

LACKAWANNA COUNTY NEWS

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

Helene Fadden, a little 7-year-old Olyphant girl, who is visiting her grandfather, Patrick Feeney, of North Main street, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by falling upon an iron fence. Drs. M. J. Shields, J. S. Graves, of Jermyrn, and Kelly, of Olyphant, attended her and in dressing her injuries made sixteen stitches. It was at first thought that the child taken to a Carbonade hospital, but to this the parents objected, and the child is now under the care of Dr. Shields.

The people of Jermyrn have shown almost as much enthusiasm in the Carbonade celebration as the residents of the Pioneer City. Work has been suspended here the past three days, and the people of the both boroughs have daily visited the city. Yesterday three Jermyrn organizations, the Citizens' Band, Crystal Fire company, No. 1, and the Artesian Hose company, of Jermyrn, and the William Walker Hose company, of Mayfield, took part in the parade. The Artesian, which was the youngest organization in the line of parade, made a most excellent appearance, and were the recipient of many flattering expressions.

Justice of the Peace Robinson had a busy afternoon yesterday, listening to a suit between Joseph Kouch, a resident of the East Side, and a Haverhill resident of Simpson. Kouch and Peter Turbok conduct a general store on the East Side. Turbok married a daughter of the Simpson man and a short time ago a child was born. The father, who is a Greek Catholic, wanted the child christened in the Greek church, while the girl and her father, who are Roman Catholics, wanted the child christened in their church. The child's father insisted, and the christening was done according to his wishes. Yesterday Kouch went to Simpson to deliver some goods, when he was met by the father-in-law of his partner, who accused him of being the cause of the whole trouble by influencing Turbok to oppose him. He made all sorts of threats, and so badly scared Kouch that he was afraid to go again to Simpson, and he therefore had the defendant arrested. Attorney H. D. Carey appeared for the prosecutor, and the Hon. McCabe, of Carbonade, assisted in the defense. The case lasted nearly two hours, and the jurist finally held the defendant in $1,000 to appear at court. Mr. McCabe entered bail for him.

Miss Margaret Osborne, of Andover, N. Y., is visiting relatives here. Miss Mary Nicholson has returned home from an extended visit to Wilkes-Barre and other points.

J. T. Devery was elected secretary of the Blakely borough council at a meeting held Tuesday evening. The meeting was a spirited one from start to finish. The stone crusher company had a representative present, who tried to impress upon council that they would expect payment for the stone crusher. Councilman James W. Smith also impressed upon the representative's mind that council would not, Mr. Smith's words were voiced by all present.

The Peckville section of the temperance union choir will meet in the M. E. church Sunday school room, Friday evening at 8 o'clock. An invitation is extended to all persons to be present.

OLYPHANT

Work at the First ward school annex has been ordered stopped by the school board. This action was taken because of the failure of the Peck Lumber company to comply to the plans of the building. On Monday, when the carpenters arrived at the building, they were ordered off the grounds and work has been at a standstill since. A meeting of the board has been called, at which representatives of the company will be present, and it is expected that the difficulty will be settled.

Rev. A. W. Cooper who has been ill for the past week occupied his pulpit on Sunday morning. In the evening Secretary G. G. Mabry preached a most acceptable sermon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Purdy will move to Scranton on Thursday where they will make their home for the future.

Work on the new bridge has been some what interfered with owing to the high water in the creek from the heavy rains.

The new work upon the new addition to the public school building is rapidly nearing completion. This addition has made a great improvement to the appearance of the building. We have now one of the largest and best equipped school buildings in any of the towns of this county, which the people of Dalton should be proud of. There is nothing more advantageous to the prosperity and growth of a town than good public schools. Professor C. H. Hanson is greatly pleased over the building and the most promising prospects for this school year.

The schools will open on September 16. Besides the large attendance of pupils from the borough the outlook is for a larger attendance than ever before of pupils from the surrounding country. There will be ample room to accommodate all who wish to attend and the tuition will be the same as in former years—$1.50 per month.

A supper will be given in the Methodist church on Wednesday evening. On Friday evening the Ladies Aid of the Baptist church will serve a supper in the church.

Rev. and Mrs. G. N. Hertzog, who have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Knedler for the past week, left on Tuesday morning for a visit at the Pan-American.

THEATRICAL NEWS. Today's Attractors. 'Pudd'nhead Wilson.' 'Time does not fade 'Pudd'nhead Wilson,' that delightful story, which was transferred to the stage by the late Frank Mayo. It is a play with the ring, and the real ring, and time in its flight deals gently with it. The company which presented this quaint play at the Lyceum last night is headed by William S. Gill, who essayed the role created by the lamented Mayo, and he gives an extremely good presentation of Pudd'nhead, the lawyer, who waited so long and uncomplainingly for a client.

Bill at the Star Theater. Clark's New Royals will hold forth, and are undoubtedly pleasing the good sized audiences who attend that popular theatre. The vaudeville portion of the programme is one of the best ever presented in Scranton, and each and every act is what would be known in theatrical circles as a head liner.

AMY LEE'S ENGAGEMENT. Sparkling Amy Lee, who is generally conceded to be the most beautiful and accomplished of our local actresses, will make her first appearance here at the Academy of Music in C. E. Callahan's beautiful play, 'Frog's Ferry,' tonight, for a three days engagement.

STAGE NOTES. Miss Anna Hill will start this season in 'The Little Bunch,' a musical comedy by Harry B. Smith and Reginald De Koven. Her New York appearance will occur later in the season—the date is not yet definitely fixed at the Casino.

Sympathy

It is a good thing for the young husband to give the young wife, but sympathy will not abate one jot of her nervousness or lift her to that plane of sound health where alone the wife and mother can find happiness. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription meets every womanly want, tranquility, and need. It weakens the nerves, restores the appetite and induces refreshing sleep. Its use previous to maternity makes the baby's advent practically painless and gives the mother abundant nutrition for her child. 'Favorite Prescription' is a woman's medicine and has no equal as a cure for womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

Accept no substitute for 'Favorite Prescription.' No other medicine is 'just as good' for weak and sick women. 'It affords me great pleasure to be able to say a few words in regard to the merits of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery,' writes Mrs. Ellen T. Talia, Jackson Co., N. Y. 'I was troubled by these medicines after seeing the effect upon my mother. At an early age my mother was greatly bothered with painful periods, also a troublesome drain which rendered me weak and unfit for work of any kind. I became so thin that my husband left me but skin and bone. My husband became alarmed and got me a bottle of Favorite Prescription. After he saw the wonderful effects of that one he got two more, and after these he was cured of his pain, and I began to gain in flesh very rapidly. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of 21 cent stamps, to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
