

WEST SCRANTON

LAI D AT REST AMID FLOWERS

GWILYM A. WILLIAMS CON-SIGNED TO MOTHER EARTH.

The Funeral Services on Saturday Afternoon Were Impressive and Largely Attended—Wedding and Social Announcements for the Coming Week—Woman Waylaid and Assaulted—A Number of Accidents—News of the Churches. News Notes and Personal Paragraphs.

All that was mortal of the late Gwilym A. Williams was consigned to earth in the Dunmore cemetery Saturday afternoon, whose many friends and relatives assembled around the grave into which the body was lowered, literally smothered with the loving floral tokens that silently bespoke the esteem in which he was held. The home he loved so well, and which he left only three short years ago to assume the responsibilities of married life, sheltered those who were dear and dear to him in life, and the surrounding lawn formed a background for many others who in some way or other had been intimately associated with him in every day life, while the street in front of the house was crowded with people anxious to pay a final tribute of respect to a genial friend and fellow citizen.

In the southeast parlor of the house the remains were exposed to view, while in front, behind, above and below the casket rested flowers and flowers. High upon a pedestal rested a broken wheel of flowers, intertwined with the orange and purple colors of the Electric City Wheelmen, by whom Gwilym was highly honored. Overhanging the casket was a chain of flowers with a broken link, from a circle of his most intimate friends.

An open bible and setting sun were the final offerings from Miss Robert Morris Lodge, of which he was an officer for many years. The Republican club also sent a broken circle, and his newspaper friends from all the offices in the city sent basket bouquets and sent pieces. There were also a countless number of beautiful offerings from many other relatives and friends. These fully attested the manifold esteem in which the only Gwilym Arthur Williams was held.

As the hundreds of men and women passed the bier it was noticeable that they were people with whom Mr. Williams was personally acquainted, and in life he could readily have called each one by name. When they took their final view of the departed one, eyes filled with tears and hearts ached for him, as they realized his sufferings had been more than any of them had realized.

Dr. Moffat read the scripture lesson and offered a touching prayer, in which he spoke of the great beyond, which passeth understanding. Rev. Hugh Davies offered consoling words to the relatives and friends of the deceased, and spoke of him in a manner which characterized his every day life and cheerful disposition under all circumstances, and advised his hearers to be ready for the final call.

When the funeral cortege reached the cemetery, it was met by the members of the lodge, who formed on either side of the driveway inside the main entrance. With uncovered heads the funeral car entered, the men fell in line on either side and acted as an escort to the grave, where the customary burial service was omitted owing to the lateness of the hour.

The funeral was admirably conducted by W. C. Price, and the singing of three selections by the Schubert quartette appealed to all in a touching manner. Each of the casket bearers and flower carriers were intimate, personal friends of Mr. Williams, in whom he placed confidence, and who reluctantly bore his remains away from the scene of his childhood, and earthly triumph. That he will be missed by all goes without saying. His was an eventful life.

Funeral services were also held over the remains at the home of Mrs. William C. Shaw, Maple Grove Farm, Graceland, N. Y., on Thursday morning, and were conducted by Rev. John W. Williams. The pall-bearers at that point were Gomer, David and Benjamin Williams, brothers of deceased's wife, and Louis Rathbun, his brother-in-law.

Three Other Funerals.

The funeral of the late William Erbe occurred yesterday from the family residence, 418 Bickens court. The services were in charge of Rev. Jacob Schoettle of the Chestnut street German Presbyterian church, and were attended by the members of the German Benevolent society and the employees of E. Robinson's Sons, of which he was a member. The Ringgold band played funeral marches on the way to Forest Hill cemetery, where interment was made. The pall-bearers were selected from among the society members present.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Patrick Watson, will take place this morning from the house, 310 Fifth street. Services will be held in Holy Cross church. Interment will be made in the Cathedral cemetery.

The remains of an infant child of Mr. and Mrs. William Heath, of 23 Snyder avenue, were privately interred in the Washburn street cemetery Saturday afternoon. The Salvation army corps had a funeral service at their barracks on Pricer street yesterday, which was conducted over the remains of the late William Ridge, Ensign Lentz conducted the service and the army members and musicians were the chief mourners. The pall-bearers were also selected from the ranks. Interment was made in the Washburn street cemetery.

Chapter of Accidents.

