

WEST SCRANTON

CHURCHES TO HOLD SESSION

CONVENE HERE TOMORROW, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY.

Representatives of Twenty-eight Churches Are Expected to Be Present at the Various Sessions—Several Weddings Yesterday—Raid on a Disorderly House—Changes in the Fire Department—Other Interesting News Notes and Personal Paragraphs.

The Association of the Welsh Congregational Churches of Northwestern Pennsylvania will hold meetings at the Tabernacle Congregational church on South Hyde Park avenue next Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday. The order of services will be as follows: Friday evening at 7:30, praying.

Saturday morning and afternoon services will be held. At 1:30 in the evening there will be preaching services. At 10 o'clock Sunday morning Rev. T. C. Edwards, D. D., of Kingston, will preach in English, and Rev. F. V. Evans, of Lansford, will preach in Welsh.

At 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon short addresses will be given by ministers in English and in Welsh. Topics, "Revival" (Evangelical) and "The Church" (Welsh). At 4 o'clock in the evening Rev. J. Williams, of Shippensburg, will preach in English and Rev. W. J. Richards, D. D., of Wilkes-Barre, will preach in Welsh. All are invited to attend and to join in the congregational singing, which will be of a high order and full of inspiration.

The arrangements for Monday will be announced later. Delegations from twenty-eight churches are expected to attend, so that the feast will be a great attraction.

Ministers of the association will preach in other churches in West Scranton during the Sabbath day.

Davis-Paunt Nuptials.

John Davis, of North Gibson avenue, and Miss Emma Paunt, of 318 Chestnut street, were united in marriage last evening at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Jacob Stoeberle, pastor of the Chestnut Street German Presbyterian church. The bride was given away by her father, and looked a picture of loveliness in ivory silk, carried with delicate lace trimmings, carrying a white rose. The ceremony was performed under a canopy of flowers, in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives of the young couple. The wedding matches were played by Miss Faust, a cousin of the bride.

The wedding supper, which was served at 9 o'clock, was in charge of Mrs. Andrew Halstone, Mrs. Peter Ross, Miss Lena Faust, Lily Faust, Pauline Faust, Lotie Cokerath, Annie Ross, Louise Simons and Clara Ross. Prof. Morgan, of Wilkes-Barre, furnished the dance music.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Noug, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Walsh, of Wilkes-Barre; Michael Faust, of Cleveland; Jacob Faust, of St. Louis; Joseph Ross, of Milwaukee; Joseph Ross and William Kohn, of Wilkes-Barre.

Davis-Peckins.

Edward Davis, the popular salesman at Louisa H. Isaacs' haberdashery, and Miss Fether M. Peckins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peckins, of 112 North Lincoln avenue, were married last evening at 8 o'clock by Rev. S. P. Matthews, pastor of the First Baptist church.

The bride was Miss Helen Fowler, a cousin of the bride, and the groom was David R. Davis, a brother of the groom. As the wedding party descended the stairs, Miss Gertrude Morgan played an appropriate march, and the party took their places in the parlor. The house was prettily decorated with plants for the event.

The bride wore a becoming gown of white batiste, with lace trimmings, and carried a white rose, and her maid was attired in mousseline de soie, with ribbon and lace trimmings.

The guests were refreshed with reasonable quantities of refreshments at tables on the lawn on the north side of the house, and among them were the members of the Electric City Witches and Bachelors' club, with which Mr. Davis is identified. The young ladies of the First Baptist church also formed a merry group at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will reside with the bride's parents.

McNichols-Flaherty.

Robert McNichols, of Scranton street, and Miss Mary Flaherty, of West Linden street, were married at 11 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Patrick's Catholic church by Rev. John Dunn, in the presence of many friends.

The couple were attended by Thomas J. Gilroy and Miss Mary McCarley, and Miss Mary Johnson presided at the organ. Both ladies were gowned in white mousseline de soie, with applique lace trimmings and carried roses.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, and Mr. and Mrs. McNichols left on an afternoon train for New York and other points of interest. Upon their return they will reside in West Scranton, where both are well known.

