Last night the The decision was left to the committee committee assembled and heard reorts from its various sub-committees and before the meeting was what might be termed well under way, every misgiving was removed, and a positive issurance obtained that instead of hurting, the postponement actually helped the affair. Deputy Attorney General Frederic W. Fleitz, who has been in telegraphic correspondence with leaders in the league throughout the whole commonwealth announced the receipt of dispatches telling of the coming of bigger rowds than were originally promised rom various cities that had arranged to be represented, and of good sized delegations from cities that had not ntended to be represented at all if the onvention was held last week.

FROM PHILADELPHIA. Philadelphia for Instance had ad ised the local committee to expect 500 belegates from that city. Yesterday ifternoon State President J. Hampton Moore telegraphed Mr. Fleitz that the Philadelphians had already secured railroad transportation for 700. DETAILS DISCUSSED.

The details of matter of entertaining the delegates was discussed at length by Recorder W. L. Connell, Deputy Atorney General Fleitz, W. S. Diehl. Hon. C. P. O'Malley, Chairman E. E. Robathan, of the entertainment comnittee, and others, and it was the conensus of opinion that the committee should emphasize to the citizens at arge that the hospitality of the city is o be put to a test, and because of the handicap put on the entertainment committee, everyone should turn in and give a hand at making the stay of the visitors as pleasant as possible, and cause them to go away feeling that Scranton has progressed at a lively sace in the decade that has intervened since the convention was held here ten venus ago.

Recorder Connell, chairman of the reception committee, reported that the members of that committee will meet at the Jermyn, Tuesday afternoon, with carriages, receive the distin-guished visitors as they arrive at the milroad stations and escort them to heir places of entertainment, and do whatever else suggests itself as expedient to making them feel the force of Scranton hospitality.

The members of the Union League headed by Attorney Lewis B. Carter, were selected to act as an escort to the visiting clubs. They will be met at the stations with a band and escorted to the headquarters at Hotel Jermyn, after which they will be provided with quarters and turned over to sub-com mittees to show them about the city. A register will be kept at the Jermyr for all visitors, and Hon. Charles P

Captain Atherton, of the decorations committee, reported that the decorations now in place in the armory are deemed quite sufficient and appropriate, and the only addition decided upon is the hanging of a large portrait of President McKinley in a frame of incandescent lights at some conspicuous place.

The committee requests that the decorations throughout the city be left in place until after the convention, not so much out of regard for the convention as to show the visitors how Scranton, in this respect, essayed to demonstrate her grief for the martyred president. The attendance at last night's meeting was the largest yet recorded. Fully one hundred of the committeemen were present, and among them were most of the men who are usually counted upon to make a success of the city's big undertakings.
