TO HONOR THE STRICKEN CHIEF

BIG MEMORIAL MEETING TOMORROW NIGHT.

Details Are Being Arranged by a Committee of Clergymen and Laymen—Meetings Will Be Held in Armory, and Will Be Non-Partisan and Unsectarian—Bishop Hoban and Recorder Connell to Speak. There Will Be a General Observation of the Day.

The civic and religious sentiment of the people of this city in this hour of the nation's sorrow is to be expressed tomorrow night at a great meeting to be held in the spacious new armory.

The general sentiment of the citizens of the city seemed to be so strongly in favor of having a general public meeting in honor of the martyred president, that several of the leading clergymen of the city met yesterday morning at St. Luke's parish house and began the work of arranging for such a gathering.

The clergymen who met together were: Rev. Dr. Rogers Israel, rector of St. Luke's church; Rev. J. A. O'Reilly, rector of St. Peter's cathedral; Rev. Dr. C. E. Robinson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church; Rev. Dr. Robert P. Y. Pierce, pastor of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, and Rev. E. B. Singer, assistant pastor of the Elm Park Methodist Episcopal church.

These clergymen, after electing Dr. Israel as chairman, decided to call to their assistance a lay committee consisting of Captain Dolph B. Atherton, Colonel Herman Osthaus and A. B. Stevens. This committee will have charge of the arrangements at the armory, such as seating accommodations and decorating, while the committee of clergymen will arrange the order of exercises and other details.

SCHOOLS TO CLOSE.

Secretary E. D. Fellows, of the school board, yesterday sent out a circular letter to the principals of all the public schools, notifying them of the action of the board in ordering the schools closed on Thursday and requesting them to see that the schools are opened promptly at the usual hour on that day and that brief appropriate exercises be gone through with before dismissing the pupils.

Prof. Joslin, principal of the high school, is having a thousand copies of the book "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Lead Kindly Light," printed and will have them sung on Thursday morning in the auditorium. Brief addresses are to be made by Superintendent of Schools Howell and Chairman J. Jennings, of the high and training committee.

President Chittenden, of the select council, yesterday directed City Clerk Lavelle to announce to the members that the regular meeting of the council, which was to have been held tomorrow night would not be held till the night of Tuesday, September 24.

The following letter has been sent to all the Catholic priests of the Scranton diocese:

Rev. Dear Sir:

Even if the president and the governor had not requested us to meet on Thursday next, it would be our duty to meet on that day, for sorrow, come together in our various churches and pray that God might comfort us in our affliction, protect our country and bless our people.

You will therefore invite your congregation to attend mass at 10 o'clock, and to the prayer of the mass of the day you will add the Collect—"The Mass of the Day of the Late President," which you will also read and pray that God might comfort us in our affliction, protect our country and bless our people.

You will therefore invite your congregation to attend mass at 10 o'clock, and to the prayer of the mass of the day you will add the Collect—"The Mass of the Day of the Late President," which you will also read and pray that God might comfort us in our affliction, protect our country and bless our people.

Schools should be dismissed and proper emblems of mourning be displayed on house and school. By order of

Rev. Dr. M. J. Hoban, Bishop of Scranton.

Rev. John J. Griffin, Chancellor.

In compliance with the president's proclamation, a union memorial service in honor of our deceased president will be held in Elm Park church on Thursday morning at 10:30. Dr. Pierce, of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, will preach. Dr. Robertson and other clergymen are to participate in the exercises. It is eminently fitting that such a religious meeting be held and it is hoped that many will join in the service.

In Calvary Reformed church, at Monroe avenue and Gibson street, Thursday night at 8 o'clock a memorial service will be conducted. Subject of the discourse, "Lessons from the Life of Our Late President, William McKinley." All members of patriotic organizations are invited, together with the general public.

Colonel Fitzhugh will have charge of the English services. Text, "Thy Will Be Done." All are cordially invited.

DEMOCRATS ARE AT SEA

MAKE-UP OF COUNTY TICKET IS STILL IN DOUBT.

Primarys Were Held Yesterday, but Only in a Few Instances Were Delegates Run in the Interest of Any Special Candidate—Make-up of the Ticket Will Depend Upon Whether or Not E. C. Newcomb Will Be a Candidate for Nomination for Judge. Convention on Friday.

Dr. J. F. Saltry had some delegates running in the city wards at the Democratic primary yesterday, and Aaron Augustus Chase stood some men in the country districts, but further than this none of the Democratic candidates concerned themselves about yesterday's primaries.

