

WEST SCRANTON

CHILD FOUND MOTHER DEAD

MRS. HANNAH MORGANS SUC-CUMBS TO HEART TROUBLE.

Deceased Lay Down to Rest After Partaking of the Evening Meal and Expired a Few Minutes Afterward—Opening Session of the Congregational Cymnana—Dedication of Washington Hall—Woman Took an Overdose of Medicine. Other Notes of Interest.

Mrs. Hannah Morgans, wife of Thomas J. Morgans, reclined on the lounge at her home, 242 Tenth street, after supper last evening, and when one of her children went into the room shortly afterwards the child discovered the woman's mouth open, and a strange look on her face that betokened death. The other members of the family were summoned, and they discovered that she was dead. Dr. W. Rowland Davies was summoned, but his services were not required, as the woman had passed beyond medical aid. Coroner Roberts was also notified, and decided that death was due to heart failure.

Deceased was 47 years of age, and had been a resident of West Scranton since infancy. Three weeks ago she fell and sprained her foot, and had not been very well since, although that mishap did not enter into the cause of her death.

Mrs. Morgans was born in Tamaqua, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Jones, of 333 South Hyde Park avenue. Her husband and six children survive her. They are: Mrs. William Lewis, of Elyon street; Gertrude, Gomer, George, Thomas and May Morgans.

Opening of the Cymnana. The heavy storm of last evening interfered with the attendance at the opening session of the cymnana in the Tabernacle Congregational church, but the preceding services were held as arranged. Rev. D. P. Jones, pastor of the church, presided over the session, and the devotionals were given by Rev. William Davies, pastor of the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church.

The first sermon was preached by Rev. Jonathan Davis, of Forest City, and the second by Rev. T. Evans, of Elyon, W. C. Both discourses were given in Welsh, and were attentively listened to by those in attendance.

Prohibition League Meeting. The West Scranton Prohibition league held a very important business meeting Wednesday evening in Morgans' hall. The question as to whether the league would adopt the plan of organization, as proposed by Oliver W. Stewart, chairman of the national Prohibition committee, was taken up and thoroughly discussed.

The opinion of all was that the system is the best yet proposed for the furtherance of the cause of Prohibition principles. The league will hereafter be known as the West Scranton Prohibition Alliance.

The charter, constitution for Prohibition alliances, book of ceremonies and other needed supplies were handed over to the alliance by Organizer Rosen.
