

WEST SCRANTON

PAN-AMERICAN EISTEDDFOD

WILL BE HELD ONE WEEK FROM TODAY.

Local Singers Manifest But Little Interest in It—Other Musical Festivals During the Coming Season. New Driving Park and Bowling Alleys Future Possibilities—Farewell Reception This Evening. Runaway Boy Returned—Other Events of Interest.

Our local singers all seem to have lost sight of the fact that the Pan-American eisteddfod of "Welsh Day" will occur one week from today, when $1,000 will be offered in prizes on vocal competitions. No effort has been made to organize a choir, and it is doubtful if any of our soloists will even participate in the events—at least, so far as is known, none of them have signified their intentions of doing so. The event will, doubtless, attract widespread attention, as it has been quite extensively advertised in the Welsh papers. The adjudicators will be William Amundson, of Chicago; Edward Broome, of Montreal; and John Lamb, of Buffalo. The resident of the morning session will be D. Rhodys Davies, of Allegheny; afternoon, Hon. Ellis H. Roberts, of Washington, and in the evening, General Thomas A. James, of New York, will preside. The chief competition will be for mixed choirs of not less than 25 nor over 50 voices on "God So Loved the World" and "We Never Will Grow Old." The first prize is $400, and the second $100. The male chorus will be on "Songs of the Pilgrims" for prizes of $100 and $75. The female chorus competition will be on "The Lullaby" and "Bridal of the Birds" for prizes of $100 and $75. A prize of $25 will be offered for the soprano solo, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," and $10 will also be given for the contralto solo, "He Was Despised." Similar prizes are offered on the tenor solo, "In Native Worth," and the bass solo, "How Heavenly in Fulfillment Glory Shine." The leader of each winning choir will receive a silver loving cup. The William Connell Anthracite Club discussed the advisability of entering the male chorus competition, but abandoned the idea as they are booked to compete at an eisteddfod in Poultney, Vermont, on Sept. 28. They have also arranged to give a concert.

The annual eisteddfod of the Bellevue Biblical and Literary society will be held on Christmas Day at the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church. It might be suggested to the committee that the event be held in some place larger than the church, as last year the attendance was so large that those who did attend were uncomfortable by reason of the crush. There is no doubt that such an event will attract a much larger attendance if it is held up town or in the central city. The programme for this eisteddfod was printed recently, and applications for it can be sent to B. T. James, secretary, 28 Storrs avenue. An eisteddfod will also be held at the Bellevue on Thanksgiving Day. Three sessions will be held, and Hon. H. M. Edwards has been invited to act as conductor of the day. The chief choral competition will be on "The Heavens Telling," for a prize of $250, for a choir of not less than 100 or more than 125 voices. The secretary of this eisteddfod is Arch Johnson, of 1912 North Main avenue. Prof. Hayden Evans, of the Scranton College of Music, has been selected as adjudicator of the Welsh eisteddfod, which will be held on Dec. 21 and Jan. 1 next. A prize of $200 will be given for a mixed choir of sixty voices on "Hallelujah to the Father," and $200 for a male party of thirty-five voices on "The Druids." A prize of $50 will also be given for a male party on "The Bequeathed" and $50 for a female chorus on "Lullaby" and "Bridal of the Birds."

All these events should be of interest to our music-loving people, but comparatively few are yet aroused to the old-time enthusiasm. A large chorus of local singers will participate in the Temperance reunion at Nay Aug park tomorrow afternoon.

Lowry, Fred Viget, Elburn Harding, and Arthur Reese. A birthday party was tendered Master Edgar Oliver, of Hampton street, on Tuesday afternoon. Among the little folks who enjoyed the event were Margaret Oliver, May Anthony, David Anthony, Howard and Benjamin Maschal, Bert and Alfred Oliver.

The sixteenth birthday anniversary of Miss Mattie Wagstaff was observed at the home recently by a number of her young friends. She was presented with a parlor lamp by the guests. Mrs. Malberger of North Main avenue, entertained the members of Branch 623, L. C. R. A., at her home on North Main avenue, yesterday afternoon and evening, at 2001. There were a large number of others in attendance.

The second supper at the home of Mrs. S. Jacobs on Lafayette street last evening was attended by the Knights of Malta was attended by another large crowd, and the event was a social and financial success.

This evening a farewell reception will be tendered William T. Burall at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church. For about ten years Mr. Burall has been one of the most active and faithful young men in the church. For the past three years he has been superintendent of the Bible school. Here is the programme for this evening: Selection, orchestra; opening remarks; dict. Misses Saylor and Jones; reading of resolutions; address, Prof. Stone; solo, Miss Lydia Saylor; remarks, Mr. Burall; selection, orchestra; refreshments. A social will follow, with refreshments, in the church parlors, to which members of the congregation, Bible school and their friends are cordially invited.

The meeting for the purpose of electing a successor to Mr. Burall as superintendent has been postponed until next Wednesday evening.

