MR. BURDETTE IN TOWN.

The Good-Natured Resident of Greenwood Township, the Hero of the Black Panther Exploit, Otherwise Known as "Devil" Burdick, Visits Among His Friends.

Dorance Buckley Burdette, the good-natured citizen from Greenwood township, who is known out of the public prints as "Devil" Burdick, made a visit to Carbondale yesterday and was a picturesque character on the city's streets.

Mr. Burdette was a caller at The Tribune office about the first place he visited on reaching town. The Tribune office is about the first place that Mr. Burdette makes for when he decides to spread the sunshine of his good nature among the Carbondale folks, and yesterday was no exception to the rule.

Mr. Burdette took offense when The Tribune said he looked overalls, when they were but "two weeks" old and been washed twice, according to his affirmation.

After making an extended visit among his friends, of whom he has hosts in the city, entertaining them with his genial ways and his merry jokes, Mr. Burdette took himself back to Greenwood township tomorrow evening, where, also, everybody is his friend.

A Flattering Recognition.

The current number of the Photographic Magazine, of Cincinnati, O., the official publication of the Ben Pitman system of photography, contains a flattering recognition of one of the town's educators, Prof. W. A. F. Scott, director of Scott's Commercial Institute.

SOME SPLENDID ATTRACTIONS.

Good Shows That Will Be at the Grand Next Week.

Next week will be an important one in a theatrical way. Manager Dan P. Byrne will provide three splendid attractions for Carbondale theatre-goers.

The Host piece was the one produced by that celebrated playwright and long before his death, and has the honor of being the first play of his that are to be found in all of his successes.

"The House That Jack Built" was presented at the Lyceum in Scranton, on Friday of last week, and The Tribune, in speaking of the attraction, said:

"George H. Broadhurst's sparkling comedy, 'The House That Jack Built,' was presented at the Lyceum last night before a crowded house for the second time in its career.

HANDLED STACKS OF BAGGAGE.

Record of City Station Made During Semi-Centennial Exposition.

Now that the summer traveling over the railroads is diminishing, the statistics of the city station of the Delaware and Hudson are given an opportunity to estimate on the number of pieces of baggage they handled during the busy season.

Mr. Burdette took offense when The Tribune said he looked overalls, when they were but "two weeks" old and been washed twice, according to his affirmation.

After making an extended visit among his friends, of whom he has hosts in the city, entertaining them with his genial ways and his merry jokes, Mr. Burdette took himself back to Greenwood township tomorrow evening, where, also, everybody is his friend.

CONGRESSMAN CROWLEY Uses Pe-ru-na in His Family for Catarrhal and Nervous Affections.

CONGRESSMAN J. B. CROWLEY.

Hon. Joseph B. Crowley, Congressman from Illinois, writes, from Robinson, Ill., the following praise for the great catarrhal tonic, Peruna.

"After giving Peruna a fair trial I can cheerfully recommend your remedy to anyone suffering with coughs, colds and the grippe, and all catarrhal complaints.

"Mrs. Crowley has taken a number of bottles of Peruna on account of nervous troubles. It has proven a strong tonic and lasting cure. I can cheerfully recommend it."

No other remedy invented by man has ever received as much praise from men of high station as Peruna. Over forty members of Congress have tried it and recommended it to suffering humanity. They use it themselves to guard against the effects of the insidious strain of public life, to ward off the ill effects of the changeable climate of Washington. They keep it in their homes for family use, and they recommend it to their neighbors, and they do not hesitate in public print to declare their appreciation and endorsement of this greatest of modern remedies.

It is exactly as Congressman Crowley says: "Peruna is a safe and sure remedy for coughs, colds and the grippe and all catarrhal complaints. It is an excellent remedy in all nervous troubles. It never fails to prove itself a powerful tonic and a lasting cure." This is what Congressman Crowley says, and this is what thousands of other people are saying all over the United States.

CONGRESSMAN ROMULUS Z. LINNEY, from Taylorville, N. C., writes: "My secretary, Mr. J. B. Crowley, has taken a bottle of Peruna and it has helped me in strength, vigor and appetite."

CONGRESSMAN A. T. GOODBYN, Robinson Springs, Ala., writes: "I have used one bottle of Peruna for my catarrh and I feel very much benefited."

CONGRESSMAN H. W. OGDEN, from Benton, La., writes: "I can conscientiously recommend your Peruna." H. W. OGDEN.

CONGRESSMAN H. W. SMITH, from Murphysboro, Ill., writes: "I have taken one bottle of Peruna for my catarrh and I feel very much benefited."

CONGRESSMAN DAVID MEEKIN, from Napoleon, O., writes: "I have used several bottles of Peruna and feel greatly benefited. It has cured my catarrh of the head." David Meekin.
