Eynon-Thomas.

The wedding of Dr. Thomas Albert Eynon and Miss Bertha May Thomas at the Plymouth Congregational church, West Scranton, yesterday, was one of the prettiest nuptial events of the season. The edifice was filled with relatives and friends of the happy young couple, and just as the noon hour bells and whistles were sounding, the wedding party entered the church from the southeast entrance. First came the ushers, Dr. L. H. Eynon, Dr. E. B. Donaghy, Dr. W. Rowland Davies and Dr. A. C. St. Amund, of New York.

Then came the bridesmaid, Miss Edith Tucker, of Ashley, who made a charming appearance in a gown of pink silk, and carrying a bunch of pink carnations. Following her came the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, Thomas Thomas. She was very becomingly gowned in pearl gray lavender silk, with white satin and ribbon trimmings, and in her hair she carried a huge bouquet of bridal roses.

As the party formed in front of the pulpit, they were met by the groom and his best man, Prof. David Owens, who entered from the left-center aisle. In front of them stood the clergyman, Rev. E. A. Boyd, pastor of the church, and Rev. Thomas de Gruy, D. D., pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church. The former read the marriage prayer, while the latter tied the nuptial knot. The ceremony was a very impressive one, and seemed to strike a popular chord in the hearts of all present. As the bride party entered the church, Mrs. B. G. Beddoe, an aunt of the groom, played the wedding march, and during the ceremony executed a selection of her best.

Dr. and Mrs. Eynon were immediately driven to the home of the bride's parents, on Luzerne street, where they made preparations for departure on an afternoon train for Buffalo and other points of interest, and upon their return will be at home at 10 North Main avenue, after October 22.

Both of them are among the most prominent young people residing in West Scranton. The groom is a son of Cashier A. B. Eynon, of the West Side bank, and is a graduate of the dental department of the University of Pennsylvania. His bride is an estimable young woman, possessing all the qualities that go to make up a popular personage.

Thomas. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Hugh Davies, pastor of the South Main Avenue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church. Miss Annie Davis executed the wedding marches.

The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of castor-colored tulle, with white satin applique trimmings, and carried bridal roses. She was unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Williams will reside in a newly furnished home at 144 South Everett avenue.

Roddy-Yeager.

Gustav R. Roddy of this city, and Miss Florence M. Yeager, of Daleville, Pa., were married by Rev. George A. Cure at the Methodist parsonage, North Main avenue, Wednesday morning. They were attended by the bride's mother, and returned to the afternoon train for Buffalo.

Mr. Roddy's family home is in Cleveland, Ohio. His work among other skilled draughtsmen for the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company being now transferred to Buffalo, the new home will be located in that city. Miss Yeager comes from an old and honored family near Moscow, and is an accomplished and estimable young woman.

John Stern, a brother of the bride, was best man, and Miss Mattie Wheeler, bridesmaid. A large assemblage of friends witnessed the ceremony and attended the subsequent reception.

Train Master J. J. McLaughlin, of the Lackawanna railroad, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Brown, of this city, and Miss Katherine Gaynor, of Honesdale, are enjoying a trip to the Pan-American.

Cards are out announcing the coming marriage of Miss Genevieve Clark, daughter of General Superintendent Thomas E. Clark, of the Lackawanna railroad, to Charles Howard Van Campen on Oct. 1 at the home of the bride on Jefferson avenue. The young couple are to take up their residence in Minneapolis, Minn.

T. V. McLaughlin was tendered a surprise party at his home in a social business on Wednesday night by over a hundred of his friends, the occasion being his forty-second birthday. He was presented with a beautiful silver smoking set, the gift of the employees of the Green Ridge colliery, where he is employed.

NITRO GLYCERINE IN SAFE EXPLODED

Effort to Open Safe in Moosic Post-office Was Followed by Serious Consequences.

A quantity of nitro glycerine, which had been left in the safe of the Moosic postoffice by the burglars who attempted to crack the strong box early Thursday morning, exploded yesterday morning, while John Genter, the expert machinist, was trying to unlock the massive doors. Mr. Genter was slightly burned on the right hand, but nobody else was injured.