Boyd Fowler, of Oxford street, is suffering from injuries he sustained last week by being struck on the head by one of the elevators in the Connell building. His left arm was also fractured.

Fred Thomas, of North Everett avenue, employed on outside work at the Briggs' shaft, was knocked down and run over by a runaway car recently. His head, legs and body were badly lacerated.

George Williams, of 640 North Sumner avenue, fell from a building in course of erection in West Park, and sustained internal injuries. He had a remarkably narrow escape.

Mrs. Samuel Slutter, of Chestnut street, fell down a flight of steps at her home and fractured her arm.

Miss Ellen Duffin, of Pittston, was thrown from a carriage at South Main avenue and Locust street, last evening, and both her arms were broken. She was hurriedly conveyed to her home.

A resident of Scranton street went home in an intoxicated condition yesterday and called one of his neighbors by name. She belabored him over the head with a poker, and inflicted severe injuries on him.

Willie Allspaugh, a lad residing on West Elm street, fell from a Chestnut street trolley and fractured his arm. Dr. Roberts set the member.

A child of Mr. and Mrs. Evan Jenkins, of Rebecca avenue, fell from a couch yesterday, and sustained a fractured arm. Dr. Roberts was called.

Waylaid and Assaulted.

A woman residing on Meridian Meridian street, who was passing the Oxford breaker at 10 o'clock Saturday night on her way to visit a sick son, was waylaid and assaulted by some unknown assailant, who knocked her down and kicked her in the face, when he learned she did not have any money about her person.

Shortly afterwards she was found by the watchman and engineer of the breaker and taken to her home, where she is now in a precarious condition. A search was made for her assailant, but no trace of him could be found. The matter was not reported to the police.

Winners Every Time.

The Scranton competitors at the Poulitney, Vt., contest on Saturday were successful as engineers. Ivor Parry, of North Main avenue, was awarded prizes for the epigram and poem of twelve stanzas.

William Evans took first prize on the baritone solo, and the chief competition prize was divided.

Of a Religious Nature.

Ensign Lentz, of the Salvation army, conducted a memorial service at the barracks last evening and delivered an eloquent address on the subject, "There Is But One Step Between Me and Death."

The feast of St. Michael and all angels was observed at the St. David's Episcopal church yesterday. The other services of the day were held as usual.

W. H. Diels has charge of the Epworth League Methodist Episcopal church last evening, and at the 7:30 o'clock service County Organizer Gomer D. Reese delivered a temperance lecture and the Prohibition quartette sang.

"Anarchy or the Gospel," by their Fruits Ye Shall Know Them," was the subject of Dr. de Gruchy's discourse in the Jackson street Baptist church last evening. It was a thrilling address.

Rev. A. L. Ramer, Ph. D., of St. Mark's Lutheran church, spoke yesterday morning on "The Christian's Vocation," and in the evening on "The Spiritual Growth of the Servant of Christ." Both were able discourses.

W. H. Diels has charge of the Epworth League Methodist Episcopal church last evening, and at the 7:30 o'clock service County Organizer Gomer D. Reese delivered a temperance lecture and the Prohibition quartette sang.

The coming marriage of Herbert D. Johnson, of North Rebecca avenue, and Miss Mary Egan, of Pittston, has been announced.

Events of the Coming Week.

The Sons of Temperance Glee club will meet for rehearsal this evening in Morgan's hall, corner Main avenue and Jackson street.

Class No. 7, of the First Baptist Sunday school, will conduct an entertainment and social tomorrow evening at the parsonage, 1114 Rock street. Refreshments will be served.

The primary classes of the Tabernacle Congregational Sunday school will conduct an entertainment and social in the church on Wednesday evening. Refreshments will be served.

A progressive euchre party and social will be held next Friday evening at the rooms of St. Brendan's council, where the members will entertain in their usual clever manner.

An adjourned meeting of the local barbers' union will be held this evening at John Hughes' shop, 1034 West Lackawanna avenue.

Recent Social Events.

Miss Anna John, of Runda avenue, Lincoln Heights, entertained a party of friends recently in a clever manner. The list of guests included many well-known young people.

Miss Maime Featherman, of Luzerne, was tendered a reception at the home of friends in Lincoln Heights recently. David J. Grinby, who left for New York on Saturday, was tendered a farewell reception prior to his departure, at the home of Miss Mabel Spencer, on Jackson street.

Coming Weddings.

