

The Scranton Tribune

Published Daily, Except Sunday, by The Tribune Publishing Company, at Fifty-Cent a Month.

LIVY S. RICHARD, Editor. O. F. BYRDE, Business Manager.

New York Office: 130 Nassau St. W. FREELAND, Sole Agent for Foreign Advertising.

Entered at the Postoffice at Scranton, Pa., as Second Class Mail Matter.

When space will permit, the Tribune is always glad to print short letters from its friends bearing on current topics, but its rule is that these must be signed, for publication, by the writer's real name, and the condition precedent to acceptance is that all contributions shall be subject to editorial revision.

THE PLAT RATE FOR ADVERTISING. The following table shows the price per inch each insertion, space to be used within one year.

Table with columns: DISPLAY, Run of (Selling on) Full, and Rate. Rows include 1000, 2000, 3000, 4000, 5000, 6000.

For rates of blanks, resolutions of confidence and similar contributions in the nature of advertising the Tribune makes a charge of 5 cents a line.

SCRANTON, PA., AUGUST 16, 1901.

The strikes of the car builders and machinists in this city have cost the workmen and the companies who employed them a matter of $500,000.

A conservative estimate that does not at all overstate the loss. The blow naturally falls heaviest on the workmen. What injury the city has sustained no one can estimate.

Pennsylvania's Democracy. THE RESULT of the Democratic state convention at Harrisburg yesterday is about what might have been expected under all circumstances.

The efforts of the Philadelphia North American to draw Admiral Cervera into the Sampson-Schley row were met by a dignified rebuff, and yet the North American does not seem to realize the fact.

The Oklahoma Land Lottery. IN COMMENTING upon the recent distribution of lands in Oklahoma the New York Tribune says: "Now that the drawings for homesteads in the Kiowa and Comanche reservations have been brought to an orderly conclusion, the interior department can justly congratulate itself on the results of the ingenious and novel scheme devised for opening this new portion of the public domain to entry and settlement."

Occurred before, and will occur under any system of entry. It will be six months, perhaps, before the workings of the new method can be fully and fairly judged.

Editor Harmaworth, who came over from England some time ago to revolutionize journalism, appears to have departed through the small end of the cornucopia.

Suburban residents of Greater New York still show a lack of faith in the sciences. Individuals who vouch for the Brooklyn bridge.

The "final settlements" of the Chinese affair are becoming more numerous than farewell appearances of popular theatrical stars.

If General Uribe-Uribe has survived notices of his death he should at least have the good taste to kill half of his name.

In the present crisis Mr. Schwab does not seem to be doing much in the way of earning his salary.

The affair at Harrisburg yesterday demonstrated that vaudeville is not entirely out of date.

A good many Boers in South Africa evidently have not heard that they have been banished.

All, no doubt, feel satisfied that Scranton can no longer be known as a "strike center."

Malvar does not seem to be worth an expedition for his capture.

A TRIBUTE TO COL. GUFFEY. From the New York Sun. The Hon. William F. Guffey, of Pennsylvania, has to have the sole privilege of the nation's boom.

When the war revenue tax on checks and drafts was repealed last March there were, according to careful estimates, $200,000 worth of stamps in circulation.

Revenue Collector T. E. Penman yesterday received the following circular, announcing that this request cannot be complied with, and that the banks and others must suffer the loss of their stamps, unless congress can be induced to come to their aid with a law permitting the department to grant the request.

THEATRE ADVERTISING. MISS EDNA CRAWFORD, of Cincinnati, may be considered as one of the most lucky young women that ever stood upon the brink of the theatrical profession.

A Blessing To Mothers. BUFFALO has adopted an odd-looking method of keeping down the mortality statistics. It has been the custom of the Health Department for several years to distribute circulars to mothers during the months of July and August, telling them the latest methods of taking care of babies during the perilous hot weather.

Swimming Pool at Armory Must Be Reconstructed. A large leak has been discovered in the swimming pool at the new armory and a large section of it will have to be torn out to make the necessary repairs.

DIocese of Altoona. Apostolic Brief Defining Boundaries of Bishop Garvey's See Received Yesterday.

Monsignor Eugene A. Garvey, bishop-elect of the new diocese of Altoona, yesterday received from Rome the apostolic brief defining the boundaries of his see.

The counties it comprises are Bedford, Blair, Cambria, Huntingdon and Somerset, now in the Pittsburgh diocese, and Centre, Clinton and Fulton, now in the Harrisburg diocese.

It was unofficially reported previously that Westmoreland, Fayette and Indiana counties would be a part of the new diocese, but the official brief proves this to have been erroneous.

Bishop-elect Garvey will be consecrated Sunday, Sept. 8, the Feast of the Nativity, at St. Peter's cathedral. The consecrating bishop will be Cardinal Martini, the papal delegate.

He will be assisted by Bishop Hoban, of the Scranton diocese, and Bishop Phelan, of the Pittsburgh diocese. The consecrating sermon will be preached by Rev. Charley Kelly, S. J., formerly of Towanda.

Invitations to the consecration ceremonies are to be extended to all the dignitaries of the church in this province, and it is expected that at least a dozen bishops will be in attendance.

The appointment of a successor to Monsignor Garvey as rector of St. John's, Pittston, will not be made, Bishop Hoban said, yesterday, until after the consecration.

It was stated by Bishop Hoban to a Tribune man yesterday that he has given notice that the rectorship of Pittston parish does not necessarily carry with it the near generalship and that the next rector of St. John's will not be a vicar general. It is quite likely that the vicar generalship resigned by Monsignor Garvey will fall to a priest who will have his station in the cathedral.

THE FOOL. God bless the fool! He doesn't know How foolish he appears. I see him strut, I hear him blow, And sometimes wonder why A donkey's ears Have failed to grow There where he owns. He thinks himself a paragon and I Sit back and smile And hear and watch him while He brags away. Supposing that his foolish talk is great And wise? When once I say God bless the fool! He makes me laugh! His fate Is heavy to realize The joy that cannot be If he Had sense to see himself as others see— Moreover, at a smile at him, perchance Some other steps to glance. At me, And, smiling as he turns to go, Exclaim: "Oh, fool! If thou couldst know!" —Chicago Record-Herald.

They are Thomas D. Davis, Argus M. Jenkins, John J. Higgins, E. D. Jones, Harry E. Whyte, William J. Owens, of the central office, and George A. Jones, of the West Scranton station.

Carriers who return to work today, after having enjoyed their vacations, are William B. Prosser, John H. Kelly, L. R. Sguler, John McDonough, J. T. Maloney, D. N. Reese, of the central office, and William J. Canton, of the West Scranton station.

COULDN'T PROVE MARRIAGE. Andrew Lobanz Had His Wife Arrested for Adultery.

Andrew Lobanz yesterday caused the arrest of his wife, Mary, and a former boarder named Wassel Hamole, whom he charges with living together as man and wife.

At the hearing before Alderman Kasson, Mrs. Lobanz challenged her husband to prove that he was married to her. He was unable to do this, claiming that they were married in the old country and that he had lost the marriage certificate. The alderman thereupon discharged both prisoners.
