TO REMOVE FLAT WHEELS.

Director Roche Has Requested Manager Silliman to Do So.

Director of Public Works John E. Roche yesterday requested General Manager Silliman, of the Scranton Railway company, to remove all flat wheels from cars running on the North Scranton line. He was moved to do this after the inspection of the new pavement on that thoroughfare on Thursday, when it was discovered that it had been seriously injured by the jarring of these wheels.

The director stated in a Tribune man that he had received assurances that all flat wheels will be removed.

Before finally accepting the pavement, Director Roche will wait for the report of City Engineer Phillips, who will give an expert opinion on the work.

TOO MUCH MOTHER-IN-LAW.

Old Colored Lady Not Popular with Her Daughter-in-Law.

Mrs. Marietta Le Ferage, a colored woman residing on Penn avenue in the Thirteenth ward, appeared before the poor board yesterday afternoon and asked to have her mother-in-law put in the Hillside home.

"She's pretty old," said she, "and she's a whole lot of trouble to us. My husband can support her all right, but she's an awful nuisance around the house."

Is she cross?" asked Director Fuller.

"No, she isn't," replied Mrs. Le Ferage, "but he causes an awful lot of trouble by carrying stories around among the neighbors."

"I'm afraid the poor board is not in the business of ridding people of unattractive mother-in-laws," said Director Fuller. Mrs. Le Ferage took the hint and suggested that perhaps her mother-in-law was a little bit out of her head. The board decided to refer the mother-in-law to Director Shotten for investigation.

Mrs. Charles Littery, of Park place, wanted the board to get her husband out of jail. She has several small children and since their father was committed nearly two weeks ago they have been living on the charity of their friends.

"He's a good man when he's sober," said she, "but he's a bad one when he's drunk."

It was decided to have Director Shotten investigate the case and apply for the man's release if he felt convinced that he would do the right thing by his family when he secured his liberty.

The report of Superintendent Beemer, of the Hillside home, for the month of August showed that the number of inmates of the home on August 21 was the same as the number on August 15—459. These are classified as follows: Insane males, 128; same males, 136; insane females, 132; same females, 62.

A considerable amount of routine business was transacted in addition to that above mentioned.

GOSSIP OF THE GUARD.

As printed in The Tribune's military column several weeks ago, Captain Joseph Helriegel, of Company C, of the Thirtieth regiment, has resigned his command and will shortly leave for Philadelphia and there undertake the study of medicine. The popular young captain of C tendered his resignation early in the week, and it will be sent to his brigade and division headquarters with that of Captain George Russ, of Company A. It will be there accepted, and an order will be subsequently issued for elections in the two companies by Colonel Watres.

Thomas Murphy, of West Scranton, excels in the forty-seventh infantry, serving in the Philippines, is willing to take the berth the men of C would be only too happy to have him as their captain. Captain James Moir, another old leader of the company, is another popular choice for the position, but it is doubtful whether either of them would be desirable of accepting it.

The latest move made by the lovers of athletic sports among the members of the Thirteenth is the formation of an athletic association, and enthusiastic young men are promoting this scheme in all the companies, with the result that a meeting will be soon called to effect permanent organization. The regimental association will have full sway of all athletic doings in the guard, and will preside over the destinies of the football, baseball, indoor basketball and basketball teams as soon as they are organized. The plan is hastened by the fact that there will be something of a tangible nature behind all these enterprises.

The football team continues to get in its regular practice, and meets twice a week at the armory for indoor work. The big drill room is an ideal place for practice, and between twenty-five and thirty young men have been industriously reporting there and trying for the team. Lieutenant E. H. Ripple, Jr., of Company D, will probably manage the team. The team has not yet met to organize, but will probably do so within the near future. Dr. Charles Gilbert can have the captaincy if he desires it, and in case he does not accept Sergeant Ralph Gregory or Sergeant Charles Adams would be popular men for the berth.

The resignation of Captain George Helriegel of Company C, of the Thirteenth, came a good deal in the nature of a surprise to the regiment at large, and universal regret has been expressed that the able young officer will leave the regiment. While a junior officer he was connected with the guard for several years and enjoyed the reputation of being a clever tactician and competent officer. Just who will succeed him is a question of considerable comment, and as yet but few Richmonds have appeared in the field.

The first of the inter-regimental rifle matches between the Ninth and Thirtieth will take place today, when the strong team of Company A will visit the Pittston range and shoot against the Company M, which possesses some of the stars of the Wilkes-Barre regiment.

The Company A team will be composed of Captain George H. Russ, Jr., Corporal Paul Coffin and Privates Clarence Gilmore and Lawrence Brink. The Company M team will consist of the following members: Privates J. W. Burns, John Watkins, Dorrance Moffitt and Sergeant Will Blank. Captain Desmond Stokes, the former commander of Company F, Thirtieth regiment, was to have shot on the team, but was taken suddenly ill a few days ago and is now at the Scranton private hospital, where an operation will be performed upon him.

News was received in this city during the week that the condition of Adjutant General T. J. Stewart, who recently broke his leg, was much improved. His temperature is normal.

SMALL FIRE IN Y. M. C. A.

