LARGE NUMBER OF FUNERALS

SEVEN INTERMENTS MADE IN LOCAL CEMETERIES.

Sorrowful Labor Day for as Many West Scranton Families—Columbias Enjoy a Clam Bake and Ball Game at Gravel Pond—Forged Check Passed on Unsuspecting Merchants—Closing Sessions of the Cymnafa—Other Events of Interest—Notes and Personals.

A large number of funerals occurred in West Scranton yesterday, when several prominent persons were laid to rest. Rev. James McLeod, of the First Presbyterian church, officiated at the funeral of the late Mrs. John Williams, which was conducted from the house on Luger street. The pall bearers were Messrs. Scott, Stone, Sullivan and Elmer. Burial was made in Washburn cemetery.

The services over the remains of the late Mrs. Ann Morgan were held at the house, corner of Oxford and North streets, Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, of the Jackson street Baptist church, officiating. The pall bearers were John F. Davis, Jr., Evan Hopkins, John J. Lewis, Thomas Morris, Morgan Davis and Evan Davies. Burial was made in the Washburn street cemetery.

Two funeral services were held at Holy Cross church yesterday morning over the bodies of the late Mrs. Julia Sullivan and her late daughter, Miss Joan. Both interments were made in the Calvary cemetery.

At an early hour yesterday morning Rev. Spicker, of Holy Trinity Lutheran church, conducted services over the remains of the late Mrs. Louise Hudson at the house on Grant avenue. The remains were later taken to Falls by Funeral Director Price, where burial was made in the afternoon. A large number of relatives and friends attended the funeral and accompanied the remains to Falls.

The remains of an infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Linder, of 1706 Elizabeth street, Tripp park, were interred in the Washburn street cemetery yesterday afternoon.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. August Rose, of 412 Christ court, was buried in the Calvary cemetery yesterday afternoon.

CHARTREUSE LIQUEURS. Right to Purvey Them Sold to Syndicate for $0,000,000 Francs. From the Hill Mall, London. The Grand Chartreuse has sold the right of purveying its famous liqueurs to a syndicate. Hitherto a lay brother has been at the head of this business. Until comparatively recent times the signature of the Rev. Pere Garnier on the label was the guarantee of the purity and quality of the liqueurs. The syndicate required of the authenticity of the contents of the flask which the syndicate likes to find convenient at his elbow at the coffee and cigarette stage of his report. Pere Garnier was an extremely shrewd man of business, and those than one have outwitted him in the care with which he watched over the reputation of his society, and the praiseworthy promptness he evinced in coming down on the falsifier and the forger. When he died not many years ago, his place was difficult to fill. Hence, perhaps, the present arrangement. Something of the kind had already been under consideration. I hear the price the Chartreuse asked is put at $0,000,000 francs.

"Wopsy" Will Soon Be Running. Albany, Pa., Sept. 2.—Trains will be running as usual tomorrow on the "Wopsy," so says the new superintendent, J. A. Bush, who has received $1,000 in expenses today from President S. P. Langdon to pay employees.
