The Work Was Not Completed Until a Late Hour—Races in 2:27 Class and Free for All—Three Foot Races Between Amateurs Attracted a Good Deal of Attention. Other Fair Notes.

Maitland Park, Wallingford, Sept. 13.—Bright, sunny skies and a balmy breeze brought a large throng of spectators and pleasure seekers to the pleasantly located grounds of the Maitland Fair and Driving Park Society today. By 2 o'clock there were at least from 5,000 to 8,000 persons within the enclosure and every one of them seemed happy and enjoying the fair to the utmost extent.

At noon a mild sensation was caused by the air becoming filled with a white, airy substance which the unsophisticated city folk declared with much conviction was a flurry of snow, but the knowing farmers smiled quietly and pointed to a field outside the grounds filled with "dewweed," the downy buds of which were being scattered by the strong western wind.

The directors shut down on some of the gambling games after dinner. These past were about in abundance, and as soon as their dealers were driven from one location they would open up in another.

The family parties enjoying a day's outing on the hillside of old Benton township, 1,200 feet above the sea, added to the attractiveness of the charming scene spread out in vivid beauty from the high grand stand. For many miles blue and green mountains rose nestled lovingly against the horizon, and an unobstructed view through the clear autumn atmosphere well repaid the pilgrims for their long trip to reach the park.

Familiar Faces.

Many familiar faces from Scranton and Carbondale were seen on every side and in every group. To enumerate them would be simply to take up much precious space, for lovers of fine horseflesh and of nature are many in these two cities of Lackawanna county.

The judges of the various departments of exhibits in which cash prizes were the incentives for display, did not finish up their work until a late hour. County Surveyor George E. Stevenson of Waverly was the official most in demand when a helping hand was needed, and to him should be given credit for making this part of the fair the most successful. He was also a large exhibitor in many lines, his well-kept exhibits in special showing up remarkably well. He is one of the pioneers in this section in breeding polo Holskaters and has met with great success in his experiments.

Little Frances Margaret Smith, the daughter of the general secretary of the association, had a specimen of her skill in needlework on show. She is but six years old, but took her prize for cross-stitching on canvas, her gift being a sofa pillow on which she had worked in worsted black letters, "Maitland Driving Park and Fair Company, 1901."

A list of prize winners will appear in Monday's Tribune.

The Races.

The horses were signalled to get ready at 2 o'clock for the first race, a trot and race for the 2:27 class, with a purse of $125. There was an entry list of eight, but only half of this number started. The officials of racing were James Kelly, Dunmore, starter; Harry W. Seaman, of Factoryville, and Thurston Parker, of Clark's Summit, judges; W. S. Robinson, of Clifford, and Harry Miller, of Waverly, timekeepers; W. C. Smith, clerk. The horses' drivers drew positions as follows: Cedella got the pole; Post Haste, second; Frances J. next, and Major 8, on the outside. It was announced from the judges stand by Mr. Kelly that Frank G. Hannis had paid up the fine inflicted by the N. A. T., and had been reinstated in good standing. It was privately stated that Mr. Hannis had paid was $15.24.

It was 2:30 when the horses were ready to start. The summary:

Table with columns for race names, horses, and times. Includes races like '2:27 class, mares, $125' and 'Eastern Pennsylvanian'. Summary: Post Haste, Cedella, Major 8, Frances J.

PRESIDENT M'KINLEY SUCCUMBS WITH CHRISTIAN BRAVERY

offices, but all would waive their personal desires and continue until such time as they could be relieved easily, if, indeed, they request relief at all. Under the presidential succession act a cabinet member, chief magistrate would have to summon congress in special session, but this requirement does not apply to a vice president succeeding to the office of his dead predecessor and, it is believed, no extra session would be called in the absence of statutory requirement, as the three months intervening until December can be bridged over without difficulty and there is no special occasion for congress assembling.

In many of the local churches today men and women assembled for quiet prayer that the life of the president might be spared. The largest of these meetings were held at the Metropolitan Methodist church, where the president and Mrs. McKinley worshipped. Here many women offered earnest prayers that the life of the president might be spared. A number of them quietly told of pretty incidents on the part of the president that they had witnessed and dwelt especially on his love for his children. "Do you remember children's day?" said one of the Sunday school teachers, "when he invited the little boys who could not find seats to come to his pew? They were so proud and happy."

"They say just a little while before he was shot," broke in another, "he had shaken hands and spoken the kindest words to some little children." "These incidents," after incident blurring the kindness, the love, the charity, the religion of the president was recalled by the little group of women standing around his empty pew.

PHYSICIANS WANT AN AUTOPSY HELD

The Queer Action of the Hear, During the Long Vigil Causes Professional Curiosity.

By Baltimore Wire from The Associated Press. Michigan House, Buffalo, Sept. 14.—It is almost certain that an autopsy on the president's body will be held to determine the exact cause of death. This is the wish of all the surgeons and physicians who were in attendance. The peculiar action of the president's heart was more of a puzzle to them all, and Dr. McBurney expressed the opinion that in the interest of science, as well as in the interest of the government and the world, it was desirable to have a complete autopsy. He determined, therefore, that the president's heart should be removed, and that the autopsy should be held as soon as possible.

COMMENTS ON THE PRESIDENT'S DEATH

Former President Cleveland Expresses His Regret—Other Notable Expressions of Grief.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Princeton, N. J., Sept. 13.—Ex-President Cleveland, when told of President McKinley's serious illness, said: "This is a very sorrowful news." When asked if he would say something regarding the president, he replied that he thought it would be out of place to say anything at present.