Wedding Announcements. Louis Hoffman, of Hampton mines, and Miss Maud Fairfield, of Dunmore, were united in matrimony last evening at 8:30 o'clock at the parsonage of the Jackson Street Baptist church by the pastor, Rev. Thomas de Gruchy. They will reside in West Scranton.

Gwynn Madlock, of Washburn street, and Miss Margaret Davis, of Eyon street, will be united in marriage on Wednesday, October 2. David James, of Division street, shipping clerk at the Penn Store company, and Miss May Williams, of Wilkes-Barre, were united in matrimony at the home of the bride's parents on Tuesday evening. They will reside at 1618 Lafayette street.

New Driving Park. One of the possibilities of the near future is a driving park and athletic field for West Scranton, which will be controlled by the newly organized West Side Driving Club. Surveyors are now at work staking out a twenty-acre tract of land in a suitable location, which will not be made public for the present.

The club has an option on the tract, and when it is leased, a grand stand will be erected, stables will be built and a base ball ground laid out. It is expected the park will be a reality next year.

New Bowling Alleys. The prospects for the erection of bowling alleys in the Electric City Wheelmen's club house during the coming season is exceedingly bright, and nearly all the money needed to insure the alleys has been pledged. With this addition and the enrollment of a representative class of business and professional men in the club, the officers expect to make it a representative club in every sense of the word. The club quarters are admirably located, and they afford every facility for pleasure and enjoyment during leisure hours.

Runaway Boy Returned. John O'Brien, aged 11 years, who escaped from St. Patrick's orphanage about a month ago, was caught by Patrolman Klau Peters yesterday and returned to the institution. He had been loafing around the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western round-house and had injured his foot by stepping on a nail.

Events of the Evening. An adjourned regular meeting of the West Side Central Republican club will be held at the rooms this evening. Every member is requested to attend. The Tailroad Auxiliary of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church will hold an ice cream social this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Burrus, 520 North Lincoln avenue, for the benefit of the Simpson Mortgage fund.

The Jolly Three Social club will conduct a dance this evening in the new Washington Hall on North Main avenue. A regular meeting of Washington camp No. 178, P. O. S. of A., will be held this evening in their new lodge rooms. The Electric City Wheelmen will conduct their first informal dance of the season at the club house on Jackson street this evening.

Other Events of Interest. The Colonial club of the P. O. S. of A., have selected the following officers to conduct their affairs: President, George H. Pfeiffer; vice-president, David R. Harris; secretary, John Mullen; treasurer, James A. Evans; sergeant-at-arms, Hugh Thomas. The club will hold a social on Friday evening, September 20. The local corps of the Salvation Army will conduct open air meetings at Nay Aug park next Sunday afternoon, and in the evening Ensign Lentz will lecture at the hall on Price street on the subject, "Found Dead in the Streets."

David J. Davis, the North Main avenue blind man, who lost his sight while at work in the mines a number of years ago, has purchased a new patent carpet-weaving machine, and will take this means of earning a living and supporting his family.

Mrs. John Stevens, of Lincoln Heights, is spending a few days with her mother at Freehold. The funeral of the late William Phillips will take place tomorrow afternoon.

A SENSIBLE MAN Would use Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup and all Throat and Lung Troubles, than any other medicine. The proprietor has authorized any druggist to give you a Sample Bottle Free to convince you of the merit of this great remedy. Price 50c and 25c.

noon. Services will be held at the home of his parents on Peitbone street, and interment will be in the Washburn street cemetery. Thomas Larkin, of West Lackawanna avenue, a student at Niagara university, has returned home for school to resume his studies.

Mrs. Timlin, of North Lincoln avenue, is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Donaldson, of Philadelphia. Misses Mary and Harriet Eagan, of Chestnut street, have returned home from a visit with their father, E. M. Eagan, at Lebanon, Pa.

Miss Grace Hammett, of Lake Winola, has returned home from a visit with her mother, on Hampton street. Miss Laura O'Malley, of Lincoln Heights, is the guest of relatives in Boston, Mass.

Miss Irene Taylor has returned to her home in Hopkinton, after a visit with her cousin, Miss Mattie Wagstaff, of Division street. Mrs. William Hughes, of Pittston, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howell Morgan, of Fourteenth street. Joseph Laagan, of Hampton street, is convalescing, after a long illness.

Miss Margaret Thomas and brother, Morgan, of Division street, are spending a few days at Lake Umbagog. Richard Major and daughter, of North Rebecca avenue, are enjoying the sights at the Pan-American exposition.

Will Dietl has resumed his position in Morgan Thomas' grocery store, after an illness due to an injury. Mrs. Saltzman and son, of North Fairfield avenue, are sojourning at Lake Umbagog for a few days. Peter Astringer, of Hampton street, is confined to his home with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

William Dugger, of Back street, sprained his ankle while at work in the Bellevue mines on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. William Hatch, of South Hyde Park avenue, are spending a week at Buffalo, the exposition and Niagara Falls. Mr. and Mrs. James Hayward have taken possession of a house on Rock street.