Davis-Jones.

David W. Davis, of Edwardsville, and Miss Ida May Jones, of Plymouth, were united in marriage yesterday by Rev. D. P. Jones, of the Tabernacle Congregational church.

Discharged with Reprimand.

Lieutenant Davies and Patrolmen Peters made several trips to Kelly's Patch Tuesday night and arrested Mrs. Elizabeth Davis and Kate Taylor, the offenders, for disorderly conduct. They also found there a young girl named Margaret Lenihan, of Brick avenue, who had been missing from home for several days.

The trio were locked up in the police station over night, and a charge entered against them on the docket. Payton Taylor, a notorious character, appeared at the hearing yesterday morning, and upon his testimony the prisoners were discharged with a reprimand.

Fire Department Changes.

John Kime and C. W. Knowles, of the Franklins, received notice yesterday of their dismissal, and also of their successors. The former will be replaced by William T. Spots, an experienced man, and the latter by Arthur Spencer, who is now a permanent man at the Phoenix company's quarters.

Andrew Phelan, of the Columbia Chemical company, was also removed, but he is away on his vacation in Birmingham, and has not yet opened his blue envelope. He will be succeeded by William Seagraves, one of the bunk men at the house.

William Collins, of the Franklins, is on his vacation, and is spending it in New York. Kime was appointed by Mayor Connell, on June 9, 1894, succeeding Captain William Davis, who was killed in the fire at the Phoenix company's quarters, on May 4, of this year. Knowles and Phelan were also appointed on May 4.

A Plain Statement.

Two weeks ago we were in New York. The prices and styles of new Wash Goods were so tempting that we over-bought. We offer the goods at about half price Friday, Saturday and Monday. See our advertisement on another page of this paper.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Mrs. E. P. Neff and children, of Utica, N. Y., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dyer, of North Bromley avenue, West park.

Mrs. J. J. Roberts, of South Main street, has been temporarily assigned to the position of fire boss at the British mine, under the D. L. and W. company.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hartley and children, and Edwin Howard, of Washington street, returned home from a pleasant sojourn at Long Pond, Susquehanna county.

D. P. Dinner, of Stratford avenue, is spending a few days with friends in Pittston.

John Williams, of Stratford avenue, is taking in the sights at the Pan-American.

Mrs. Mary Mitchell, of Meridian street, is confined to her home by illness.

Mrs. David Smith, of Sadie place, is home from a three weeks' sojourn at Lake Sherburne.

Michael May, of Luzerne street, who has been spending his vacation at Atlantic City, returned home this week.

Mrs. Henry Sabins, of Sloan avenue, is entertaining Mrs. Thomas Whitley, of Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Davis, of Stratford avenue, have as their guest Edward Dasher, of Paterson, N. J.

Heybert Lynch, of Elyon street, is sojourning among friends at Juncos.

T. E. Jones and daughter, of Twenty-first street, have returned home from a visit with friends in Plymouth.

J. A. Saville, wife and daughter, of North Main avenue, are home from a week's stay at Atlantic City.

Arthur Davis, of North Bromley avenue, has gone to the Pan-American exposition for a few days.

Bargains for all in our Cloak Department. See our advertisement on another page of this paper.

Miss Idwal Powell, of Washburn street, is confined to her home by illness.

Mrs. Alfred Joseph, of North Bromley avenue, is recovering from an illness.

Mrs. Arthur Harris, of Elyon street, and Miss Margaret Jenkins, of Hampton street, have returned home from Harvey's lake.

HOME ENDORSEMENT.

Hundreds of Scranton Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Scranton people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Scranton reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors cheerfully given by them will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers, residing in far-away places. Read the following:

Mr. Henry Lutz, Jr., of 1309 Monsey avenue, a Green Ridge miner, says: "I suffered for two years with a pain in my back. I was so bad at times that I could scarcely move about and walked around in a sort of bent-over position. I used a number of so-called cures for the kidneys, but did not get much good from them. Finally I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and got them from Matthews Bros. drug store. The pain in my back was relieved. Doan's Kidney Pills were to me a friend in need."

