MEMORIAL SERVICES

ADDITIONAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR TOMORROW.

Morning Services Will Be Held in St. David's Episcopal Church and at the First Welsh Congregational Church in the Afternoon-Boy Caught Under a Car Fender. Scalded His Sister with Boiling Grease-Shooting Match and Horse Race Has Been Postponed.

Services will be conducted in St. David'a Episcopal church tomorrow morning at 8 and 10.30 o'clock. The holy communion will be said at the first service, and the burial, followed by the office of the holy communion at the second. The choir will be present.

The memorial services at the First Welsh Congr-gational church will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow, instead of at 10 a. m., as previously announced John Walter Thomas will read a history of McKinley from the time of his birth to his inauguration as president. and William John Thomas will read a paper on the dead president's caree as chief magistrate. A prayer service will also be held in connection with the survice.

Scalded His Sister.

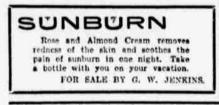

David Howell, of South Garfield ave nue, went to his home yesterday and demanded money from his sister, with which to buy drink. When refused, he seized a pan full of grease from the stove and threw it at the woman, saturating her clothing and scalding her severely.

Her screams attracted several of the neighbors, and a telephone message was sent to the station house, but when a patrolman arrived. Howell had escaped. A warrant will be sworn out for his arrest.

Two Parties.

Mrs. William Murray, of Seventeenth street, recently entertained a number of young people at a party in honor of her guest, Miss Mary Murray, of New York. Vocal and instrumental selections were rendered by a number of the guosts, and refreshments were served

Miss Neille Gerrity, of North Main avenue, also entertained her friends at her home recently after they had takher by surprise. She was assisted in entertaining by Mieses Julia Carey
