

THE DANGER POINT HAS BEEN PASSED

This Seems to Be the Opinion of the Corps of Physicians Attending Mr. McKinley.

HOPE IN THE OFFICIAL BULLETIN

All Physicians Have Placed Themselves on Record as Having Faith That the Worst Is Over—The Bullet Gives the Doctors Concern, but the X-Ray Machine Will Be Utilized if There Is the Slightest Indication of Trouble from the Lead—Vice-President Roosevelt Most Sanguine.

THE LAST OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

MILBURN HOUSE, BUFFALO, Sept. 10.—The following bulletin was issued by the President's physicians at 10.30 p. m.: The condition of the President is unchanged in all important particulars. His temperature is 100.6; pulse, 114; respiration, 28. When the operation was done on Friday last it was noted that the bullet had carried with it a short distance beneath the skin a fragment of the President's coat. This foreign material was of course removed, but a slight irritation of the tissues was produced, the evidence of which has appeared only tonight. It has been necessary on account of this slight disturbance to remove a few stitches and partially open the skin wound. This incident cannot give rise to other complications, but it is communicated to the public, as the surgeons wish to make their bulletins entirely frank. In consequence of this separation of the edges of the surface wound, the healing of the same will be somewhat delayed. P. M. RIXEY, ROSWELL PARKE, M. D. MANN, HERMAN MYNTER, CHARLES MCBURNEY, GEORGE B. CORTELYOU, Secretary to the President.

reached among those in charge of the case that food should be administered to the patient... Not since the shooting has a morsel of food been given to the president by natural means, but the drain on his system has been met by dissolved foods administered by injection. This has been a period of four days of fasting from ordinary means of nourishment and tomorrow will be the fifth day. The importance of the feeding by the mouth is that it will restore the normal action of the stomach for the first time since that organ had its walls pierced by a bullet. The doctors are satisfied that the time has come to renew these normal functions and the four days which have elapsed since the wounds in the stomach were closed give every assurance that the sutures are sufficiently healed to allow nature to resume her sway. Although the house was fairly enveloped with flowers today, sent as tokens of sympathy and gratitude, none of the sweet scented blossoms was taken to the president's chamber. The most rigid system of simplicity prevails there, and sentiment is not allowed to qualify the stern requirements of the case. The only persons admitted to the sick room today other than the doctors and attendants were Mrs. McKinley and Secretary Cortelyou. Although the president has been pronounced out of danger, no member of the cabinet has yet been within the sick room, nor has the vice president or those closest to the president, such as Senator Hanna and Judge Day, seen the president. But these restrictions established by the doctors are merely for the sake of encouraging every particle of energy in the patient and relatives and friends alike accept the rigorous policy as decidedly for the best. Secretary Cortelyou sees the president much, but there is never a breath of business, public or private, and at no time has there been any reference to anything connected with the president's duties. Councils Harmonious. There has been no division in the councils of physicians at any time, such has loyal and cordial efforts of the other, and all have joined in carrying out the masterly work done by Dr. Mann immediately following the shooting. In referring to this today, one of the president's assistants, who was present at the operation, said Dr. Mann displayed his consummate skill and calmness by going about the operation as if the patient were a child with a slight complaint. And yet Dr. Mann has since told a friend, when he realized the duty of his office, although he had performed hundreds of operations of laparotomy, he would have sacrificed all he possessed to have escaped the responsibility of operating upon the president of the United States. The dramatic phase of the situation here is rapidly disappearing. Plans overthrown by the assassin's bullet are being restored, and matters are rapidly assuming normal conditions. Indiana day at the exposition, set for Friday of this week, was indefinitely postponed when the president was shot, but the original programme was restored today at the suggestion of Senator Fairbank, who deems that the country would not have thought of were there any doubt of the president's recovery. The exposition has suffered severely in attendance since the tragedy, and the managers are now organizing for the day after tomorrow, which they expect not only to prove a great card for the fair, but which they hope will be made a day of national celebration.

STUTZ WANTS DAMAGES.

He Proposes to Make Things Warm for Those Responsible for His Arrest as an Anarchist.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Buffalo, Sept. 10.—Alfonzo Stutz, who was arrested several days ago on suspicion that he knew something about Czolgosz, has been released. Stutz is a German officer and was held in custody for three days on suspicion of complicity in the attempt on the life of President McKinley. He was released when he refused to give an affidavit. He asked first for the German consul and then for a German lawyer and said that he would sue the authorities for $100,000. He said that he told the truth and produced credentials when first arrested, but the police refused to believe him. He said that he saw Czolgosz at Novak's hotel, but never talked with him. He blamed Novak for his arrest and said that the hotelkeeper really knew all about Czolgosz.