Two weeks ago we were in New York. The prices and styles of new Wash Goods were so tempting that we over-bought. We offer the goods at about half price Friday, Saturday and Monday. See our advertisement on another page of this paper.

Tenth street, are the guests of friends in New York.

Mrs. John H. Williams and daughter, Catherine, of Fourteenth street, are spending a few days with friends in Archbald.

There will be an important business meeting of the trustees and building committee of the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bowen, of West Elm street, celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary at their home on Sunday evening. The celebration was attended by a large number of guests, all of whom had an enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs. Bowen were presented with a substantial gift by their friends.

Ewart Davis, of Rockaway, N. J., is the guest of West Scranton relatives.

Mrs. Mame Bannan, of Jackson street, entertained a number of her friends at a party on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Sue Fenton and Mrs. Helen Johnson, of Philadelphia, have returned home from a trip to Middletown, Buffalo, and other places of interest.

John Nealon, of Luzerne street, is spending a few days with his friends at Miner's Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. O'Hara, of Elmwood street, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. J. E. O'Hara and daughter, Miss Cassidy, of Chicago.

Mrs. Mary Bell and daughters, Elsie and Mildred, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are the guests of Mrs. North, of Lafayette street.

Miss Grace Reid, of Jackson street, and Miss May Sneiderman, of Academy street, are home from a sojourn at Wilkes-Barre and Chapel Lake.

Arthur Davis, of Fourteenth street, has returned home from New York on account of illness.

Wood Dress Goods and Silks at about half price Friday and Saturday. Come and see. Mears & Hagen.

Misses Margaret Jones, of Rock street; Della Evans, of West Locust street; and Elizabeth Jenkins, of Twelfth street, are spending their vacations at Spring Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nolan, of Elmwood street, are spending a few days at Rockaway Beach.

Miss Lena Glander and Ethel Woodruff, of North Hyde Park avenue, are home from a sojourn at Lake Winola.

Bert Lack has returned to his home in Watkins' Park after an extended visit with friends here.

A son was born on Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. David Roberts, of North Garfield avenue.

Miss Clara May, of North Main avenue, has returned home from a visit with friends in Pittston, and will now spend a few days with friends in Carbondale.

The funeral of Mr. and Mrs. William Weber's child will take place this afternoon from the home, on North Garfield avenue. Interment will be made in the Washburn street cemetery.

The choir of St. Patrick's Catholic church will meet for rehearsal this evening.

GREEN RIDGE.

The picnic of the societies of St. Paul's church opened last evening under most favorable circumstances. The perfect weather and beautiful moonlight of the evening were thoroughly enjoyed by the immense crowd of people that thronged the park. Electric arc lights and Japanese lanterns were hung around the grounds in profusion. Dancing was the principal feature of the evening's entertainment, and the platform erected to accommodate the dancers was filled throughout the evening. The refreshment booths found ready customers, and hundreds were served by the willing waiters. Never in the history of its undertaking has a more enjoyable picnic been held.

Wood Dress Goods and Silks at about half price Friday and Saturday. Come and see. Mears & Hagen.

P. P. Smith, of Monsey avenue, and sons, Barton and Fred, will leave today for Massachusetts, where the young men will attend school.

Cut prices on Ladies' Ribbed Underwear. See our advertisement on another page of this paper.

Miss Elizabeth Robinson, of Chapin avenue, has returned from the Pan-American exposition.

Bargains for all in our Cloak Department. See our advertisement on another page of this paper.

The new school building on the boulevard is about ready for the brick masons. The stone work of the foundation is finished and the heavy timbers are being put in place.

A Plain Statement. Two weeks ago we were in New York. The prices and styles of new Wash Goods were so tempting that we over-bought. We offer the goods at about half price Friday, Saturday and Monday. See our advertisement on another page of this paper.

