming thoroughly acquainted with the keyboard the Faelten system certainly produces that result. We can not say too much in praise of the Scranton Conservatory of Music.

Respectfully yours,
Mrs. G. R. Ammerman.

Special Piano Offer for Today at Guernsey Hall.

In carrying out our plan of disposing of from time to time instruments slightly used at less than half their value, we will today dispose of a piano at a figure which, for a bargain, has not been equalled by any instrument which has left our warehouses within the last six months. The piano in question is an excellent make, though slightly used, is in perfect condition, not having been out altogether three months. There is not a mark or a scratch upon it, and we guarantee it to be strictly high grade, in perfect condition up to date, and modern in every respect. The price of the piano under ordinary conditions is $450. We will offer the piano, with the above guarantee, for $225, cash only.

Tuition Free, Stroudsburg State Normal.

Those interested in the special advantages offered by the State Normal School at East Stroudsburg, can learn full particulars by addressing the principal, G. P. Bible, or by calling on Mr. Morris Evans, at Hotel Holland until Friday of this week.

The Maitland Fair.

The first exhibition of the twentieth century will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 10 to 13, 1901. The committee is now busy booking special attractions and several interesting ones have been secured. No expense has been spared to secure the best that can be obtained.

HAS WITHDRAWN CHARGE.

Miss Dorson's Parents Agreed to a Settlement.

Constable Kulp, of Wyoming, brought Nicholas Sardoni, alias Downey, from Scranton, into on Saturday night," says the Wilkes-Barre News. "He was taken before Squire Miller, at Maitly for a hearing, but the prosecutrix, Miss Dorson, the Wyoming girl, was too ill to appear against the prisoner. The hearing was then continued for several days and Sardoni was sent to jail.

"The prisoner expressed a wish to see his parents, who reside on a farm at the stone bridge, along the main road near Wyoming. Constable Kulp took him there, and it was early Sunday morning before they left. Both of Sardoni's parents were deeply affected and wept bitterly. The prisoner stoutly denied that he was married and claimed that the story to the contrary was a lie. Both of his parents are hard working and respectable people, the mother being Italian interpreter in the court house, while the father for years filled a responsible position with the Lehigh Valley Coal company at West Pittston. The young man spent Sunday in jail here.

"The hearing was to have taken place yesterday afternoon, but in the meantime the parents of the prosecutrix withdrew the charge and settled the matter. The prisoner was taken to Scranton to stand trial for resisting and assaulting a Scranton officer last Friday evening.

"The bride of a few days, who was formerly Miss Snyder, of Wilkes-Barre, and whom he tricked into accompanying him to Binghamton, where they were hastily married on August 4, has started divorce proceedings against him and he was served with the papers last evening through her lawyer, S. S. Herring.

"Constable Kulp took the couple's marriage certificate over to Sardoni's parents and showed them that their son was anything but a person of veracity."

Sardoni is the young man who gave Captain Davis such a severe taste Friday last after his arrest.

BALANCES PROTECTED.

They Can't Be Touched Without the Approval of the Recorder and Controller.

A clause in the "Ripper" bill is beginning to pinch some of the councilmen of the city in a very uncomfortable manner. It provides that no item of expense against the city shall be charged against an unexpended balance of an appropriation unless the recorder and controller certify that the matter is urgent and cannot wait for the next appropriation ordinance.

Recently the recorder has been asked to certify that a number of net schemes which councilmen are anxious to put through councils and which would have to be charged against unexpended balances are urgent, but he has refused to do so until he has time to give them full consideration.

It is likely that he will refuse his approval to all such schemes. The recorder has declared repeatedly that he wants to see the deficiencies that now exist paid just as rapidly as they can be and that if he does not accomplish another thing during the term for which he has been named by the voters he wants to get the financial affairs of the city straightened out during that time and put on a business-like footing. With this in mind it would not be wonderful if the recorder would insist on keeping the balances just where they are to the end that they may be available later for the payment of the deficiency bills which have swept towards the city treasury in such shoals during the last two years.