PRESIDENT SHAFFER FAILS TO ACT

Has Not Followed Instructions of His Advisors Regarding Settlement of the Strike.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Pittsburgh, Sept. 10.—President T. J. Shaffer and his advisors in the general office of the Amalgamated are holding the power by the authority of the general executive board of the organization to settle the steel strike. Mr. Shaffer and his advisors apparently allowed today to lapse, after this authority was vested in them, without closing the settlement. On Monday, it is said, the executive board directed President Shaffer, together with Secretary John Williams, Assistant Secretary M. F. Tighe and Ben I. Davis, of the advisory board, to settle without delay on the best terms obtainable. Since then there has been no action developing anything to further a settlement, but it is said that President Shaffer is seeking to reopen direct negotiations with the United States Steel corporation in the hope of getting better terms than those submitted to the Amalgamated executive board as the result of the endeavor last week in New York of the representatives of the National Civic Federation, headed by President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor. The terms secured by the National Civic Federation were neither accepted nor rejected by the Amalgamated board. Instead a resolution was passed directing President Shaffer, with the aid of his immediate advisors, to secure the best possible settlement in the least possible time. A report from New York today that the strike had been settled, was denied by President Shaffer.

VETERANS AT CLEVELAND

The First Real Day of the G. A. R. Encampment Brings 200,000 Visitors—A Big Parade.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Cleveland, Sept. 10.—The first real day of the Grand Army encampment was today, with nearly 200,000 visitors in the city. The day was the eighty-seventh anniversary of Commodore Perry's great victory on Lake Erie, and that memory and devotion to the cause of young America's naval prowess was fittingly celebrated by a great parade in which the naval veterans of the rebellion participated. A light rain was falling early in the day, but this did not deter the visitors from assembling in immense throngs along the line of march. The rain ceased shortly before the hour set for the parade to start and the weather continued favorable, although cloudy and threatening. The parade formed on Lake and intersecting streets and moved along Water to Superior, on Superior to the east side of Monument Square, on Euclid avenue to Bond street, on Bond street through the court of honor with its reviewing stands, to Summit, and on Summit street, where it disbanded. General Leo Rassieur, commander in chief of the Grand Army, with his staff, reviewed the parade. In the reviewing stand with General Rassieur, was ex-Secretary of War Russell A. Alger and General J. Warren Keffer, of Springfield, major general of volunteers, together with other prominent veterans and celebrities. Admiral Daniel F. Kelly, a past commander of the National Association of Naval Veterans, acted as grand marshal commanding. The parade moved in six divisions, the Pennsylvanians forming part of the fifth division. Much regret was expressed by veterans today at the announcement that Vice President Theodore Roosevelt will not be able to attend the encampment. It was confidently expected that the popular military idol would be here on president's day, but despatches from Buffalo indicate otherwise. The city committee on president's day have placed the arrangements for Thursday entirely in the hands of Senator Hanna, who will also preside at the proceedings of the big Grand Army of the Republic convention.

WILL TAKE A CENSUS OF THE ANARCHISTS

The Restless Firebrands Will Be Closely Watched in New York City in the Future.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. New York, Sept. 10.—Police Commissioner Murphy today issued a general order to all the commanding officers in the police department, directing them to take a census of all anarchists living in their districts and to forward the list to headquarters, where the detective department is to conduct a general surveillance upon the anarchists of the city. The purpose of this, the commissioner says, is to make life so disagreeable for anarchists in New York city that they will move out of it. Pedro Esteve, the editor of the anarchist organ at Paterson, N. J., was visited today by six secret service men of the police department, who are the head of anarchists known as the "right of existence" group. He was subjected to a close examination, but so far as could be learned, nothing connecting the Paterson anarchists with the attack on President McKinley was elicited.

SCRANTON MAN ARRESTED.

In Custody in Troy as a Suspicious Character.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Troy, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Edward Higgins, who claims to be a mason and who is wandering about this section of the country, presumably looking for work, was locked up in the Fourth precinct station tonight, on the charge of being a suspicious character. He tells a story to the effect that since he was two years old, he has been hounded around from family to family in Scranton, and he is now a member of the Bricklayers' union. He has a working card signed by Martin Fox, as secretary of the local union, and had a little over $2 when he was arrested. He claims to live on Green Ridge street in Scranton, and will appeal to his friends in Scranton tomorrow for aid.

EMMA GOLDMAN IS CAPTURED

The Goddess of Anarchy Garrulous and Defiant When Taken In by Chicago Police.