After knocking off the outer mechanism of the combination with an axe the robbers had made a pocket with soap holes by the hole. Nitro glycerine and a fuse had been introduced and all was in readiness for the setting off when one of the gang accidentally stepped on the exploding cap, inflicting a serious wound to his foot. Mr. Genter was working with this lock and had just cut off the tube left by the thieves when the nitro glycerine was exploded by the friction.

There was a report and the concussion shook the building. The charge, however, was not sufficient to throw back the door, but later when the locks were released after Mr. Genter's thirty minutes labor it was found that the interior of the safe was a wreck. The books of the postoffice and other papers kept in the safe were torn asunder, and destroyed beyond recognition. The stamps, money and other accessories of the office were lost elsewhere, and escaped destruction.

The whereabouts or identity of the burglars are still baffling the authorities. They are believed to be a gang of rascals, who have been committing petty burglaries throughout this part of the state and their apprehension within a few days seems likely.

CONBOY COMMITTED.

Held for Court on Charge of Burglary.

John Conboy, alias Conway, who was arrested on Wednesday for burglarizing the barn of L. T. Canfield, was committed to the county jail yesterday in default of $500 bail.

Conboy was arrested several months ago in South Scranton for stealing a horse from a barn. Patrolman Peter Haggerty caught him practically in the very act, but he was never convicted.

WERE TAKEN BY SURPRISE

SELECT COUNCIL ADJOURNED VERY SUDDENLY.

The Motion to Adjourn Was Made and Passed at Breakneck Speed, Because Some of the Members Were Fearful That the License Tax Ordinance Would Be Called Up and Defeated—Common Councilman Rush Claims That Charles Graf's Name Was Forged.

Because Select Councilman D. W. Vaughan thought last night that an attempt was about to be made to call up the license tax ordinance, he made a sudden motion to adjourn and succeeded in getting it passed before the majority of the members knew exactly what was going on.

There were only fourteen members present and several of those absent were known to be in favor of the ordinance. The supporters of the measure talked among themselves a little and decided that if the measure was called up on third reading it would meet defeat.

Fearful that some of its opponents would call it up, it was decided to adjourn as soon as possible. Councilman Vaughan arranged things quietly with President Chittenden and then stepped back to his seat.

While council was yet considering ordinances on third reading, Mr. Vaughan said suddenly, "I move we adjourn." President Chittenden asked the question put and had declared that the motion had been passed before the other members knew what was up.

WAS SURPRISED.

"Are we adjourned? Why, what's the matter? How's this?" said Mr. Schroeder, looking around, very much surprised. Mr. Vaughan looked over at him with a quiet smile.

"We got you that time all right, a hint," he said, as he passed out the door.

Mr. Oliver introduced an ordinance providing for a widening of the roadway and a narrowing of the sidewalks on South Main avenue, between Fox and Oxford streets. As the ordinance for the paving of this part of the street has just been let to M. H. Dale, the ordinance was reported forthwith from committee and was passed on first and second readings.

The following new ordinances were introduced and referred to their proper committees:

By Mr. Vaughan—Appropriating $600 for the payment of certain deficiency bills.

By Mr. Hegan—Providing for the construction of a retaining wall on Third avenue, between Broadway and Fifth streets.

By Mr. Vaughan—Providing for the erection of three lights in the Nineteenth ward.

By Mr. Oliver—Appropriating funds for the purchase of incidental and for the rent of a telephone for the department of public safety.

GRADING OF LOCUST STREET.

Mr. Schneider offered a resolution, which was adopted, providing for the preparation of a plan and profile for the grading of portions of Locust street.

The following ordinances were passed on third and final reading: Providing for a night gateman at the Elm street crossing of the Jersey Central railroad; appropriating $1,420.40 for the payment of deficiency bills; creating the positions of police magistrates and fixing the salaries for the same.

Council will meet again next Thursday night.

MEETING OF COMMON COUNCIL.

Charge That Councilman Graf's Name Was Forged.

An otherwise dull session of common council was enlivened last night by William Rush, councilman from the Eighteenth ward, declaring with much vehemence that the name of Charles Graf had been affixed to an ordinance considered by the light and water committee by some one other than Mr. Graf. He further stated that that gentleman had not even attended the meeting of the committee, when that ordinance was considered.

