AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

Judge Archbald Rules That a Pat ent Has Been Infringed. Judge Archbald, of the United States court, has forwarded to the Circuit ourt clerk at Philadelphia an opinion in the patent infringement case of the Daylight Prism company against the decides that the plaintiff's patent is valid and has been infringed by the de-

The parties are manufacturers of glass prism contrivances designed to light dark interiors, by first refracting and then diffusing the sun's rays. The decision is an extremely import ant one from a commercial standpoint, as this new-fangled idea has already begun a revolution in building plans in the larger cities. Before the practical introduction of this idea into building plans, it was necessary in constructing large buildings to devote a large amount of space to areaways to light the interior apartments. This prism contrivance makes it possible to contract these areaways into comparatively inconsiderable space. By means of the prisms, light can be carried bout and delivered quite as readily as air or water-around corners or angles or upstairs, downstairs and in my

Atlantic States Conference of German Baptists Nearly Over-Services Conducted Yesterday.

The delegates to the Atlantic State onference of German Bantists spent sterday in attendance at special serces conducted in the First German laptist church, on Hickory street. The morning service was conducted Rev. D. Hoenig, of New Haven, conn., who preached a profoundly impressive doctrinal sermon on the diinity of Jesus Christ, taking for his ext John i: 1-14, "In the beginning vas the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. And the Word was made flesh and dwelt emong us (and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father), full of grace and truth." The members of the Sunday school vere addressed in the afternoon by

everal of the clergymen, including

Rev. A. P. Mihm, of Brooklyn; Rev.

Marschner, of New York; Rev. C.

Schmidt, of Newark, N. J., and Rev. M. Alvor, of Passaic, N. J. The congregation of the German Presbyterian churct united with the Baptist congregation at night. The church was crowded to the doors and great interest was taken by all. The ermon was preached by Rev. H. L. Dietz, of Bridgeport, Conn. He spoke of the great love of God for sinful mankind as revealed in Jesus Christ. and as particularly exemplified in the Apostle Paul. The sermon was follewed by exhortations by Rev. H. Trumpp, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Rev.

J. C. Schmitt, of this city. A feature of both the morning and night services was the singing of hymns by a double male quartette, composed of el 'it clergymen.

Today will be the closing day of the The several committees sion and Rev. O. F. Pistor, of Boston. ill read a paper on "Original Sin. The afternoon will be devoted to women's missionary work. A sermon will be delivered at night by Rev. H. C. Baum, of Wilmington, Del. This will be followed by a love feast.

The visiting delegates were taken in charge last Saturday afternoon by a commmittee from the church and were given a trolley ride to all parts o the city. Parties were taken through the Axle works and a number were permitted, through the courtesy of Colonel E. H. Ripple, to inspect the interior workings of the National mine "Nearer My God to Thee" and several others hymns were sung in the bowels of the earth by the party.

MONUMENT TO WM. M'KINLEY

TO BE ERECTED ON THE COURT HOUSE SQUARE.

That It May Be an Assured Popular Movement the Subscriptions Are Limited to One Dollar-Project Is Launched at a Meeting of Rooms - Luther Keller Elected Chairman of the Organization to Have the Affair in Charge.

Scranton is to have a McKinley nonument. It is to erected by the Lackawanna county by popular subscription, and will likely be cated on court house square. A movement to this end was inaualed at a citizens' meeting in the board of trade rooms Saturday night, and from the enthusiastic manner in which the project was taken up the erection of the monument is almost absolutely assured.

On Friday last a number of citizens met in the office of Secretary Atherton, of the board of trade, and decided to issue the following call: Scranton, Pa., Sept. 20, 1901. Dear Sir: A meeting has been called in the board of trade rooms at 8 o'clock sharp Saturday night to consider plans to form an organization to raise funds for a McKinley Memorial monument It is the carnest request of the committee tha do not tail to attend. A full meeting Colonel E. H. Ripple, Livy S. Richard, D. B. Atherton, C. E. Daniets, J. G. Sanderson, Cap-tain W. A. May, C. R. Sanderson, M. K. Edgar John Schener, jr., self-constituted committee,

These were sent out to representaive men, whose names occurred to he committee as being men likely to the an active interest in the move-

MANY RESPONSES.

