SECOND DAY OF LUZERNE FAIR

GOOD HORSE RACES AND OTHER SPECIALTIES.

Alcrane, a Bethlehem Horse, Wins First Money in the 2.18 Class, and Miss Jennie, Owned by William Mears, of Wilkes-Barre, Takes the 2.29 Race for Trotters and Pacers. Many Interesting Side Shows and Extensive Exhibits of Products of the Farm.

Special from a Staff Correspondent.

West Pittston, Sept. 18.—Two rattling good horse races, an exhibition mile paced by a "guideless wonder," and other specialties made the second day of the Luzerne county fair a very successful one from the spectators' point of view today.

The first race, a 2.18 class trot and pace, was won by Al. Crane, owned in Bethlehem; the second one, for 2.29 horses, went to Wilkes-Barre. The management of the fair instituted a new departure by paying the fortunate owners immediately after the races. It was decided today, on account of the stormy weather of the first two days, to hold the fair over on Saturday. A game of baseball between the Athletics of Pittston and the Staffords of Wilkes-Barre for a purse of $15 will be the feature.

During the races this afternoon the free stand on one of the lawns collapsed while crowded with people. Fortunately no one was injured.

The attendance at the fair today was not large—not nearly as good as the managers had reason to look for. The clouds and occasional drops of rain was probably responsible for this. The attractions set forth for the amusement and pleasure of the spectators are plentiful and good, of their kind, and there are features which should attract large audiences for the remainder of the fair days.

Of course nearly every visitor who passed inside the high-board fence surrounding the spacious and well laid-out grounds of the Luzerne County Fair association came to see the races. But while waiting for these and between the heats there were other things to see and admire and to laugh at. Side shows are plentiful. One of these is composed of a quartette of cinnamon bears, who go through a number of tricks in their uncouth, shuffling fashion under the direction of a trio of Italian trainers. Another novelty is shown by a colored man of middle age, who has two large wooden dolls, whom he calls Tom and Jerry, and by means of ventriloquism injects hearty laughs among his auditors by timely hits at local well-known characters. These two enterprises are dependent upon hat collections, as they are held in the open air.

MORE PRETENTIOUS SHOW.

A third show, more pretentious, and to which a small admission is charged, is concealed in a large tent. It consists of pictures seen through rows of spectroscopes. Under the grand stand a firm of West Pittston merchants have a display worthy of a better setting. It is an exhibit of the birds of Pennsylvania, from the eagle to the humming bird, and Campbell & Saxe, its proprietors, claim that they have on view more than one thousand mounted specimens, besides a large number of small game quadrupeds.

The main hall was well filled today with exhibits in many departments. A nice display of carriages of all kinds is made by Townend, of Wilkes-Barre. Another merchant of the Luzerne capital, Robert Ellis, has a truly artistic floral show, comprising palms, potted plants and cut flowers.

A. O. Farnham, of Exeter, Pa., has contributed so much to the agricultural section of the fair that it has been necessary for him to have a separate section in that department. His specimens of huge cabbages and turnips, celery, cucumbers, tomatoes, red and green peppers, beets, onions, rutabagas, buckwheat, field and sweet corn, sunflowers and tobacco, reflect great credit upon him as a tiller of the soil.

Solomon Lewis, of Mount Zion, also has almost an entire agricultural show by himself. He has entered over forty varieties of apples, besides apple cider, thornberries, plums, quinces, cut flowers, and chestnut burrs almost ready to open. Mr. Lewis has not all of his apples on show. He keeps several baskets of fruit in a handy place for his friends.

One of the displays which excites universal appreciation is that of Alphonso Sebest, a 14-year-old Russian-born lad, who lives at Duryea. He is an adept with his pen and has a number of splendid maps of Pennsylvania and New York, a pen-and-ink sketch of the Simpson & Watkins breaker at Duryea, one of the state capital at Albany, N. Y., and the American and British flags intertwined on the walls. With them are framed autograph letters from Governor Stone, of Pennsylvania; Governor Odell, of New York; J. A. Porter and George B. Cortelyou, private secretaries to President McKinley, acknowledging the receipt of specimens of his work and complimenting him highly upon his skill. It is said that Alphonso never had a lesson in drawing; his skill, which is wonderful, is a gift of nature.