It Was Caused by a Plumber's Gasoline Stove.

A plumber's gasoline stove which was left lying in a bow window on the Washington avenue side of the new Young Men's Christian association building, blew up yesterday afternoon about 5:45 o'clock and set fire to a barrel of rubbish nearby.

A sheet of flame burst out from the third floor and caused a passerby to turn in an alarm from Box 24, at the Municipal building. The blaze was extinguished with a fire extinguisher by Contractor Williams and one of his workmen, before the companies arrived. The damage done was trifling.

CARDINAL COMES TODAY

WILL CONSECRATE MONSIGNOR GARVEY BISHOP.

Many Prelates of the Catholic Church Will Be Here to Have a Part in the Solemn Services That Will Be Conducted Tomorrow Morning in St. Peter's Cathedral in Connection with the Elevation of Monsignor Garvey to the Episcopacy—Officers of the Mass.

It was a busy day about the episcopal residence yesterday, when the finishing touches were being put to the detailed arrangements for the elaborate ceremony with which Bishop-elect Eugene A. Garvey will be elevated to the episcopacy tomorrow at St. Peter's cathedral.

Decorators were engaged in draping the episcopal residence, St. Thomas college hall and St. Cecilia's academy with flags and bunting, and at College hall arrangements were being perfected for the entertainment of the priests who will come to the ceremony from abroad, while in the cathedral the work of embellishing the interior and arranging the paraphernalia of the consecration, made a busy scene in the sacred edifice.

The latest arrivals received by Bishop Hoban were that of all the dignitaries expected would be in attendance. Word was received from Rev. Dr. F. Z. Rooker, during the afternoon, that Cardinal Martinelli, who is to be consecrating prelate, would arrive here at 2:45 today, from Philadelphia. A committee of four priests was despatched by Bishop Hoban to act as an escort to the cardinal. The committee consists of Rev. John O'Malley, of Kingston; Rev. R. A. McAndrew, of Honesdale; Rev. M. TO RECEIVE CARDINAL.

Cardinal Martinelli will be received by the Italian Catholic societies, on his arrival this afternoon, and be their guest in the evening.

The cardinal has accepted the invitation of the Knights of Columbus to be their guest, Sunday evening. A reception will be tendered him at the Knights' club house, on North Washington avenue, beginning at 8 o'clock. Admittance will be by card only. Invitations have been issued to the prominent country and city officials and many representative Scrantonians, including clergyman of various denominations. It is expected that all the prelates in attendance at the consecration will be present at the reception.

Members of the Knights of Columbus who have not received their tickets can secure them of Grand Knight Richard J. Bourke, at his office, 501 Lackawanna avenue. Members must present tickets to secure admittance.

Six hundred tickets of admittance to the consecration ceremonies have been distributed by Monsignor Garvey and most of these went to his Pittston parishioners.

President S. Schwab, of the United States Steel company, who has been especially munificent in gifts to the new diocese, was invited by Bishop-elect Garvey to attend the consecration and sent an acceptance. Yesterday afternoon Monsignor Garvey and Cardinal Martinelli conferred and agreed that it would be impossible for him to attend.

Cardinal Martinelli, in attendance at the consecration, is one of the most distinguished men in the Catholic Church. This is his first visit to Scranton. He was born at Lucca, Tuscany, Aug. 20, 1848; was educated at the parochial school of St. Anne and the seminary at Lucca; became a member of the Augustinian order, and was of the holy office before being appointed Bishop-elect of the United States. He received the red beretta May 8, 1901.

Cardinal Martinelli comes from a family prominent in the church in Italy. Three brothers, including himself, were members of the Augustinian order and one brother of the present prelate was also a cardinal. Previous to his elevation to that position he was confessor to Pius 9.

Cardinal Satoli labored under the disadvantage, when here, of being unable to speak but little English. His successor speaks English fluently, but oddly enough with an Irish brogue, as he was a student in one of the Irish colleges in Rome. He is a man of most attractive personality and fine oratorical powers.

HINE COULDN'T STAND IT

Knocked Down the Man Who Said He Wished the President Had Been Killed.

Comrade N. F. Hine, of Ezra Griffith road, in the Army of the Gratiot, proved himself to be an ardent patriot last evening by promptly knocking down twice a man who declared he was glad that President McKinley had been shot.

The man who declared that he was glad that the president was shot and who took occasion to brutally beat Mr. Hine after the latter had struck him, was George Senbergh, a young painter, who was one of a gang of three men who were yesterday painting the large pole which stands alongside the Grand Army Republic Memorial hall at Penn avenue and Linden street.

He had just quit work when some one brought along the news that President McKinley had been shot.

"I'm glad of it," Senbergh, in a tone loud enough to attract the attention of a number of persons who were standing nearby. "I only wish the fellow had killed him."

Mr. Hine, who is a gray haired old man and not very sturdy, was stood up by the five-foot Senbergh at the time. His fighting blood was up the instant he heard this remark, and hauling back his right fist, he let it fly straight at Senbergh's face. The force of the blow was sufficient to knock Senbergh flat on his back.