Admitting that Mr. Graf was not at the meeting, councilman C. F. Roche, of the Eighteenth ward, replied that Mr. Graf had signed the report previous to the meeting of council.

The discussion arose over the ordinance providing for an electric light in Kellerman's court between Wyoming and Washington avenues. After a further passage of words between Messrs. Rush and Roche, and after Councilman Payne had suggested that any irregularities should be unwarmed and the culprit punished, the motion was made to recommit to the committee, which was passed by a unanimous vote.

DIFFERENCE IN SIGNATURE.

A Tribune man after the meeting chanced to pick up another ordinance bearing the signature of Charles Graf. The differences between the signatures on this ordinance and that of the one alleged to be a forgery was interesting. The name on the Kellerman court electric light providing measure contained two "fs," whereas the other Graf was spelled with but one. Again the capital "Gs" were totally different. Both Charles are spelled "Chas." and the writing of both is the standard of Spencerian style, but in only these two respects are they similar.

The following resolutions and ordinances were introduced and referred to their proper committees:

By M. J. Clark—Providing for a day gateman on North Main avenue at the crossing known as the Marvin crossing.

By J. J. Evans—Providing for four electric lights in the First ward.

By A. L. Lewis—Providing for the laying of flagstone sidewalks on Bromley avenue, between Jackson and Washburn streets.

By Daniel Galvin—Providing for the paving of a claim of Joseph Ansley.

By E. J. Coleman—Providing for the placing of chairs, desks, etc., for the additional common councilmen. Also by Mr. Coleman—Providing for the paying of the claim of M. F. Wymbs for the destruction of the plate glass window by the Columbia chemical company's wagon.

SECOND DAY OF TOURNAMENT

WINNERS OF COUNTRY CLUB AND CONSOLATION MATCH.

J. H. Brooks, F. C. Fuller, James Blair, Jr., and A. Z. Huntington Carried Off the Honors in the Country Club Match, and C. H. Welles, Jr., W. B. Learned, M. B. Fuller and A. E. Hunt, Jr., were the High Men in the Consolation Match—Today's Programme.

The gallery was small yesterday at the Country club, and the golfers who lost cannot say that their defeat was because of the hysterical giggling or the whippers of damsels fair in red jackets. The damsels fair bustled themselves with home interests during the forenoon and when they arrived on the links did not swarm over the course, as they swarmed last year and other years in the memory of the oldest inhabitant. To be sure, there was no Yardon, champion of the world, and no Travis, amateur invincible, with red satin trimmings, to follow over the links in awe-stricken silence, broken by smothered gasps of admiration at unusual plays. The out-of-town players have not made fancy records thus far. Only one, however, Leonard, is left in the semi-finals. The others, like the traditional "ten little Indians sitting in a line," have one by one fallen off, until a single goffer is left. To be sure, Mr. Huntington is now a Wilkes barrean, but we shall always claim him as ours.

The winners in the Country club match were J. H. Brooks, F. C. Fuller, James Blair, Jr., and A. Z. Huntington. Their contest will be watched with great interest today.

AN EXCITING MATCH.

The most exciting incident of yesterday was the match between H. C. Shafer and Mr. Blair. Every hole was in the balance during the afternoon, so even was the playing. They were a tie at the eighteenth, they halved the nineteenth and the onlookers became excited. When the twentieth was also halved, everybody watched breathlessly for the result. Mr. Blair won the twenty-first by one stroke.

The consolation match was a mixed affair, as the number of players being eleven, there were five who drew byes. The winners were C. H. Welles, Jr., W. B. Learned, M. B. Fuller and A. E. Hunt, Jr. Following are the detailed scores:

COUNTRY CLUB MATCH.

PEARCE HAS MADE HIS LAST SPEECH

So He Was Informed by an Anonymous Letter, Written in Red Ink, He Received Yesterday.

"You have made your last speech! Prepare for the end!" were the startling words contained in a letter received by Captain E. W. Pearce of East Market street yesterday. It was written in red ink and an ominous skull and cross bones was drawn on one corner of the sheet of paper.

Captain Pearce made a strong, earnest speech at the mass meeting in the auditorium, North Scranton, Monday night, when anarchy was denounced in no uncertain language.

It is supposed that some of the local group of anarchists is responsible for the letter.
