HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS, new and old, please register and select course of study at Central building on Tuesday. Principal.

MANY TEACHERS' SALARIES RAISED

At a Special Meeting of the School Board the Teachers Were Located and Their Salaries Fixed-Other

sion Saturday night. The principal butiness done was the locating of teachers and fixing their salaries, and the adoption of a course of study for the High school. All of the directors were present. Only one bid was received for the furnishing of coal. It was fom the Delaware and Hudson company and read as follows: Egg coal, $2.75 at the chutes, $3.25 delivered stove coal, the same, chestnut coal, the same; pea coal, $1.50 at the chutes, $2.40 delivered. On motion of Mr. Evans the bid was rejected. The rejection of bids was due to the existence of the Cartmen's union, members of which intimated that it would wrong for the school board to invite the cutting of prices. It was thought Carbondale in 1827 will be displayed hest to defer action on the matter, so it was laid over till the next meeting.

The following bills were ordered paid: Patrick Hadgas, $24; W. J Hughes, $36; Patrick Gavin, $24; A. J. Coal company, $5; J. B. Cotter, $22.80. Secretary Kerwin, for the committee of the whole, reported the following schedule of wages and positions for the teachers:

Several of the directors then pretty severely roasted the one who had made public the doings of the committee of the whole, about which each director had been piedged to secrecy. The report of the committee was then adopted by a unanimous vote. Mr. Kerwin then nominated David Lewis as janitor of No. 9 school building. Mr. Vannan nominated John Jenpings. The roll was called and all of discussed at length. It was decided to hire conveyances for the board of directors and teachers. The action of the liverymen in raising the prices for the day came in for some warm comments more especially as but a single livery has contributed to the celebration. The chairman, secretary and superintendent were empowered to complete all arrangements for the school district's part in the demonstration.

The committee on course of study then submitted its report, which was adopted. One course has been added to the High school curriculum, making four in all. The new one eliminates all languages and was prepared to meet a popular demand, as many of the stu-dents prefer to take some of the more common studies, they not wishing to go away to other schools. The report was adopted.

STRANGE ABBERATION OF MARTIN MURPHY

His Mind Becomes Affected and While in That State He Nearly Causes a Tragedy.

Martin Murphy, of this city, was cked up by Constable Neary yesterday as the result of his unseemly actions the night before. Thomas Hart, of the Mayfield cash store, with his wife, went to the Pan-American exposition about ten days ago and left Mr. Murphy in charge of the store. He had served in the store of the late James Harrett for several years and being a good man of model habits, the Harts went away with easy minds.

Their daughter, about 18 years of ige, was left home to keep track of the other children and assist about the

About midnight Saturday the girl cas awakened by Murphy, who called her into the store. He was in a frantic mood and flourished a revolver. So soon as the girl got near him he grabbed her and began to kick her. He seemed to be under the idea that two men were trying or had been trying to rob the store and that the girl was imdicated in the affair.

Finally Murphy made her sit down m a chair and putting the revolver to her head, demanded that she tell where the men were. The girl was terrified and her screams had reached the ears of John McCarthy, who went to her assistance.

So soon as he heard McCarthy, Murphy left the girl, who made her escape. When he saw McCarthy, Murphy yelled at him to stay back, unless was the burglar. All the time the insane man was raving about what he vould do to the burglars. McCarthy inally got Murphy quieted down and Miss Margaret O'Malley, a domestic ervant employed at the store of Thomas Hart, at Mayfield, was brutally assaulted yesterday morning by Martin Murphy and has since been in a serious condition as a result of the severe beating and kicking she received at the hands of her assailant. Miss O'Malley has been in the employ of Mr. and Mrs. Hart for a long time, but Murphy, whose home is in Carbondale, was hired about a month ago to assist in the store. A week ago Mr. and Mrs Hart left on a visit to the Pan-Amerian exposition, leaving the business in harge of Murphy, who with Miss Malley and the children slept in the house. On Saturday Murphy acted in a very strange manner and during the evening pointed a revolver several times at the teamster employed at the store. The French census returns again attracted the attention of the hall on Thursday evening. world to the peculiar population problem in the Republic. France is practically statonary in respect to numbers, and such a condition in comparison with the rapid, steady growth of her neighbors and rivals seems to indicate, in effect, decadence. From a military point of view numbers mean strength. and in France the increase of population from 1896 to 1901 was only 330,000 Most of the increase was in Paris and its environs, in which dwell large numbers of foreigness. The very slow penter during the past week, returned growth of France compared with other European countries, during the past half century, is strikingly shown in the following table:

35,000,000 24,000,000 United Kingdom27,000,000 41,454,578 Germany 35,000,000 55,145,000 Austria21,000,000 RA.000,000 .66,000,000 138,000,000

In fifty years of Austria-Hungary' population has increased 50 per cent. Italy, 52 per cent.; the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, 5 pire, 60 per cent., while France gained but 10 per cent, for the same period time Great Britain has sent millions of numbers of Germans have yearly swelled our ranks, and that the Italian exedua is assuming large proportions. while Frenchmen have been a stay-at- the Pan-American exposition.

The explanation is, of course that small families in France have become the rule. The annual excess of birth over deaths in Italy is between 300,000 Paimer's tenement on Twentieth street and 400,000. The excess in France is in a few days. about 50,000, and in 1895 the deaths exceeded the births by 17.813. This is an explanation that does not explain and the real question is, why have the bed he was out of doors. She does not remember hearing him enter the house, but was awoke about 4 o'clock yesterday morning by his breaking in the doorof her chamber and dragging her out of bed. He insisted he had heard the voices of some men in her room and demanded to know their names. As a matter of fact the only occupants of the room were the two little Hart children and Miss O'Malley. In spite of her screams and appeals he beat her with his hands and kicked her with his feet until she was nearly unconscious and then pulled her feet first down the stairs, and pulling a revolver from his pocket, threatened to shoot her. Leaving her a moment to go into the store, she had strength enough to escape and she ran to the next house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Fitzsimmons, where she remained until o'clock in the morning, when she was taken to the home of her sister, Mrs. Alexander Bruce, of South Main street, ermyn.