Fire! Fire!!

When that cry sounds how people rush to help and sympathize! And when some fireman rescues a woman from the flames, the streets echo with applauding shouts.

And yet if that woman had perished in the flames it is possible that she would have suffered less than she suffers almost daily from the inflammation which disease has lighted in the delicate womanly organism.

That fire of inflammation can be put out. The gnawing ulcer can be cured. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription not only establishes womanly regularity and dries enfeebling drains, but it heals inflammation and ulcerations and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"I suffered for four years with what four physicians pronounced ulceration and prolapsus of the uterus," writes Mrs. Ada Brooks, of Kirbyville, Taney Co., Missouri. "Also inflammation of bladder and urethra. My case was chronic and complicated. Had several good physicians, but kept getting worse. Had been confined to my bed five months when I wrote to you. I received your reply very soon and then dismissed my physician and began taking Dr. Pierce's medicines. I took eight bottles of his 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and began to get better at once. In two months I could sit up in a chair, and kept getting better. In four months could do all my house work, including washing and sewing."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

PICTURE PUZZLE.

Farmer Jones has been lost at the Pan-American exposition. Can you find him?

In the domestic arts department there are many variety of canned goods, jellies, preserves, jams and pickles; besides pastry, cake, biscuits, buns, butter and hops.

In the fancy articles are displayed rugs, rag carpets, sofa cushions, crazy work of all degrees of insanity, lace work of all sorts, and everything suitable for lingerie, household decorations, and infants' wear. In this department there is a unique display made by Mrs. Vanderberg, of West Pittston. These are dolls of all sizes made entirely by hand, the bodies being fashioned from wool and silk underwear, the hair of carded yarn, and they are dressed in silks and ribbons galore.

Poultry hall is well filled, more than a hundred specimens of blooded fowl being shown in neat, well-appointed coops. These are of all kinds, from the "good layers" to the game birds, and from tiny bantams to the most lordly of Brahmas. Pigeons of a number of varieties are also on show in this hall, besides several pens of rabbits and Belgian hares.

Gentlemen with sporting blood in their veins will find opportunities in plenty for them to risk their dimes and quarters, in addition to looking at the fleet-footed, silky-coated trotters and pacers. There are two wheels of fortune and a game called "under and over seven" for them to take chances on. Burly barkers, with lungs seemingly of corrugated steel, stand in front of these games of chance and yawp and yell, their vociferous cries of "The red side wins!" or "the lucky star!" making the nature of their vocations known all through the enclosure.

The grounds and track are patrolled by special officers and all attempts at disorder are promptly squelched. The grandstand is a large one, with a row of private boxes in front. Back of the grandstand are tents, in which refreshments are served.

There are no exhibits of cattle, swine nor sheep, none having been entered. The West Pittston fair does not usually have any of these, other attractions taking their places.

The races were to be started at 2.30 o'clock. The officials in charge of the speed programme were: James Kelly, Dunmore, starter; C. H. Cotter, of West Pittston, and Dr. Porter, of Taylor, judges; S. B. Bennett, of West Pittston, and R. M. Hughes, of West Pittston, timers; clerk of course, W. E. Sax, of West Pittston.

The audience assembled when the first race was called did not number over a thousand persons, and there was plenty of room in the large grandstand. The track was heavy and did not seem conducive to fast time, but considering the heavy rains that had fallen the day previous it was in a surprisingly good condition. It was quite a little while after the scheduled time before the first race, the 2.18 class, was started. It resulted as follows:

FIRST RACE—2.18 CLASS.

