

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

MONTRÖSE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Montröse, Sept. 15.—Today all Montröse sits in sackcloth and ashes. The town is draped in the sombre emblems of mourning, while in strong grief, gentle women and innocent children tell of the poignant, inexpressible grief brought to each heart by the death of the late President McKinley.

On account of the death of President McKinley the Susquehanna team that the game of ball scheduled for that place was off but that they would be ready to try conclusions with Susquehanna at a later date. This decision met with the approval of Susquehanna.

W. LeGrande Sturcell and family, of New York city, are visiting friends in this place. Mr. Sturcell formerly resided here and has many friends who are glad of the opportunity of again clapping hands with him.

Elder F. S. Wells, delegate, and Elder A. J. Browner, alternate, will represent the Presbyterian church of this place at the stated meeting of the Presbytery of Lackawanna, to open in the Presbyterian church at Honesdale tomorrow.

Stetson's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company is billed to appear at Village Hall in this place, on Sept. 23.

Ralph MacLean and sister, Frances, of Wilkes-Barre, are guests at the home of Mrs. James Aitken, on South Main street.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Halsey are visiting relatives residing near Buffalo, and will attend the Pan-American exposition before returning home.

Roy A. L. Benton, D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian church, is taking his annual vacation. Dr. and Mrs. Benton are now at Fredonia, N. Y., where they formerly resided, and later will visit a number of different points in New York state.

FOREST CITY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Forest City, Sept. 16.—Burgess Dwyer has issued the following proclamation: "Whereas, Our late beloved president, William McKinley, who died at the hand of an assassin, is to be buried at Canton, Ohio, on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and believing that the citizens, regardless of religious convictions or political affiliations, are desirous of showing their respect and love for him and their sympathy for his bereaved wife and our stricken country, I do hereby request that all business and work be suspended on Thursday, Sept. 19, from 2 until 4 p. m. That all citizens drap their homes and places of business, and that all citizens, over 16 years of age, assemble at the opera house at 2 p. m., for fitting memorial services."

The council Saturday night awarded the contract to erect the borough building to Nolan & Collins, of Carbonade, for $7,745. The other bids received were as follows: J. P. Corner, Carbonade, $7,790; H. J. Buseman, Hancock, $8,194; J. E. Younger, $8,196. The contract and a bond are to be signed within three days and work will begin at once.

At all the churches yesterday the local clergy made touching reference to the untimely death of President McKinley.

Mrs. William E. Lewis died at her home on Railroad street, Saturday, after an illness with cancer. The family moved here from Nanticoke less than a year ago. She was 46 years old and a highly estimable woman. Besides her husband, two daughters, Mrs. John P. Evans, of Albany, N. Y., and MOTHER GOOSE PUZZLE.

There was an old man of Tobago, Who lived on rice, gruel and sago, Till, much to his bliss, His physician said this: "To a leg, sir, of mutton, you may go."

Mrs. Arthur Davis, of Providence, survives her. The remains will be taken to Nanticoke for interment Tuesday morning. The services will be conducted at the house.

HONESDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Honesdale, Sept. 16.—The Lackawanna Presbytery is in session here to continue until Thursday. The business or day sessions are held in the chapel, and evening meetings in the Presbyterian church. The citizens, regardless of religious convictions or political affiliations, are desirous of showing their respect and love for him and their sympathy for

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.
New York, Sept. 16.—A rampant bull stock market on the part of the trading following the death by assassination of the president of the United States was an anomaly. No one, even the most sanguine, was prepared for the action of the day's capital markets. The confidence seemed to demonstrate a strong underlying confidence in the future of business and the continuance of the country's prosperity.
