THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-MONDAY, AUGUST 26, 1901.

HAD never seen such a woman-I being opened and examining my collar never hope to look upon her box, as though they imagined that the equal again. Seated opposite her, object of their pursuit would take ref-

in a first class compartment of uge there. "Evidently he is not fiere," said one the train that, leaving Berne rapidly behind us, puffed its way toward of the policemen. "Come, we must go

Bale, I could only gaze at her in sil- on. "Did you hear," I asked, excitedly, ent capture. We had not exchanged a word; my as the intruders laboriously descended unknown divinity had been absorbed to the platform, where an interested in a novel, and had only raised her crowd watched their proceedings; "the glorious, velvet brown eyes once or man spoke of he?" twice to scan the uninteresting land- "Yes, yes, I heard," my companior scap. She, too, was a musician, a bond answered hastily. "Have you any with mariage. Suppose, good reader, of union between us that I had been brandy? I-I feel as though I should you were a young Mosuto, and had charmed to observe, for she kept be-side her, and guarded it with jealous In great alarm 1 hunted for my flask dropped her book. Hastiy I stooped little cup and drank without demur, aggressor against all laws of eti-uette and gave it to her, and she thanked "There," she said, with a sigh, "I feel were you to speak to her, though you and gave it to her, and she thanked white, rather large teeth, "Shall we soon arrive at Bale?" she asked, and I thought what an exqusite contraine voice she possessed; "I am so tired." She pushed back the loose waves of ruddy golden hair that fell in profusion round her lovely face. I think it was the hair, which looked like a mass of living gold when the June sunshine fell upon it, that had first altracted my attention.

We have four hours before we reach Bale," I answered, determined, now that the ice was broken, not to let the flow of conversation freeze into sil-"You have had a long journey already?"

"Yes, and I have a weary time be fore me: I am going on to London." "So," I said, eagerly, "have I, I am going to Rome, 1-1 am a musician-a professional. You play the violin,

"Yes," she answered; "yes, I pay, love my instrument."

A strange smile parted the beautiful. though rather heavily, molded lips, as she looked down at the vielin case. I wished she would smile at me in such a manner, and I felt Jealous of any thing, even insensate wood, that took her attention from me. Doubtless I be trayed in my expression the admiration that I felt, for she colored faintly beneath my ardent gaze, but, to my re lief, she did not appear annoyed: in fact, she smiled almost too broadly to please me, and I began to fear that she was laughing at me. Perhaps looked a little hurt, for she composed her features instantly; assuming her former expression of mourning sad-ness, and seemed inclined to resume her book. "The scenery isn't much to boast about here," I observed quickly; "but that's a rather pretty chaler, isn't it?" "Yes," she agreed; "I should rather son, another is in the tree, and one is formed like to live in a house of that description. So peaceful, so quiet: far removed from the roar of the world." She sighed deeply, and I instantly fell to conjecturing what shadow of sorrow had darkened that young life, I noticed that when we stopped at a station she betrayed some uneasiness, and seemed glad when the train started once more. I came, therefore, to the conclusion that she was afraid of being pursued, and I grew quite excited, and determined to defend her at any cost. Friday, Aug. 23-"A burnt child dreads the left foot.

in front of his left arm.

Tuesday, Aug. 20-General Grant.

Thursday, Aug. 22-The mother is under his left arm, and the grandmother is formed by the among European hotels this winter, er-in-law, or even to look at her; that were not exactly my property, though possession is, we know, nine points of the law.

"You swallowed my hastily concoctclaiming me as a sister put those po- would distinguish your favorite lady as ing me a glass of water I saw the policeman, and instantly changed violin cases with you, so that had there been a search the onus would have fallen on you. "Jack Allanson." - The Traveler,

BASUTO MARRIAGE CUSTOMS.

Girls Are Desired in a Family, for They May Be Exchanged for Oxen. Among the curious customs of the Basuto-customs which never change, but are handed down from generation to generation-are those connected been smitten by the sight of a pretty face (the Mosuto idea of beauty is cure, a violin case. Mine reposed in and gave it to her. I must confess it quantity: the lady must be fat-very the rack. quantity: the lady must be fat-very fat-or she has no chance of being Suddenly my heautiful vis-a-vis the amount she poured out into the considered heautiful), you would be an aggressor against all laws of etimette me with a smile that revealed purest better now, and, thank heaven, the might look at her admiringly. Should

MOTHER GOOSE PUZZLE.