First Heat—Four horses, out of six named, started. Alcrane drew the pole; J. R. P., second; Tinker, third, and Rosa Gorin on the outside. Starter Kelly announced that the race was to be trotted strictly according to the rules of the National Trotting association, with weights and distances. It required considerable patience to get the quartette started, mostly on account of the nervousness of J. R. P., he breaking or failing to take his position at least half a dozen times in succession. At last the word was given, to a ragged start, J. R. P. doing a dance at the time. At the turn, however, he managed to catch Rosa Gorin, the quarter pole being passed fast by Alcrane, with Tinker a head behind and J. R. P., third. Time, 35 seconds. At the half Alcrane and Tinker were side by side, with J. R. P. right behind, and Rosa nearly fifty feet in the rear. Time, 1.10½. At the three-quarter pole J. R. P. broke and Rosa stole third place. Alcrane was a half length ahead of Tinker there, in 1.47¾. Coming home it was a furious drive for the first two horses, while the other two were being urged hard to avoid the flag. Alcrane won the heat by a length from Tinker, Rosa Gorin being third a dozen lengths back, half a length in front of J. R. P. Time of heat, 2.24½.

Second Heat—More delay was experienced, accompanied by threats of fines by Starter Kelly. At the second scoring the word was given to a poor start, Rosa Gorin being shut out. At the quarter Alcrane led Tinker by a head, with J. R. P., third. Time, 36 seconds. At the half, Alcrane and Tinker were side by side, with J. R. P. right behind, on the inside. Right after passing the stand the driver of J. R. P. shouted "Lookout! Give me room," and the driver of Alcrane accommodatingly turned out, J. R. P. stealing the pole. Time of half, 1.11¾. J. R. P. was a length ahead of Alcrane at the six furlong mark, in 1.47½. Coming home Alcrane drew close, and just at the wire beat J. R. P. by a neck, the latter breaking within twenty feet of the wire, but steadying again in time to take second away from Tinker. Time of heat, 2.23¼.

Third Heat—The horses scored seven times before they got off. Then J. R. P. was left behind. At the quarter Alcrane was just a trifle ahead of Tinker, with J. R. P. a length behind, in third place. Just before reaching the half the hopples on Tinker broke and J. R. P. went into second place. Rosa Gorin was then nearly a furlong behind. At the half Alcrane led J. R. P. by six lengths, and came home on the jog. The other positions were not altered, Tinker and Rosa Gorin being away behind. Time by quarters, 35¼, 1.09¾, 1.45¾, 2.23¼. Summary:

2.18 class, trot and pace; purse, $200.

Time—2.24¼, 2.23¼, 2.23¼.

A GUIDELESS WONDER.

After the first race was over, an exhibition mile was paced by the "Guideless Wonder," Cute, with a record of 2.05½. This horse made its appearance without driver or sulky, but wore hopples. She was trimmed lavishly with ribbons of red, white and blue. In an effort to break the record of 2.17¾, this wonderful little horse paced a full mile on the half-mile heavy track, finishing the last quarter with a running mate. She was successful in her endeavor, doing the quarter in 33 second, the half in 1.10, the three-quarters in 1.46½, and the mile in 2. 15.

SECOND RACE—2.29 CLASS.

First Heat—There were only three starters in this race. Just before the horses were ready a mild sensation was caused by the collapse of a portion of the bleachers in right field. The race was delayed for some time by the driver of Miss Jennie not getting around. The delay was caused by his failure to weigh until the last minute. Kid Murphy drew first position, Miss Jennie was in the center and Walter J. on the outside. The trio got a good start, Miss Jennie took the lead at the furlong. At the quarter, in 36 seconds, Kid Murphy, Miss Jennie slackening up a little; at the half, in 1.11¼, Kid Murphy was yet in front, but only by a neck; at the three-quarter pole Kidney Murphy passed there in 1.48¾, three lengths in front of Miss Jennie. Coming home the latter made one of her usual finishes, catching Kid Murphy at the wire and winning by only a nose. Walter J. did not take much part in this heat, breaking and running a large part of the time. Time of heat, 2.29½.

Second Heat—Just before this heat was started the rest of the bleachers fell with a crash. The word was given to a poor start, Miss Jennie being off her gait, and she was four lengths behind when the upper turn was made. At the quarter Kid Murphy was two lengths in front of Walter J., the same distance ahead of Jennie. The latter speedily overtook the leaders and at the half was a half in front of the Kid, with Walter three lengths behind. At the three-quarter mark Jennie had moved up to two lengths ahead of Kid Murphy. Coming home for the finish the latter made a great rally, and was only beaten for the heat by a neck, Walter J. being five lengths in the rear. Time by quarters, 0.36, 1.11¼, 1.48, 2.25¼.

