LAS SERMON TO HIS FLOCK

DR. ROBINSON'S FAREWELL IN THE SECOND CHURCH.

His Final Sermon Was Delivered Last Night to the Joint Congregations of the First and Second Churches—It Was the Same Discourse He Delivered on the First Sunday He Entered the Pulpit. His Remarks to His Own Flock at the Morning Service.

Rev. Dr. J. B. Sweet, of Oneonta, N. Y., spoke to large congregations both morning and evening yesterday at the Elm Park church. Many members of his former flock at Simpson church listened to him at each service.

DR. SWEET AT ELM PARK. Filled the Pulpit of that Church at Both Services.

Rev. Dr. J. B. Sweet, of Oneonta, N. Y., spoke to large congregations both morning and evening yesterday at the Elm Park church.

The sermon was one of scholarly ability and beauty of language. He illustrated his subject by calling attention to the great centre of our solar system.

The relationship of the light gained from the oil in the lamp as originally derived from stored sunshine of other ages, the problematic sources of electricity, and the variety of illuminating powers in general were considered.

All life, too, must come from the sun. All true robust life is developed in the sunshine. God comes as the great source of life in the world.

If in the beginning God created the greater light to rule the day, the lesser to rule the night; if in the beginning at God's command life in man appears, so life in the human race manifests its power in the sun—the sun of righteousness. All true spiritual life comes from God.

The sun is the source of warmth. The annual coal products of the world is about 200 millions of tons. It is said that if all this mass were set on fire it would answer but the infinite part of a second to supply the heat which comes from the sun.

As we designate as revivals those seasons when we meet together to warm our chilled purposes and our hearts and lives glow and burn together in the name of God, we speak of the coldness of the world as compared with the warmth of Christian charity.

The sun is the source of fruitfulness. We should have no rich autumnal season without its shining. All nature responds to this power. It is the spiritual warmth which produces responsiveness of life and soul in the work of God.

DR. ROBINSON'S SERMON. The very first thing that attracts our attention in this passage is the distinct, emphatic recognition of the personality of God.

There is a time for the setting of the sun, but the darkness is brightened by the star of hope which prophesies of the sun rising the light of eternal day.

The investigating committee which has been probing into the doings of the officials of Dickson City is expected to get down to real active business this week.

There is no intelligent recognition of God without the consciousness of sin. God said, "I have heard of thee with the hearing of the ear, but now mine eye hath seen thee."

There are many in this congregation who put themselves out of the reach of a text like that of this evening.

There were a few supporters of the accused officials present, but the large majority seemed to favor the investigating committee and its report.
