GRIEVANCES OF MINERS

WHAT PRESIDENT MITCHELL SAYS ABOUT THEM.

The Mine Workers' National Executive Arrived Here Yesterday Afternoon from Hazleton and in an Interview Declared That He Anticipated No Trouble in Securing an Interview with the Operators. He Says That General Conditions Are Unsatisfactory.

President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, arrived in the city about 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Hazleton, and was in terviewed at the St. Charles botel, shortly after his arrival, by a Tribune man, Mr. Mitchell was accompanied by Miss Morris, his private secretary. He will leave this morning for Lake Lodore, where he will this afternoon address those attending the Central Labor union excursion, and tomorrow the mine workers' president will be the principal speaker at the semi-centennial celebration at Carbondale, He will remain in Carbondale for a few days, as he has promised to speak at meetings which are to be held at neighboring places, and will then return to this

In the course of his conversation yes terday, President Mitchell declared that the conditions at present existing ! the anthracite valley are far from what they should be. In answer to a direct interrogation on the point, he said, abruptly and emphatically: "On the whole, I would say that the conditions in this field are not satisfactory. Men are being discharged without cause, contracts are being violated, and an entirely unwarranted opposition is being manifested towards the United Mine Workers of America.

WHAT MEN CLAIM. "That," he continued, with less varmth than he had allowed himself at first to manifest, "is what is claimed by the men themselves. I believe that these complaints, moreover, are the result of the action of local managements, not done with the knowledge or consent of heads of companies, who I do not think would endorse the moves of superintendents and bosses who are enforcing these conditions." President Mitchell furthermore stated that there have been more complaints of grievances from the men of No. 1, or the Scranton district, than from either of the other divisions of the anthracite field. As will be remembered at the recent convention in Hazleton, President Mitchell and the three district presidents, T. D. Nicholls of No. 1, T. J. Duffy of No. 7, and John Fahy of No. 9, were chosen as a committee to confer with representatives of the operators and endeavor to secure an agreement which would finally dispose secure redress for the present griev- power to act. ances. Regarding this committee, President Mitchell yesterday said: "Thus far we have done nothing to yards attempting to secure an interriew, but I do not entertain the least doubt that the operators will receive the committee which waits upon them, We will not go down to New York for at least a week yet, as we intend to first meet and arrange our data, beore asking for any interview

DISTRICT GRIEVANCES

"At our meeting we will consider all of the district grievances which have been already mentioned, the eard question, the refusal to reinstate firemen It is not likely that our meeting of 150,000 natives. Her district takes will be held in Scranton. We have not yet decided upon 1ts date."

When President Mitchell was asked what he thought of the action of the State Stationary Engineers' conven-Meisler again spoke, and Miss Emma tion which was held here last Sunday, in deciding to remain a separate body from the United Mine Workers America, he remarked that the Stationary Engineers' union did not consist wholly of mine engineers and he supposed that had probably something to do with the sentiment of the convention on the subject.

President Mitchell appeared loath to discuss any of the individual grievances of the mine workers and delared that there were none in paricular which had caused the appointment of the committee, but merely the fact that they existed, as a composite whote. Regarding the card question which has appeared uppermost among this district's grievances he said that the custom of making periodical examinations had been in practice here for about six months. without any opposition until about a month ago, when all of the companies suddenly protested against it.

OBJECTION TO FERBER.

Central Labor Union Disapproves of His Appointment to Superintendency of Bureau of Fires.

The greater part of the session of the Central Labor union yesterday afternoon was taken up in discussing the appointment of H. F. Chief Ferber, it will be remembered, was one of the officers in charge of the deputies patrolling the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western yards during the recent carbuilders' and machinists' strike. The resolutions passed yesterday read in part as follows:

Whereas, H. F. Ferber has been recognized as a leader of the hums, hoboes and disreputable gang imported by a corporation as strike breakers, be

CAUSES ALL SIN

SO DECLARED REV. SHEPHERD KNAPP, JR., OF NEW YORK.

He Preached Last Night in the Second Presbyterian Church Taking His Theme from Paul's Description of "the Son of Perdition," Who He Declared Was a Type Embodying the Very Essence of All Sin. Christ Shows No Quarter to the Self Centred Man.

Rev. Shepherd Knapp, jr., of New York, an eloquent young clergyman with a number of friends in this city delivered two sermons yesterday at the Second Presbyterian church before congregations which can be termed At night he chose for his text the embodiment of all selfishness is very obscure, he explained, and has been a source of much controversy among

Bible students in all ages. "Every Bible scholar has been at : ose to explain just what sort of a figure this mysterious son of perdition is There have been persons who hav ought to identify historical personage as this man of sin. I do not propose to discuss this phase of the question desire to take Paul's description of this mysterious figure and show it to be a pen-picture of a sort of ideal sinner or a type embodying the essential qualities that lie at the root of all "I believe that it can be proven that every sinner is a self-centered man or voman and that all sin can be direct y traced to the worship of self. "Every man must acknowledge some supreme allegiance. The good man looks to God and serves Him. The sinful man exalts himself to the supreme place and makes of himself a god. He worships himself sitting in the center of his temple. "As we look at this picture we see in him sin in its very essence. We find, if we study the man, that out of God become empty words to him. ONE TAPE OF SINNER.

The self-righteous man is one type of the self-centred sinner. You speak to him of God's commandments and he tells you how punctually he observes them. You speak to him of is with an air of seeming satisfaction. If he regards other men he does so Director Wormser said yesterday with a feeling of scorn or with sneer-

"If your self-centred man is a person of weak will be becomes a slave of sloth. If on the other hand he is ag gressive and possessed of strong will e feels that he must make his will by force and attempts to do so. If he is a man of strong passions and enjoys the swift pace of unleashed desire, he goes down, down, down into the bot-

"Sins of pride and sins of passion, sins of indolence and sins of rebellion sins of the intelligence and sins of the emotions all trace their origin to the common source of self-worship.

"The self-centred man should seek deeper knowledge of his own faults for with a deeper knowledge of sins comes a deeper knowledge of Jesus Christ. With a deeper knowledge of sin comes the realization that we cannot save curselves and that we need Saviour.

"Let us remember, my friends, that Jesus Christ is the one great enemy of human selfishness, who never rests and who gives no quarter, that Jesus Christ is the only being who wholly conquered self; that Jesus Christ by His example and teaching did more than anybody else or any institution to bring men to a realization of their own selfish hearts and by so doing to bring them nearer to God; that Jesus Christ knows all and holds out to you His cross to make you free saying.