Most of the districts had elections, but in every few of them there were no contests. With very little effort any old man might have secured delegates enough to insure him of any office in the gift of the convention.

As yet there has been no slate made. The leaders are waiting on Attorney E. C. Newcomb. If he will agree to run for judge an effort will be made to induce Dr. Saltry to allow the nomination for coroner to go to some physician up the valley. Dr. Kelly, of Olyphant, being generally preferred. If Mr. Newcomb declines to enter the lists the Democratic leaders will give the nomination to the next best candidate. They feel that with Mr. Newcomb at the head of the ticket there is some hope of making a showing. Without Newcomb it is a case of "hapless cause."

IS NON-COMMITTAL.

Mr. Newcomb is still non-committal, but, according to reliable reports, he has yesterday leaning at a very decided angle towards the judicial nomination. A Tribune reporter sought to have him express himself, but the most that could be gotten out of him was that he had not yet come to a conclusion as to whether or not he would seek the office.

If he does not accept the office the nomination will go to W. A. Wilcox. A word from S. B. Price that he wants the nomination might turn all calculations topsy-turvy. It is not likely, however, that Mr. Price will be heard from on any of the other.

The nomination for county controller will go to P. W. Costello, county auditor, Patrick Blewitt, formerly city engineer, will be opposed for the nomination for county surveyor by Milton Mitchell, who was nominated by the Prohibitionists last week without consulting him.

The chances are that Newcomb, Costello, Kelly and Blewitt will be the make-up of the slate.

POSTPONED TILL FRIDAY.

The official announcement of the change of the time for holding the convention was made yesterday by the county chairman, James J. O'Neill, and is as follows:

To the Democrats of Lackawanna County.

Since the resolution of the Democratic committee fixing the date of the county convention on Thursday, Sept. 19, a calamity has fallen upon the county. The funeral of our martyred president, Hon. William McKinley, will be held on that day at the city of Scranton.

In order to give all grief-stricken citizens an opportunity to join in the universal mourning, the Democratic county convention is hereby postponed to Friday, Sept. 20, at 9 a. m., at Music Hall, in the city of Scranton.

The primaries will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 17, as heretofore ordered.

T. P. Duffy, Secretary.

EQUINE INFLUENZA.

An Epidemic of the Disease Now Prevailing Among Horses—A Veterinarian's Advice.

An epidemic of equine influenza is now prevailing among the horses of this city and is likely to prevail for some weeks to come, unless it is broken up by a cold snap.

A large number of the horses in this city are yearly afflicted with this disease during the months of September and October, but this year's outbreak is much more widespread than any which has prevailed for several years.

Dr. Jacob Helmer, the veterinarian, said last night to a Tribune man that the disease is a specific fever associated with inflammation of the membranes of the nose and throat. It is not especially serious of itself, he said, unless the specific poison of the disease affects the blood, causing a depression which sometimes predisposes to structural changes in the organs, and sometimes to death.

"From the number of cases I have so far treated this year and from conversations I have had with other veterinarians," said he, "I believe I am safe in saying that probably seventy-five per cent. of the horses in this city will be affected with the disease this year before it runs its course, unless we have a cold snap to knock it out."

The first symptoms of the disease differ in different years. Sometimes it is inflammation of the animal's eyes and sometimes a cough. This year the cough is the first symptom.

When asked to give some advice to horse owners whose horses may show symptoms of the disease, the doctor said:

"I would advise all persons having horses showing the first symptoms of the disease to administer no medicines that are weakening, if any are administered at all. It is best to keep the horse at work or to keep exercising it unless a fever sets in. A fever sets in the horse should be kept in the stable and a veterinarian should be sent for at once."

The doctor said that a large number of the horses afflicted with the disease have not beyond the first symptoms and soon recover, without having a fever at all. The doctor said that he expected the epidemic to last well into October, if the weather does not become much colder. The percentage of deaths from the disease this year is a little higher than usual, the doctor thought.

A JUVENILE PRISON.

Has Been Established by Sheriff Schadt at County Jail.

In accordance with the provisions of the law with reference to juvenile delinquency which provided that children under sixteen years of age shall not be incarcerated in the usual prison provided for law-breakers, Sheriff Schadt has set apart a portion of the county jail as a juvenile prison.

This is entirely separate from the part of the jail where grown prisoners are kept and the youths will not come in contact with them in any way. The sheriff announced yesterday that the juvenile prison is ready for use.