I had a little dog, they called him Buff;

But he lost the bag and spilt the snuff,

Find the shopkeeper's wife and son.

So take that cuff, and that's enough.

Monday, Aug. 19-The trousers' leg forms one - Wednesday, Aug. 2L

I sent him to the shop for 3 cents' worth of snuff:

Solutions for Last Week's Puzzles;

should you meet her unexpectedly, politeness and custom make it necessary that you should hide your head. As a Mosuto you need not limit your ed tale as a fish does a fly, and your attentions to one wife, although you ple raising.

ful.

lice off the track instantly. I may as your "chief" wife, and it is her chilwell confess that while you were fetch- dren who inherit, her son being known as the "great" son.

WOMEN WHO ARE SUCCEEDING

Mrs. Laura Alderman of Hurley, S D., owns the largest apple orchard in the Northwest. It is known all over the country, and has been in its present hands for twenty-four years. Recently the Department of Agriculture has honored Mrs. Alderman by publishing a record of her success in ap-Clovernook Duck Ranch marks the successful struggle of a woman at Chazy, N. Y., near Lake Champlain. Miss Ellen Wheeler was thrown upor her own resources, and, her health failing under the strain of typewriting she experimented with fancy farming 1384 Washington avonue. Each summer she raises by incubation 1,500 ducklings, to supply the hotels in her neighborhood. She also has North Main avenue, started a bee ranch which is success-A blacksmith shop with several assistants fell to the lot of Celia Holbrook of Sherborn, Mass., when she was but 17. At her father's death she undertook to run this, and has done so for two years, supporting her mother and a large family. Besides this smithy, she has another business, being a mail carrier. Twice a day she takes the United States mail four miles in summer, performing this service on her wheel; in winter, on foot The Southeastern Billposters' Asso ciation of Moultrie, Ga., recently suspended its rules in order to admit a woman, Miss Cora Kimball, an efficient billposter.

Mrs. Eames and Miss Sayre of Mont Clare, Ill., have been made captain and assistant marshall of the Fire depart-The places are not sinecures ment. and it is no new thing for women to fight fires in Mont Clare, as most of earpet sweeper factory of Grand Rap-ids, Mich. It is even rumored that the bases and good family houses. 222-224 Oak-ford court. J. M. Field. Invention was hers rather than that of her husband, now deceased.

Miss Belle McKinnon is superintendent of a big manufacturing plant of Little Falls, N. Y. She employs 1,200 hands is trained in business and is especially noted for having amicably settled several disputes which threateneä strikes. A very young woman of Syracuse is paying her way through college by a domestic occupation on a large scale. Even as a child her spare time was spent in fruit canning and felly making and this work she found more lucrative than undergraduate teaching in order to secure money for her university expenses: Miss Elvira Miller, a Southern writer, has just been engaged as passenger agent upon the Louisville and St. Louis road, and it is confidently expected that she will presnt the "superior attractions" of this railroad in a way to interest women travelers. Mrs. John Kidder of Nevada county Cal. is president of the narrow gauge road running from Colfax to Nevada City. Her husband owned much stock and during his illness she familiarized herself with the business.

WANTED Two or three thousand dollars cash Women are experimenting with electricity these days. A very practical assistance (partnership or otherwise) to in crease a substantial machinery business, located invention has just been patented by WANTED-An intelligent (Catholic) lady or gen-tleman to fill a light, pleasant position; good pay, if suitable. Address P. O. Box 29, Scranton, Pa.

Wire Screens.

THE FLK CAFE, 125 AND 127 FRANKLIN

permitted but a single glimpse of its my impressionable young friend! You her parents. On the birth of the first beauty, "We must search the carriage," said afraid that I should be nabbed to a of mokadee, which consists in present. so most thoroughly, even going to the well tell you, contained jewels, the number of cattle. Until this time you

.. 115 and Peitz. Umpire-Brown. Attendance-8,466. .... 115

Eastern League Rochester, 11; Providence, 3.

the commission will each receive the sum of $1,000.
All drawings shall be one-sixteenth scale. No him is placed upon the number of designs to be submitted by any competitor. All unauccessful plans and specifications will be returned to they competition and specifications will be returned to they be and any of the state of the second state

Write for special circular.

Rudolph Kleybolte & Co. 1 Nassau St., New York.