He was up in a minute, however, and made a dash for Hine, but the latter was game and let fly his fist again, knocking Senbergh down a second time. The latter was now wild with rage and when he got on his feet for the second time he went for Hine like a mad bull.

The old man sought shelter in Bryant's cigar store, but Senbergh followed him in and struck at him in a blind rage. Hine's face was cut by one of Senbergh's blows and one of his eyes was blackened. He might have been seriously injured had not some bystanders came to his rescue and pulled Senbergh away.

The old man was the hero of the hour last night. At the meeting of his post and received handshakes and congratulations from all sides.

"I'm an old man," he said, "but I couldn't stand by and hear anybody say he wished the president of this country and one of the men who work the blue had been killed. It was too much for an American citizen to stand and I just sailed into him, even though I was old enough to be his father. I did the same thing once before when Lincoln was assassinated, and I'm ready to do it again."

NEW JUDGE BEGINS WORK

RECEIVED MANY AND HEARTY CONGRATULATIONS.

Devoted What Leisure Time He Had Yesterday to Framing a New Fee Bill—Register of Wills Koch Announced Yesterday That He Will Appoint Henry T. Koehler as His Deputy and Charles G. Rosar as Clerk—Question Is Will Judge Vosburg Approve Them?

Judge A. A. Vosburg yesterday occupied his new office in the court house, and was kept busy receiving congratulations. Among his callers were Judge R. W. Archbald, of the Federal court, Judge John P. Kelly and Judge J. W. Carpenter. President Judge H. M. Edwards has not yet returned from Block Island. Many members of the bar and prominent citizens dropped in to pay their respects, and every mail brought a raft of congratulatory letters, many of them being from members of the bar in other counties.

Judge Vosburg devoted what time he could command to the task of framing a new fee bill. Deputy Register Koehler had corresponded with the registers of other counties throughout the state, which have a separate Orphans' court, regarding the matter of fees, and of the information thus acquired, drafted a new fee bill. This was submitted to Judge Vosburg to pass upon. He will probably issue an order Monday regarding it.

Register of Wills William Koch, Jr., yesterday announced that his selections for the two clerkships were: Deputy register of wills and first assistant clerk of the Orphans' court, Henry T. Koehler; second assistant register and clerk, Charles G. Rosar. Mr. Koehler is the present deputy register, Mr. Rosar is a clerk in his father's store, on the South side, and was deputy city controller under E. J. Robinson.

The register of wills receives a salary of $3,500; the first assistant, $2,500, and the second assistant, $2,000. These salaries are conditional upon the earnings of the office. The register gets the first $3,000 in fees, and the assistants have their salaries made up from whatever is taken in over and above that. If the office earns more than enough to pay the three maximum salaries, the balance goes to the county.

The law allows the register, with the approval of court, to appoint as many assistants as may be deemed necessary. If the work and receipts of the office warrant it, a third clerk will likely be appointed.

There were several candidates for the clerkship given Mr. Rosar. Among these were Thompson Beane, John M. Edwards, J. W. Benjamin and P. E. Ryan.

The appointments made by Register Koch will be submitted for Judge Vosburg's approval next Monday. There is some speculation as to whether or not both appointments will be approved.

STOLE A PAIR OF TROUSERS.

A young man named John Caplin went in Kaplan's clothing store, on Penn avenue, last night and asked to be shown some trousers. He picked out a pair that he said he liked, and went into the retiring room to try them on.

He put them on and, after pulling his old trousers over them, made a dash for the street. He got safely away before the proprietor knew what had happened. Patrolman Parry was notified and he followed Caplin up the avenue and traced him into a saloon at the corner of Adams and Lackawanna avenues.

He went in, accompanied by Patrolman Haggerty, and placed Caplin under arrest. The latter resisted fiercely, and the policemen had to use their clubs to subdue him. When the station house was reached it was found that he was wearing the two pairs of trousers.

RATES ARE TOO HIGH.

October 10 Parade May Not Be Held in Hazleton.

The members of the board of government of the Catholic Total Abstinence union of the diocese of Scranton held a meeting at the Lackawanna Valley house last evening. Rev. J. J. Curran, president of the union, presided. The meeting was called to take action on the railroad rates to Hazleton and return, on the occasion of the annual October 10 parade. It was decided at the meeting that Timothy Burke, secretary of the union, should call upon the general committee at Hazleton this evening and arrange with them to interview the general passenger agents of the Lehigh Valley and Pennsylvania Railroad companies with a view to securing better rates for the societies intending to participate in the coming parade at Hazleton. In case no better terms are given by these companies, the board of government will take immediate action and transfer the parade to some city more centrally located.

The rates stand at present an adult ticket from Scranton to Hazleton and return would cost $2.50, and from Carbondale, $2.50.

PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT.

St. Thomas College Will Have a Great Year.

The prospects for the coming year at St. Thomas college are very bright. Some sixty new students have been registered during the last two weeks, the largest enrollment in the history of the institution. Many of the newcomers are graduates of the local high schools. The excellent work done at the college during the last few years is evidently bearing fruit.

The increase in the number of students will necessitate the opening of another class and addition to the staff of professors. Studies will be resumed next Monday.