TO PROTECT CZOLGOSZ.

The Guard About His Prison Will Be Doubled.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Buffalo, Sept. 13.—The guard of the prisoner at police headquarters will be immediately restored to its original proportions. It can be said that Czolgosz will be protected from any mob whatever will be taken. Force will be used to disperse any crowd which may assemble. The Sixty-fifth and Seventy-fourth regiments of the National Guard have been assembled in the barracks to be ready in case the large crowd assembled about police headquarters makes any hostile demonstration. There has been no indication of a disposition on the part of the crowd to riot, and the assembling of the National Guard is simply a precautionary measure.

HOW THE SAD NEWS WAS RECEIVED

Threats Made in Chicago Against the Imprisoned Anarchist but No Act of Mob Violence.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Chicago, Sept. 13.—The city not only in those parts near the Milburn house, but all over and even out in the expedition grounds, went into a state of ferment when the news of the sudden collapse of the president was announced. The rioting that broke out here had been somewhat softened by the afternoon announcement that there was a slight improvement and the sudden announcement of his approaching dissolution came as a great surprise.

SHE IS SORRY ONLY FOR MRS. M'KINLEY

Emma Goldman Has No Sympathy Outside of That—Looks Only at the Consequences to Herself.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Chicago, Sept. 13.—When shown the Associated Press dispatch announcing the inevitable death of the president, Emma Goldman, the anarchist, now being held at the Harrison street station, carefully adjusted her glasses, read the bulletin and, after a moment's pause, without a change of expression, said: "Absolutely no shade of regret or pity showed itself upon her countenance.

CHICAGO ANARCHISTS AND HABEAS CORPUS

Criminal Court Judge Chatelain Hears Arguments but Adjourns His Decision Until Morning.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Chicago, Sept. 13.—Judge Chatelain in the criminal court today listened for two hours to arguments of counsel in the hearing on the petition for a writ of habeas corpus for the anarchists under arrest here. At 1:30 p. m. a recess till 10 a. m. tomorrow was taken without any decision having been reached.

CHICAGO ANARCHISTS AND HABEAS CORPUS

Criminal Court Judge Chatelain Hears Arguments but Adjourns His Decision Until Morning. Chicago, Sept. 13.—Chicago was quiet all evening. Around all the bulletin boards in different parts of the city large crowds gathered to get the latest news of the president's condition. There were many expressions of deep feeling against the murderer and not a few were leveled at the anarchists confined in the county jail here and toward Miss Goldman who is held in the annex of the Harrison police station. There were no speeches but the crowds, particularly in the downtown districts, were in a dangerous temper, and had any of the right to hold the anarchists as a precautionary measure, even though evidence was lacking to convict them of any crime, Counsel for the city admitted that there was no evidence to justify the detentions from the world-wide moment of the case.

TO CLOSE UP THE BIG STEEL STRIKE

Proposals for a Settlement Under Consideration in New York—The Joliet Strike Is Called Off.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. New York, Sept. 13.—It was learned today from reliable quarters that proposals for a settlement of the steel strike are again under consideration in this city. It was also stated that President Shaffer is expected here today or tomorrow, but that his coming is not the result of any communication from this city.

Joliet, Ill., Sept. 13.—Although not officially sanctioned by a joint conference of the lodges, the steel strike at Joliet is at an end. An order from President Shaffer is on the way, declaring the strike here off. The order will not reach here until late tonight or early tomorrow morning to reach the action of President Shaffer. In the meantime the mills started up at 2 o'clock this afternoon and many of the strikers already have gone to work. Others will go on with additional terms, and several departments will be put in operation as speedily as possible.

Pittsburg, Sept. 13.—The absence of President Shaffer from Amalgamated headquarters was noted this morning when the day passed and he did not appear the report that he was in New York was received from several good sources. The officials of the organization declined to discuss the strike in any form, and said they did not know where Mr. Shaffer was, but was learned tonight that President Shaffer, with several of his advisers, took the 10 p. m. train for New York, presumably under an arrangement with these efforts. Until the result is known, no developments are expected in the strike situation.

JUDGE TORRANCE G. A. R. COMMANDER

Beats General Stewart Two to One on First Ballot After General Sicles Had Withdrawn.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Cleveland, Sept. 13.—Judge E. L. Torrance, of Minneapolis, was unanimously elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic at today's session of the annual convention. The withdrawal of General Sicles, of New York, withdrew from the fight, leaving the field to Stewart and Torrance. The Western man had been quietly gaining in strength on his own personality since the opening of the convention. The withdrawal of Sicles also threw a heavy vote to Torrance, so that when the balloting commenced, the latter had a walk-over.

JUDGE TORRANCE G. A. R. COMMANDER

Beats General Stewart Two to One on First Ballot After General Sicles Had Withdrawn. The balloting stood 230 to 475 in favor of Torrance, while General Sicles, who had the Stewart interests in hand, moved to make Torrance's election unanimous. The election of officers was the only business before the convention today, all business being referred to the permanent committee, having been referred to the council of administration.

JUDGE TORRANCE G. A. R. COMMANDER

Beats General Stewart Two to One on First Ballot After General Sicles Had Withdrawn. The unfavorable news regarding the condition of the president cast a decided gloom over the convention. There was a manifest disinclination to transact any business while the death of the chief executive seemed imminent. Consequently the election of officers was postponed until the 15th annual convention of the Grand Army of the Republic abruptly terminated.