WAS A BIG SUCCESS.

Street Railway Men's Picnic Drew Large Crowds to Jay Aug.

Thousands of people hurried to Jay Aug park yesterday to attend the picnic of the Scranton Railway Employees' Mutual Aid society. The festivities began at noon and continued right up to midnight.

Bauer's band gave two excellent concerts, in the morning and afternoon, in the new bandstand in the center of the improved end of the park. These concerts were listened to by enormous crowds, especially the one at night, when thousands of people gathered to hear the music. The musicians were hampered at night by the poor light. The electric lights in the stand were connected with the power wire of the street railway company, and every time a car came up the Mulberry street hill, they became nearly extinguished.

The entrances to the park were brightly illuminated at night with the electrical designs taken from the company's special trolley party car. The merry-go-rounds, raffles, darts, popcorn stands, etc., on the "free midway" outside the park, did a tremendous business all day and night, and all in all the picnic was a huge success.

The company found itself unable to accommodate the large crowds with sufficient cars, and as a consequence every car bound for the park was overcrowded. The Tribune reporter counted 115 passengers on one of the small-sized open cars, which left the city about 5 p. m.

The committee having charge of the picnic consisted of the following employees: H. H. Patterson, Michael Lynch, Patrick Messitt, T. J. Mullen, Alec McTaggart, John Nicholson and John Ryan.

HIGH SCHOOL CURRICULUM

OUTLINE OF COURSE OF STUDY FOR NEXT YEAR.

It has been arranged by Prof. Joslin, the New Principal, and has been approved by the Board of Control—A Larger Number of Elective Studies Are Provided for Than in the Past—The Study of the Spanish Language to Be Taken Up.

The curriculum for the Scranton High school for the coming school year, which was prepared by the new principal, Prof. Joslin, after consultation with the members of the faculty and which was adopted by the board of control on Monday night, differs in many material ways from the course of study in force last year.

The courses last year were designated as the classical, Latin-scientific, English and commercial. This year the courses will be known as the college preparatory, scientific, general and commercial. Last year the courses of study were not generally followed and pupils were permitted upon request to take studies in all four. This year students will be required to follow closely the course of study which they desire to take at the beginning of the year and will not be permitted to jump around from one course to the other.

This will prevent the taking of "snag" courses, or in other words the study of some simple study in the commercial course such as penmanship and spelling or business arithmetic in lieu of some more difficult study in one of the other courses such as Latin or Greek.

The principal change in the curriculum is in the larger number of elective studies which pupils may take. Last year there were very few elective studies and there were none whatever until the third year. The new curriculum provides a large number of elective studies in each year.

THE ELECTIVE STUDIES.

A single illustration will suffice to show the number of elective studies which the student has to choose from. Under the old curriculum the freshman student taking the classical course, corresponding to the college preparatory, had no elective studies whatever. He or she was required to take up Latin, algebra and geometry, history, and the freshman student deciding upon the college preparatory course is required to take Latin, English and algebra and can take any two of the following studies: English history, drawing, physical geography and physiology.

The number of recitations per week for each student is fixed at twenty, or as near that number as possible, and the number of recitations in the required studies are so arranged that he or she is bound to take up some of the elective studies in order to have the full number of recitations.

An experiment is to be made in the teaching of the Spanish language. Students taking either the scientific or general courses will be permitted to study Spanish during their junior and senior years. The instructor is to be Prof. S. Friedland, Spanish scholar. The language will not be taught unless a sufficiently large number of students make up a fair sized class signifying their intention of studying it. It is expected, however, that such a class can be secured on account of the close relations with the Spanish-speaking people of Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands, into which this country has been brought by the trend of events.

COURSE AMPLIFIED.