Ail of Saturday, Secretary Atherton was in receipt of telephone messages from the recipients of the cards, announcing their hearty approval of the project and their desire to further it in any way in their power.

George B. Smith sent word that h bluow gladly contribute whatever amount the committee might choose to assess him. Others made very libral offers of assistance. When the hour for the meeting ar rived, there was a large and representative attendance at the board of trade rooms, and the sentiments expressed were a continuation of those that were messaged to Captain Atheron during the day. It was not only a hearty willingness, but an anxious desire to help along the movement. After F. L. Wormser, director of public safety, had been elected temporary chairman and C. R. Sanderson secretary, Captain Atherton and Mr Richard explained the manner which the meeting had come to b called and the details of the committee's purposes. Mr. Richard added a suggestion that the subscriptions be limited to a dollar, to insure that it would be a popular movement.

OFFICERS CHOSEN.

There was an enthsuiastic discussion of this and other suggestions as to procedure, and then the chair, on modated Livy S. Richard, Hon '. P. O'Malley and Mark K. Edgar a committee on nominations. The committee's recommendations were adopt ed, as follows: President, Luther Kel ler: vice presidents, W. A. May, A. W. Dickson, L. A. Watres, William Connell, Rev. Rogers Israel, D. D., Right Rev. M. J. Hoban, Judge H. M. Edwards, Judge John P. Kelly, Charles Robinson; secretary, C. R. Sanderson; treasurer. D. B. Atherton.

On motion of Magistrate W. S. Milar, seconded by Hon, Alex, T. Connell, permanent organization was ef ected with the above officers, and on motion of Hon. C. P. O'Malley, seconded by John Gibbons, the officers wer empowered to add to the vice-presi dents and appoint committees. James G. Sanderson moved to make . exclusively, a Scranton affair, but W. Smith, of Peckville, protested, and, after some discussion, it was deided to open the subscriptions to the whole county and country.

the newspapers, dailies and speklies, are to be asked to receive and acknowledge subscriptions.

THE CONTRIBUTIONS.

NOW FOR THE CONVENTION

EVERYTHING READY FOR THE MEETING OF STATE LEAGUE.

The Advance Guard of the Visiting Delegates Will Arrive Today. Preparations for the Big Mass Meeting in the Armory Tomorrow Night Are Completed - Senator Thurston to Eulogize the Dead President-Looks as if Hon. F. W. Fleitz Will Be Elected President.

Today will see the arrival of the adance guard of the Republicans from all parts of the state, who are coming to Scranton to attend the annual convention of the State League of Republican clubs, which is to be held in this city on Wednesday, and which is to be preceded by a monster mass meeting to be conducted in the new armory tomorrow night.

President J. Hampton Moore, Philadelphia, will arrive in the city this afternoon and will be accompanied by ome of the more prominent Philadelphia Republicans who are to attend the convention. State Secretary Kelley has been in the city for several days assisting in the work of preparing for the reception of the delegates.

The Philadelphia delegation, about 700 strong, will arrive tomorrow artertoon at 3 o'clock and will be met at the ackawanna station by the reception ommittee and members of the Union committee will meet at the Hotel Jermyn at 2.30 o'clock tomorrow aftersoon. All the young Republicans of the city are requested to meet at the same hour at the rooms of the Central Republican club in the Price building, to assist in giving the arriving delegates a rousing welcome.

ESCORTED TO JERMYN.

The delegates will be escorted to headquarters, which are to be established at the Hotel Jermyn, and will there register. The delegates and all the Republican clubs of the city will gather on Spring street, in front of the Jermyn, at 7.30 o'clock tomorrow night and will march to the armory to at-