Miss Theresa Foster, of Stafford avenue, and Patrick J. Reilly, of Birch street, were united in marriage yesterday morning at 8 o'clock in St. Mary's German Catholic church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Peter Kirst.

The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of steel gray cashmere trimmed with white silk and chiffon, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridegroom was attended by George Foster, a brother of the bride, and the ceremony was attended by a reception was held at the home of the bride, 1304 Stafford avenue. The couple will commence housekeeping at 612 Birch street, where a pleasant furnished home awaits them.

Funeral of Mrs. Kiefer. The funeral of the late Mrs. Charles Kiefer took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The home of the bereaved family on Cedar avenue was thronged with friends and relatives for hours previous to the time for the funeral.

At 2 o'clock the casket was closed and the funeral moved to the Hickory Street Presbyterian church, where Rev. W. A. Nord conducted the services and preached a brief sermon, in which he spoke feelingly of the deceased's useful life and beautiful disposition. After the sermon the church choir rendered several songs.

Among the beautiful floral tributes were "Faith, Hope and Charity" from her husband; pillow, presented by her children; wreath, by grandchildren; anchor, from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirst; anchor, from Dr. Hellmuth; wreath, from Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zimmer; basket, bouquet, from Mrs. Wenzel; basket, bouquet, from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Butler; and numerous other bouquets which spoke silently of the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

The flower bearers were Charles Amberg, Charles Kirst, John Schultz and Henry Weller. The pallbearers were George Jones, Michael Weller, Louis Zimmer and Michael Kramer. At 4 o'clock the funeral, which was one of the largest seen on this side for many years, moved to the Forest Hill cemetery, where interment was made.

Runaway Yesterday. A horse hitched to a wagon owned by Smith, of the Washington avenue grocery, became unmanageable on River street and ran away yesterday, tipping over the wagon, which was filled with goods, and scattering them along the street.

The driver, whose name could not be learned, jumped from the wagon, but held on to the reins, and succeeded in backing the horse before it got very far. The horse and driver escaped injury and the wagon was slightly damaged.

A Plain Statement. Two weeks ago we were in New York. The prices and styles of new Wash Goods were so tempting that we over-bought. We offer the goods at about half price Friday, Saturday and Monday. See our advertisement on another page of this paper.

NUBS OF NEWS. The members of the South Side baseball club are requested to meet at Burns' shaving parlors this evening at 7:30 sharp.

Bargains for all in our Cloak Department. See our advertisement on another page of this paper.

Miss Mills Mules, of Selwyn, has returned home after an extensive visit with Mr. and Mrs. William Holder on Cedar avenue, of Prospect avenue, is visiting at Plymouth.

Miss Katie Cahalin, of Cherry street, is visiting friends in New York city.

Misses Lizzie Healey and Maud Coon, of Pittston avenue, are spending a few days at Montrose.

Wood Dress Goods and Silks at about half price Friday and Saturday. Come and see. Mears & Hagen.

JONAS LONG'S SONS, JONAS LONG'S SONS.

SOMETHING YOU NEED

PERHAPS NOW, FROM THE HOUSE - FURNISHINGS DEPARTMENT

Before we forget, let us remind you that our half-yearly sale in this department will end Saturday. We advise you to grasp the opportunity of the last few days.

We Mention a Few Items for Today:

Bread Boxes, large size, made strong and finished neatly; were 49c. Today..... 39c

All Our Bric-a-Brac and a large assortment of Lamps go at one-third less than regular prices.

10 and 12-Quart Galvanized Iron Pails, 25 cent kind, go at..... 18c

Large White Porcelain Bowl and Pitcher. Set 50c. Was 69c

Dinner Sets—Containing 100 pieces, blue and brown colorings, small designs. Today, per set..... $5.95

Another number, which is very attractive, containing 100 pieces to the set, go at..... 7.49

Former price $9.00.

Lot of Owl Night Lamps, just the size to be convenient in carrying about the house, neatly decorated; today 20c

Regular price 35c.

Lemonade Sets—Six glasses, one pitcher and a large tray. Former price $1.25; today..... 98c

Medium Size Jardineres—Colorings brown and gold and silver; today 10c

Former price 15c.

