W. W. WESTON DEAD.

Well-Known Citizen of Honesdale Expires in a Bath Room.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Honesdale, Sept. 10.-Honesdale peopie were shocked this morning on learning of the death of Mr. W. W. Weston, As Mr. Weston did not appear at breakfast as usual, members of his family went to his room to call him. They were surprised to find that he had not occupied his hed during the night. He was found in the bath room, in the clothing worn the day before, cold in death. He had evidently entered the bath room before disrobing to retire for the night, and was stricken down with apoplexy without a moment's warning. Mr. Watson was about town on Monday, transacting business as usual. He left the office of E. C. Mumford at 6 p. m. He was making arrangements to meet parties on Tuesday, who are negotiating to open the Tracyville Glass works. Mrs. W. W. Weston was at Crystal lake. Deceased was born at Ellenville, N. Y., November 7, 1827. In 1849 he began business in Honesdale, and had been actively engaged since that time. He is survived by his wife, two daughters and three sons, Mrs. L. Spragle, of Gloversville, N. Y., Mrs. H. S. Battin, of Philadelphia; William, at home; Charles F., of Gloversville George C., of Philadelphia.

PITTSTON.

Special to the Scrapton Tribune.

Pittsten, Sept. 10 .- A brilliant social event opening the season here was the Blue dance of the Corinthia club, an organization composed of popular young men about this city, in Keystone hall this evening. Over 150 couples were in attendance from all nearby cities and towns. The music for the dance was furnished by the Elite orchestra of this city. The spacious dance hall was profuse in elaborate decorations that far eclipsed anything ever before attempted here in that line.

Work is being pushed rapidly on the completion of the People's telephone between Pittston and Kingston on the west side of the river. The wires have been all strung and it is expected the line will be in operation tomorrow or the next day. When completed it will give the People's company a sixteen wire service between Pittston and Wilkes-Barre.
