THOUSANDS ON THE GROUNDS

GREAT INTEREST IN THE WAYNE COUNTY FAIR.

Large Crowds from Scranton and Carbondale Were Present to View the Exhibits and See the Interesting Horse Races—When the First Race Was Called It Was Estimated That Seven Thousand Persons Were on the Ground—Detail History of Each Race.

Special from a Staff Correspondent.

Honesdale, Sept. 25.—The second day of the Wayne County Agricultural society's thirty-ninth meeting here today was a huge success from start to finish. An exceptionally large number of people were present and the numerous features of the day passed off without an accident to mar the occasion. There were two horse races, one of three heats and the other of four. An automobile exhibition to establish a track record, was called off on account of fear of its effect on the hundreds of horses lined up on the rail surrounding the track.

The balloon ascension, which was to have been the crowning feature of the afternoon's amusement, did not take place, or if it did, it must have occurred after nearly everybody had left the grounds. The huge gas bag did not get to Honesdale until 5 p. m., having missed connections. It is said by the management that the ascension and parachute drop will surely take place tomorrow.

Hundreds of Carbondalians and many Scrantonians were on hand. The two morning trains over the mountain were well filled.

The first race was won by Allen S. in three heats, and the second by Timewood in four heats. Both animalsmals are owned and driven by L. A. Patterson, and he must be a great favorite with his townspeople, for on all sides came shouts of gladness when he landed a heat.

FINE CATTLE ON VIEW.

The cattle and sheep stalls were well filled today with a large number of blooded animals. The cattle stalls, in particular, were crowded, most of them having two animals in where there was not much more than enough room for one.

The Maple City band pleased all by its rendition of popular and classical music, interespersing the heats with selections, which gained applause. The directors saw the necessity for a grand stand today, if never before, and it is probable that next year something may be "doing" in that line.

More than 7,000 persons were on the grounds by the time the first race was called. The crowds lined the track, crowded the buildings to the blockading point, found refuge in wagons and carriages hitched on the inside and outside the enclosure, and some venturesome ones even found refuge in the limbs of some of the big trees that everhung the course, near judges' stand.

The exhibition halls were filled to repletion with choice assortments of fruits, vegetables, art work, fancy work, lace articles, merchandise and kindred objects. Besides the exhibits mentioned in my article of yesterday, there is an elderly gentleman located in the center building who is the exponent of what is rapidly becoming a lost art. He manipulates with great dexterity an old-fashioned loom for weaving rag-carpet. In a secluded spot, half way down the track is a countryman who has dried rattlesnake skins for sale at 25 cents each. Even this vendor in peculiar merchandise does a thriving trade. All the fakirs, in fact, seem to be fairly coining money no matter what their "lay" may be.

TRACK DUSTY.

The track, besides being narrow and with sharp turns, was also extremely dusty, and the crowd of carriages and covered wagons in the centre field was so dense that the quarter pole could not be seen from the judges' stand. This was not noticed until the horses had made the first circuit of the track. Then a remedy was found by posting a man with a red flag on the fence near it.

The starter, M. Emerson McAfee, of New York city, gave great satisfaction. He is possessed of a voice that can be heard distinctly in every part of the grounds, and his enunciation is clear and forceful. A megaphone was provided for Mr. McAfee's use, but with a wave of his hand he declined it, and it was speedily seen that he had good grounds for the declination. Mr. McAfee is six feet in height and every inch of him is full of energy and vim. He is known as one of the best auctioneers of horses in the country. The other gentlemen in the judges' stand were H. J. Andrus, of Susquehanna; Mr. Burnett, of New York, and James Doyle, of Waymart, judges. Mr. Sherwood, of Honesdale, and Mr. Lowry, of Carbondale, were the timers, and T. B. Clark, of Honesdale, was the clerk.

The judges of the various departments in the halls were at work at an early hour and before the great crowd got around, red and blue tickets in goodly numbers were dangling from articles. There were so many exhibits that lack of space forbids the enumeration of the fortunate prize winners. All seemed satisfied with the decision given.

The races were supposed to be called at 1 o'clock. But 1 o'clock with horse racing means almost any o'clock save 1, and it was twenty minutes of 2 when Starter McAfee awoke the echoes of the surrounding hills and impatiently jangled a dinner bell as a signal to call out the horses for the first race of the day, the 2.25 class. The history of this event is as follows:

FIRST RACE.