The commercial course has been amplified by the introduction of civics during the second year and economics during the third and final year. Both these studies are required and are added in order that the commercial students may have an opportunity to do a little studying at home. The work in the commercial course in the past has been of such a nature that it could be all accomplished in the classroom and the school authorities have decided that it was a little bit too easy, hence the addition of these extra studies.

In the table of studies given below the figures after each represent the number of recitations per week for each study and the totals represent the total number of recitations per week. Where only five recitations are figured for a study, there will be three in one study and two in another, or one study will be taken up during the first part of the year and the other during the last part.

AN ELECTRIC LIGHT MAP

It Will Show the Location of Each Street Lamp Paid for by the City.

Up to date it has been the business of no one in particular to keep an account of the number of electric lights the city is responsible for maintaining, and in consequence no one has kept such an account. Every now and then the police officers have been instructed to count the lights, but their work has not always been accurate. As a result there have been conflicts and disputes over electric light bills. The company now charging the city for 625 lights, and the police census shows only 641 lights.

This is evidence of one of two things, the city is not being treated right by the company, or the police census was not accurate.

Director of Public Safety Workman and Director of Public Works Roche have consulted about the matter and this week the lights will be counted by employees of the two departments, who will be accompanied by a representative of the company. After the count is completed the engineer's department will compile a map showing the exact location of every electric light in the city. As new lights are ordered and erected they will be given a place on the map.

This will do away with all uncertainty about the number of lights and enable the city officials to tell at a glance where each light is located.

WILL CLOSE TOMORROW

NO MORE NEW NAMES TO BE TAKEN AFTER THEN.

All Who Wish to Enter The Tribune's Educational Contest Should Enroll at Once—Schwenker, Miles and Miss Pedrick Made Increases in Their Scores Yesterday—The Letter Had the Best Results and Now Threatens the Holder of Seventh Place.

Standing of Contestants.

If this was the last day, these would win:

Rank	Name	Points
1.	Meyer Lewis, Scranton	615
2.	Miss Wilhelmina Griffin, Providence	498
3.	Henry Schwenker, South Scranton	376
4.	William Miles, Hyde Park	326
5.	Garfield Anderson, Carbondale	284
6.	Ray Buckingham, Elmhurst	162
7.	Miss Norma Meredith, Hyde Park	130
8.	Miss Vida Pedrick, Clark's Summit	116

How many of these will be in Table No. 1 on the closing day?

Rank	Name	Points
9.	August Brunner, Jr., Carbondale	105
10.	Frank Kemmerer, Factoryville	69
11.	David O. Emery, Wimmers, Pa.	45
12.	Arthur C. Griffin, Montrose	39
13.	W. H. Harris, Hyde Park	23
14.	Miss Minnie Wallis, Carbondale	23
15.	E. J. Sheridan, Hawley	6
16.	Miss Jennie Ward, Olyphant	6
17.	Robert Campbell, Green Ridge	3

Neither Meyer Lewis nor Miss Griffin, the two leaders in "The Tribune's Educational Contest," made any gain yesterday. Henry Schwenker, in third place, and William Miles, in fourth, did, however. Mr. Miles scoring the largest number of points. This morning Schwenker has the advantage over Miles of half a hundred. Miss Vida Pedrick made the best showing of all and is now secure in eighth place by eleven points more than Brunner.

There are only fourteen points difference between Miss Meredith and Miss Pedrick for seventh place.

Only two days are left now for those who have not already done so to enter their names as participants in the contest, for the entry list will be closed at 5 o'clock tomorrow evening, and after that time no one not then enrolled will be permitted to come in.

This is a particularly good time for beginners to come in, for the contestants who have already registered points have relaxed to a considerable extent in their work the past two or three weeks.

Any one who desires to begin the work now should send a postal to "Editor Educational Contest," Tribune, Scranton, Pa., when he or she will be furnished at once with the necessary blanks and instructions. See full particulars on fourth page of this morning's Tribune.

Try the new big cigar "Klean."
