TOBYHANNA.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Tobyhanna, Sept. 22.-All that is mortal of the late Mrs. George H. Rhoads was laid to test at Stroudsburg at 2.30 o'clock Friday afternoon. The funeral took place at the home of the deceased, at Tobyhanna, and the esteem and respect in which she was held by all her acquaintances were amply attested by the throng of sorsowing relatives and friends at the sad obsequies. The remains were viewed previous to the time set for the funeral by the many present.

The services were conducted by Rev W. Green, of Pen-Argyl, Pa., and Rev.Ernest Bowden, of Tobyhanna. During the services, several beautiful hymns were sung by a quartette from Stroudsburg. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. The pall bearers were Charles S. Hubard, of Philadelphia; Dr. John Rhoads, of Philadelphia; Putnam Allen, of Fulton, N. Y.; W. Burnet Easton, of East stroudsburg; L. Seldon Case and T. M.

It is interesting to make inquiry into the cause of this unfortunate quality of the onion. It is simply due to the presence in some quantity of another nineral matter in the bulb-sulphur. It is this killing property that makes the bulb so very useful as a medicinal agent at all times, but especially in the spring, which used to be-and still is the brimstone and treacle in old-fashioned houses, before sulphur tablets came into vogue. Now sulphur, when united to hydrogen, one of the gases of water, forms sulphurated hydrogen, and then becomes a foul smelling, well nigh a fetid compound. The onion,