2.25 class, trot or pace; purse, $200.

First heat—There were six starters out of fourteen named. Allen S., owned by L. A. Patterson, of Carbondale, drew the pole. Walt Anna, of Port Jervis, was second, and Tricolor third. This completed the first row. In the second line Gold Seeker was inside, Frances J. next, and Miss Jennie was on the outside. Five times the horses scored, and each time one of the six starters was either running or rearing. Then Mr. McAfee told the drivers that he had protected them all that he could and that they would have to look out for themselves. The next time up the word was given to a first-class start. On the first turn Frances J. was in front. When it was time for the horses to reach the quarter it was perceived that the pole was not in sight and no official time could be taken, nor could the horses be seen until they came around the second turn into the stretch. At the half, Allen S. was a half a length in front of Gold Seeker, who was the same distance from Frances J. On the second trip around the track the horses came easy, Allen S. beating Gold Seeker by a length, with Walt Anna third, half a length from Gold Seeker. Time of heat, 2.28.

Second heat—On the second trip up the field was sent away on its journey to a poor start, the pole horse, Allen S., being a length behind Tricolor, the fourth horse on the first tier. At the quarter Allen S. was a length in front of Frances J. At the half Allen S. and Frances J. maintained their places, with Tricolor next, a length back of the Scranton mare. At the six-furlong pole these positions were still unchanged, and they remained so when the heat was completed, Gold Seeker losing third place by a half length. Time of mile, 2.30½.

Third heat—Tricolor's sulky was broken in the runaway in the second heat of the 2.40 class, and his owner was unable to find another, so the horse did not start in this heat. The word was given at once and Allen S. went right to the front. At the quarter he was three lengths in front of Frances J., with Gold Seeker next. At the third furlong someone ran into Frances, who broke and lost her place to Gold Seeker. At the half Allen S. was eight lengths in front of Gold Seeker, with Miss Jennie third. Passing the fifth furlong Miss Jennie was rapidly overtaking the two in front, when she broke and by the time six furlongs had been gone she was last. Allen S. won the heat and race, with Gold Seeker close up and Miss Jennie, who made a splendid finish when she settled down, third, a head in front of Frances J. Time of heat, 2.26¼. Summary:

Allen S., b. g., L. A. Patterson, Carbondale	1	1	1
Gold Seeker, b. s., Ridge Farm, Aldenville	2	4	2
Frances J., b. m., Charles Connell, Scranton	6	2	4
Miss Jennie, b. m., William Myer, Wilkes-Barre	5	6	3
Tricolor, ch. g., E. Schoonmaker, Hurleyville, N. Y.	4	3	dr.
Walt Anna, b. m., Arthur Slade, Port Jervis, N. Y.	3	5	dr.

Time—2.28, 2.30½, 2.26¼.

SECOND RACE—2.40 CLASS.

First heat—Eight starters. Almokin of Carbondale was lucky enough to get the pole in the big bunch. Thurman was second, Minnie Patchen third, Jack fourth, Roney Woodnut fifth, Timewood sixth, Lamp Black seventh and Goldrain last. In the first score an accident was narrowly averted by the horsemanship of Driver Hannis. The colored driver of Jack, after the bell rang, slowed up too quickly and Hannis, right behind him, nearly spilled him out. The next time the drivers in the front tier went so far that McAfee called them down. The third time up the word was given, the field being well bunched. Roney Woodnut started right out to capture the pole and got it in 100 yards. His peculiar gait and the upheaval of his headquarters made it appear as if he was running. Minnie Patchen broke badly at the first turn and knocked Almokin's front leg, unsettling her and losing her the pole. No evidence of where the quarter pole was was forthcoming when the field got there, but Rooney was the first to arrive in its locality, open lengths before Jack. At the half and three-quarters these two showed the way in the same order. On the stretch Levi Patetrson, of Carbondale, who guided Timewood, made a great drive. On passing the three-quarter pole, his black gelding was lost, but after the turn was made safely he set out and passed horse after horse, beating Jack for second place by a nose, Roney Woodnut being first, two lengths ahead of Timewood. Time of heat, 2.25½.