Picture Department.

Some new subjects in Color Photos, beautifully mounted in 1 1/2 inch gold frame matted, size 14x17, regular $1.25 value $1.75. Special $1.25

Black and White Print, black frame, 13x14, oval open, regular price $1.10. Special..... 75c

Special Orders in Framing solicited. We make it a point to finish all work the day received.

Brass Rods, each..... 5c

White Cottage Poles,.... 15c

Window Shade Opaque, 6x36, mounted on spring roller, regular 20 cents. Special..... 20c

Jonas Long's Sons

Attend the August Sale NOW GOING ON AT The Newark Shoe Store

SUNBURN
Blue and Almond Cream removes redness of the skin and soothes the pain of sunburn in one night. Take a bottle with you on your vacation.
FOR SALE BY G. W. JENKINS.

Bargain Climax in Hosiery and Underwear

Light Weights for Early Autumn Wear and qualities that will positively give perfect satisfaction in service.

Only Four Numbers But They're Good Ones

NO. 1 Children's Heavy Ribbed Fast Black Hose, all sizes during this sale at the same price. Quality as good as any offered at 15 cents. Sale Price 10c	NO. 3 Ladies' Fine Swiss Ribbed Knee Pants in white only, full lace trim and extra well finished; quality as good as any ever offered at 75 cents. Sale Price 45c
NO. 2 Ladies' Fast Black Cotton Hose, fine gauge and extra finish; extra sizes if you want them; quality as good as any ever offered 25 cents. Sale Price 21c	NO. 4 Ladies' Ecrú Ribbed Vests, low neck and sleeveless, made from Maco yarns and perfectly finished; quality as good as any ever offered at 25 cents. Sale Price 19c

These Incomparable Values

During the balance of this week only. By the way, if you have children returning to school next week, better consult us about their hosiery.

Globe Warehouse

THE HOMLIEST MAN IN SCRANTON
as well as the landlady, and others are invited to call on our drugist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, a remedy that is guaranteed to cure and relieve all Chronic and Acute Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Price 25c and 50c.

AMUSEMENTS.

OPENING OF LYCEUM THEATRE.
Monday Afternoon and Night (Labor Day).

Tenth consecutive season of James A. Herne's Beautiful comedy drama SHORE ACRES

Presented by James A. Herne's own company of players. A. J. BEETY, Manager.

Academy of Music
M. BEIS, Manager.

STAR THEATRE
ALL G. HERBERTSON, Manager.

"CLARK'S NEW ROYALS"

Funerals. The funeral of the late Charles Fischer, who died Sunday at Lake Sherburne, was held yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Peter Zilman, of 645 Clay avenue. Rev. Stephen J. DeLoach, of St. Paul's church, officiated at the funeral. The remains will be taken to Wilkes-Barre for interment.

Funerals. The funeral of the late Charles Fischer, who died Sunday at Lake Sherburne, was held yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Peter Zilman, of 645 Clay avenue. Rev. Stephen J. DeLoach, of St. Paul's church, officiated at the funeral. The remains will be taken to Wilkes-Barre for interment.

Funerals. The funeral of the late Charles Fischer, who died Sunday at Lake Sherburne, was held yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Peter Zilman, of 645 Clay avenue. Rev. Stephen J. DeLoach, of St. Paul's church, officiated at the funeral. The remains will be taken to Wilkes-Barre for interment.

Funerals. The funeral of the late Charles Fischer, who died Sunday at Lake Sherburne, was held yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Peter Zilman, of 645 Clay avenue. Rev. Stephen J. DeLoach, of St. Paul's church, officiated at the funeral. The remains will be taken to Wilkes-Barre for interment.

Funerals. The funeral of the late Charles Fischer, who died Sunday at Lake Sherburne, was held yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Peter Zilman, of 645 Clay avenue. Rev. Stephen J. DeLoach, of St. Paul's church, officiated at the funeral. The remains will be taken to Wilkes-Barre for interment.