Mrs. Evan L. Evans, of Thirteenth street, is suffering from a severe cold, which she received recently. Miss Mabel Miller, of North Summer street, has returned home from a visit with friends in New York and Brooklyn. Mr. and Mrs. George Becker, of Fifteenth street, are entertaining Misses Minnie and Louise Bowden, of Greensburg, Pa.

Miss Margaret Durkin, of Luzerne street, has returned home from an enjoyable vacation trip to Atlantic City. Mrs. John H. Kelly, of Eyon street, is convalescing, after an illness. Miss M. Richards, of North Lincoln avenue, has returned home from a two weeks' visit with relatives at Moscow.

Miss W. C. Ace, of South Lincoln avenue, has been confined to her home for several days with a gathered foot. George Robertson, of North Rebecca avenue, is seriously ill with an attack of typhoid-pneumonia. Mrs. Evelyn Davis, of Eyon street, suffers from nervous prostration at her home.

The Swedish Citizens' club held a meeting in the French Roof hall last evening to discuss several matters of interest to the members. The St. Columba lodge of Odd Fellows met in Masonic hall last evening and transacted secret work of the order. Miss Bertha Drew, of Plymouth, is the guest of Miss Miss Davis, of South Main avenue.

Miss Anna Lewis, of South Main avenue, is visiting at Wyoming and Wilkes-Barre. Mrs. Lenning and son, of Pottsville, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Morgan, 22 Storrs avenue. Miss William South, of South Main avenue, has returned home from Bloomsburg, where he has been playing on a team of college players.

NORTH SCRANTON. The Keystone Literary and Dramatic club gave their annual banquet and entertainment in the Auditorium last night. The affair was opened up by a short address by M. J. Gerrity, president of the club, followed by a solo by William A. Lynton, and a piano solo by Miss Edith Sawyer. Miss Anna Griffin recited several selections, and Patrick Moran also recited. A song and dance was rendered by John Skiffington and Thomas Evans, followed by a closing address by G. J. Weather. The hall was beautifully decorated with bunting, flags and palms. P. H. Durkin, the central city caterer, served the supper.

The Cracker-Jacks and Defenders of South Scranton will play basket ball at the Auditorium tomorrow evening. William Jones, of Throop street, was arrested last evening by Patrolman Thomas at the former's home. He was charged with pointing firearms at his brother. He was given a hearing by Alderman Fidler and committed to jail for twenty days. Miss Dora Davis, of West Market street, left for Arvon, Wayne county, yesterday.

The greatest attractions of the North End are the handsome decorated windows of Miller's store. The decorations were made by W. Mott, the window trimmer. The decoration is a representation of the electric tower which is such an attraction at the Pan-American. The tower is made of beautiful white handkerchiefs, behind which are several small incandescent lights, which make a very handsome appearance at night. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Church, of North Main avenue, have returned home, after spending six weeks at Pleasant View farm, near Fleetville, Pa. Mrs. D. G. Fowler and daughter, Dorothy, of Church avenue, have returned home from Elmira, N. Y. Miss Mary Gerrity, of Wayne avenue, is visiting friends at Syracuse, N. Y. Miss Mary Gerber, of Wayne P. H. avenue, is visiting friends at Nanticoke.

GREEN RIDGE. The case brought before Alderman Bailey by O. W. Freeman, Tuesday evening, for loss of fruit and damage to vines, was settled last night by the parents of the boys paying costs. Many of the Green Ridge merchants are badly crippled in their business because of the epidemic prevalent among the horses. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hitchcock, of Monroeville, are spending a fortnight in New York city. James Pike, who was a prominent Green Ridge merchant in the early twenties, now in one of the government departments at Washington, D. C.

Swell Hosiery For the Smart Set. It will be in one of our windows this afternoon and for the balance of the week. We'd like you to take a passing look at it. Of course, the assortment shown there is far from complete, but what is lacking in the window show will be found on exhibition in the department where hundreds of styles, colors, makes, patterns, etc., await your inspection, if you have time to look over them all.

A Word on Hosiery Fashions. Stripes, of course, have first call—vertical or circular stripes, in all the colors of the rainbow, or toned down to the soft tints of a fading twilight, and all the variations existing between these two extremes, on black, navy, green, pink, blue, violet, cardinal, rose, steel, fawn, tan and other colored grounds. Drop stitches, fine delicate lace effects, new insertions, broad ribs, fine ribs, combinations of all sorts, and fine gauge plain weaves give a hint at the makes you may look for.

The materials include the best Spun Silks, Extra Quality Lisle Thread, Beautiful Mercerized Goods, Fine Cashmeres, Egyptian Cotton Yarns, Etc., Etc. They're all of the best, and in most cases include extra sizes if you want them.

The Hosiery Show This Year is Well Worth a Look. Choice of Window Display from 50 Cents to $2.50 the Pair.