Third Heat—Mr. Kelly did not "let 'em go" until after they had scored six times, the hopples on Miss Jennie evidently being out of gear somewhere. When the word was given Miss Jennie went right in the air and by the time the furlong pole was reached, was badly behind. Kid Murphy led Walter J. a length at the quarter, two lengths at the half, three lengths at the three-quarters, and about a length for the mile, Miss Jennie being away behind all the time, being wrong somewhere in her gearing. The time by quarters was: 0.35¾, 1.09¾, 1.45¾, 2.27½.

Fourth Heat—Miss Jennie lost her stride as the word was given and when the furlong pole was reached was in the rack. At the quarter Kid Murphy led Walter J. by a neck only. Time, 0.36½. At the half Miss Jennie had overtaken her rivals and showed in front, with Walter J. next, in 1.12½. The three-quarter pole was reached in 1.49½, with the Wilkes-Barre mare in front, going easy. Coming home, Walter J. made a gallant effort to get the heat, but Miss Jennie drew on her reserve speed, and won the heat and race by a length, Kid Murphy being a poor third. Time of heat, 2.26. Summary:

2.29 class, trotters and pacers; purse, $200.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Sept. 18.—People who argued that the sudden weakness that developed in the stock market yesterday afternoon after the early show of strength was due to the frost scare in the corn belt, found confirmation for their views in the recovery in the stock market today simultaneously with the re-action in corn. The effect of this development was naturally more pronounced in the stocks of the great western railroads, where traffic is large in corn, namely the grangers and Pacifics, including Atchison and Missouri Pacific. But there was no reason why the developments in the corn market should have a sympathetic effect on railroads in Southern territory, those carrying anthracite and bituminous coal and the net work of central traffic and minor eastern trunk lines, which are generally designated as the junior Vanderbilts. Prices of all of these stocks were notably buoyant and the buying of them was on a scale which could only be for the account of the largest of the interests. The buying was without specific news to explain it. It was attributed to the same sources as that which constituted the determined support of the market all through the recent crisis. The public in Wall street was strong in the conviction that what are called the Vanderbilt-Morgan, Gould-Rockefeller and Harriman interests were all buyers on a very large scale of the various stocks in which they are interested. Speculators and professional operators exhausted the best powers of conjecture in striving to determine the motive of this buying. As there was no acute pressure of liquidation, the mere purpose to support the market was not sufficient explanation, as it was on last Friday and on Monday. There was considerable cross trading early in the day, which had the appearance of an effort to confuse sentiment, brokers usually acting for large capitalists, making very large trades on both sides of the market and almost simultaneously. Total sales today, 729,500 shares.

Speculative bonds were active and strong, but there was some irregularity among less active issues. Total sales par value, $2,005,000 shares.

United States refunding 2s advanced ½ per cent. on the last call.

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETAY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

A JOINT RESOLUTION.

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth in General Assembly met, That the following is proposed as amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

Amendment One to Article Eight, Section One.

Add at the end of the first paragraph of said section, after the words "shall be entitled to vote at all elections," the words "subject however to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact;" so that the said section shall read as follows:

Section 1. Qualifications of Electors. Every male citizen twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, subject however to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact:

1. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

2. He shall have resided in the State one year, (or, having previously been a qualified elector or native born citizen of the State, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election.

3. He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

4. If twenty-two years of age and upwards, he shall have paid within two years a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election.

Amendment Two to Article Eight, Section Seven.

Strike out from said section the words "but no elector shall be deprived of the privilege of voting by reason of his name not being registered," and add to said section the following words, "but laws regulating and requiring the registration of electors may be enacted to apply to cities only, provided that such laws be uniform for cities of the same class," so that the said section shall read as follows:

Section 7. Uniformity of Election Laws. All laws regulating the holding of elections by the citizens or for the registration of electors shall be uniform throughout the State, but laws regulating and requiring the registration of electors may be enacted to apply to cities only, provided that such laws be uniform for cities of the same class.