Second heat—There was a slight delay, due to the necessity of shoeing Minnie Patchen, whose footgear had become disarranged in the previous heat. The first time the field came down "Go!" was shouted. It was a fairly good start. At the quarter pole Timewood was first, three lengths in front of Roney Woodnut. At the half Timewood, Roney and Gold Run were the three first ones, and these three finished the heat in the same way. At the third furlong Thurman, a black stallion owned by T. H. Osborn of Monticello, N. Y., while being driven to pass Almokin, owned by H. H. Pierce of Carbondale, tried to creep inside the rail. Thurman struck Almokin's sulky, and his driver went headlong onto the track. Thurman immediately started to run, smashing his sulky. With harness dangling and threatening every horse on the track the big stallion made the circuit of the course twice, galloping. He came in ahead of the field and was caught by one of the mounted patrols. His driver, who had had a bad fall, limped into the judge's stand and tried to throw the blame on to Mr. Pierce, but the judges exonerated the latter. Time of heat, 2.29.

Third heat—Two atempts were made to start, and the second was successful, although four of the seven starters were trailing. At the quarter Timewood was in front of Gold Rain by three lengths, with Roney Woodnut third. At the half Timewood and Gold Rain were the same way, with Almokin third. At the six furlong mark Almokin broke. At that stage of the distance Timewood was first, Gold Rain second and Roney third and the mile was finished in that way, Lampblack being fourth. Almokin had a narorw call from being distanced, the flag dropping on her nose. Jack and Minnie Patchen were not so fortunate and were shut out. Time of heat, 2.28½.

Fourth heat—Before beginning the heat Eddie Tatum, the driver of Lampblack, made a protest against the starting of Almokin in this heat, as the judges had at first announced that Almokin was distanced and then reversed their decision. The judges said, however, that as there was a grave doubt as to whether Almokin was inside the flag, she should be given the benefit of the doubt. Almokin had a different driver, David James of Scranton. The horses came good the first time, but the starter would not let them go. They were started on the next journey to the wire, however. At the quarter Timewood was in front, four lengths ahead of Gold Rein, with Almokin third, close up. At the half Timewood was half a length in front of Almokin, with Woodnut third. At six furlongs Timewood was a length ahead of Almokin, with Gold Rein some distance back. The mile was finished in the same way with the same three leaders, Lampblack being fourth. Time, 2.27. This and That.

E. A. Hackett, chief clerk to the terminal agent of the Lackawanna railroad at Hoboken, N. J., has been appointed to succeed R. B. Vaughan as freight agent at Scranton. The appointment takes effect on October 1, when Mr. Vaughan retires to become general manager of a manufacturing enterprise at Kingston.

It is stated that 850 acres of coal land in Saline county, Illinois, have been sold to a syndicate of men in Chicago, some of which are coal operators.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Sept. 25.—The stock market was weak under a rather drastic speculative liquidation. Probably speculative losses incurred as a result of the violent collapse in Amalgamated Copper was responsible in large part for the selling today, but other considerations of a more general character played their part. Amalgamated Copper itself showed some evidence of support in the early dealings, opening unchanged and rising ¾ over last night. There was also some resistance in this stock to the decline, which set in the general market, but the selling pressure grew heavier and as the hour approached for the assembling of the Anaconda directors, Amalgamated Copper broke through its previous low point on the movement at 90 and sold as low as 88⅝, closing only a fraction higher at a net loss of 4¼.

In the general market the Junior Vanderbilts were advanced sharply after the opening, but it soon became evident that large realizing was going on at other points of the list. Ultimately all attempt at support of the market was abandoned and brokers who have recently assumed this task were open sellers all around the room. The declines all through the list ran to land 2 points at the least. Missouri Pacific lost in all 6 points, St. Paul 3⅛; Baltimore and Ohio, 3; Manhattan 2¾; Peple's Gas, 2¾; Union Pacific, 2⅝; Pennsylvania, New York Central and Sugar, 2¼, and other less prominent stocks from 2 to 5 points. Total sales today, 780,200 shares.

Railroad bonds were but little affected by the weakness in stocks, gains and losses being mixed. Total sales, par value, $2,035,000. United States old fours declined 1¼ per cent, on the last call.