CONTEMPT FOR CZOLGOSZ

She Says That Anarchy Does Not Teach Men to Commit Acts Like That Which Has Made the Buffalo Assassins Hated and Despised the World Over—She Denies Any Previous Knowledge of the Crime and States That She Came to Chicago to Secure Bail for the Isaaks if Possible.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Chicago, Sept. 10.—Emma Goldman, the woman anarchist, whose speeches, it is said, prompted Czolgosz to attempt the assassination of President McKinley, was arrested here about noon today. Her manner was defiant when she was led into the office of Chief of Police O'Neill. She disclaimed all knowledge of Czolgosz and his crime, admitting only that she met him with her mother and a few words with her. "Do you know that Czolgosz asserts your words stirred him to shoot the president?" she was asked. "I do not; I never advocated violence. I scarcely knew the man. I was leaving for Rochester, via Buffalo, when Czolgosz had a few words with me. He said he had heard me lecture at some memorial hall in Cleveland last May, and that he wanted to know me. He said he knew I was in Chicago and looked me up. I scarcely remember anything about him save that his complexion was light." "Then how do you know that this man is the one who tried to kill the president?" "Oh," she replied, with a shrug of the shoulders, "I guessed that from what the newspapers say."

MR. GAGE ACTS PROMPTLY

The Secretary of the Treasury Has Authorized the Purchase of $20,000,000 of Bonds.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. New York, Sept. 10.—The following official announcement by Secretary Gage was received by telegraph this afternoon at the sub-treasury: The secretary of the treasury hereby gives notice that he will receive and tender proposals for the sale to government on account of the sinking fund of United States government bonds, to wit: 100,000 of 4 per cent. bonds, loan of 1891, and 3 per cent. bonds, loan of 1891, to an amount not exceeding $20,000,000. Proposals should be submitted to the secretary by letter or telegraph not later than Thursday, the 13th inst. Any bonds accepted to be promptly delivered at the United States sub-treasury in New York or to the treasury department at Washington. The right to reject any or all proposals is expressly reserved. This was supplemented by the following letter to Frederick D. Tappan, chairman of the Clearing House committee, in reply to his request of yesterday: Recognizing the unfavorable influence upon business affairs of a continued absorption into the public treasury of revenue beyond expenditures, I have directed that incoming internal revenue receipts be placed with national bank depositaries until a balance with cash is reached equal to the par value of the bonds held as security from such depositaries. This will divert about five millions from the treasury vaults. The secretary will today "float" proposals for the sale to the government of $20,000,000 of United States bonds other than the new 2s. It is believed that these steps will obviate the otherwise possible disturbances which are pointed out in your telegram of yesterday.

CONFIDENCE STRENGTHENED.

This offer on the part of the treasury was quickly circulated in Wall street and added materially to the confidence which conservative bankers have all along maintained in the money situation. Mr. Tappan's telegram sent to Mr. Gage yesterday calling his attention to the unexpected absorption of money by the treasury and the heavy demands of currency for the crop movement, was criticized in some quarters, but the result has proved that it was a wise move on the part of the clearing house committee. The secretary also added in his telegram what he stated to Mr. Tappan, that he had directed that internal revenue receipts be deposited with national bank depositaries up to the par value of all bonds deposited, exceeding the 2 per cent. bonds. This will, it is estimated, release about $5,000,000. As soon as the secretary's offer became known there was quite a scramble for United States bonds. The secretary's purchases, at current rates, of the 4s of 1867, the 4s of 1891 and the 3s of 1891 have been so far comparatively meagre, and it was thought that the secretary might under the circumstances raise the bid for these classes. Mr. Gage has, however, adopted a different method. He asks the public to make offers for the whole six classes of bonds outstanding.

EMMA BREAKS DOWN.

Miss Goldman was taken from the chief of police to the woman's annex of the Harrison street station, where she will spend the night. She appeared to be in a state of distress. She recovered quickly and by the time her foot touched the carriage step she was again Emma Goldman, the high priestess of anarchism.

BOMBHELL IN COURT.

Grand Jury to Investigate Atlantic City License Violators.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Atlantic City, Sept. 10.—Supreme Court Justice Hendrickson exploded a bomb shell in court today when he charged the grand jury on the Sunday opening question. He stated that it was the duty to investigate the alleged barter and sale of licenses by certain members of city councils, that the saloon and hotel men should be indicted for persistently violating the Sunday laws, also that the mayor and chief of police could be indicted for misdemeanor for not carrying out the order of the court in failing to suppress the Sunday disorders.

YUSHAWICZ CONVICTED.

The Duryea Saloonkeeper Found Guilty of Manslaughter.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Wilkes-Barre, Sept. 10.—In court today Joseph Yushawicz, a saloonkeeper of Duryea, was convicted of manslaughter for the killing of Martin Lawley. The latter was a distributor in Yushawicz's saloon, when the proprietor shot him. Counsel for the prisoner expected a verdict of acquittal. It is thought the attempted assassination of the president by a countryman of the prisoner influenced the jury in its verdict.