William F. McHale, of Olyphant, and Miss Mary McLean of North Main avenue, will be married at St. Patrick's

SOME FOOLISH PEOPLE

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it will wear them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called "Globe," which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose, 25c. and 50c. Trial size free. At all druggists.

Grand Fall Millinery Opening

Every Lady Interested in Fashion's Newest Creations Is Invited To come and enjoy our magnificent DISPLAY OF BEAUTIFUL HATS

A Millinery Opening at Jonas Long's Sons' Big Department Store is always interesting and enjoyable, but this year the firm have surpassed all their previous great efforts in presenting

The Most Magnificent Millinery Display That Ever Occurred in Scranton.

Our Handsome Large Millinery Show Rooms on the second floor have been converted into a veritable bower of beauty. The world's best millinery fashions are assembled here in a thousand contrasting tints and expressions. The inspired ideas of the greatest European millinery artists and the copies and original productions of our own unrivalled band of skilled milliners are all in view, forming

A Superb Inspiring Fashion Show.

Unequaled in the annals of Millinery History. Hats of exquisite beauty and hats of the richest colors. Shapes and treatment that denote the delicate touch of a true artist. Poems in shade and color. Dreams of delight. Studies in black and white. To describe them is impossible—they must be seen. Truly this will be an exhibition to enjoy—an event to remember.

EVERYONE IS WELCOME. Jonas Long's Sons

A Daily Reminder
You will not be disappointed in Dufour's Tare, it will relieve that Cough and Sore Throat.
FOR SALE BY G. W. JENKINS.

A Little Surprise Lot

Quite as much of a surprise to us, when we got them, as they will prove to you when you see them.

Only 1,000 Pieces Of Fine Hamburg Edgings and Insertions

At prices far below the cost of manufacture. They represent a leading manufacturer's entire sample line, and the very best things in the season's new idea. That's all. If you get here in time, take your choice while they last

At the Following Prices You'll Never Get the Chance Again

- Lot 1—Edgings and Insertings at 5c
- Lot 2—Edgings and Insertings at 10c
- Lot 3—Edgings and Insertings at 15c
- Lot 4—Edgings and Insertings at 25c

There's only one thousand pieces to go at these figures, and they can't last long.

Globe Warehouse

church on Jackson street, at 12 o'clock on Wednesday.

Gwilym Maddock, of Washburn street, and Miss Margaret Williams, of 1223 Eymon street, will be married at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John I. Williams, Wednesday evening.

Daniel Jay Reese, of 141 South Fulton avenue, and Miss Bessie Eva Gardner, of Adams avenue, will be married on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Birman Gardner, in Factoryville.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of David Davis, of 116 North Garfield avenue, and Miss Bessie Jones, of Twelfth street.

Cards have been issued for the marriage of Charles Cromer, of Uniondale, and Miss Hannah Hughes, of Luzerne street.

The coming marriage of Herbert D. Johnson, of North Rebecca avenue, and Miss Mary Egan, of Pittston, has been announced.

The coming marriage of Herbert D. Johnson, of North Rebecca avenue, and Miss Mary Egan, of Pittston, has been announced.

The coming marriage of Herbert D. Johnson, of North Rebecca avenue, and Miss Mary Egan, of Pittston, has been announced.

The coming marriage of Herbert D. Johnson, of North Rebecca avenue, and Miss Mary Egan, of Pittston, has been announced.

The coming marriage of Herbert D. Johnson, of North Rebecca avenue, and Miss Mary Egan, of Pittston, has been announced.

The coming marriage of Herbert D. Johnson, of North Rebecca avenue, and Miss Mary Egan, of Pittston, has been announced.

The coming marriage of Herbert D. Johnson, of North Rebecca avenue, and Miss Mary Egan, of Pittston, has been announced.

The coming marriage of Herbert D. Johnson, of North Rebecca avenue, and Miss Mary Egan, of Pittston, has been announced.

The coming marriage of Herbert D. Johnson, of North Rebecca avenue, and Miss Mary Egan, of Pittston, has been announced.

ready to resume his general practice, having recovered from his indisposition.

Andrew Conlin, of North Filmore avenue, is at the Pan-American, and will visit Fall River, Mass., before returning home.

Bernard McNulty and Thomas Lavelle, of North Grant avenue, are spending a few days at Buffalo.

Mrs. Christ Fiebler, of North Bromley avenue, and Miss Henrietta Fiebler, of Jackson street, are at Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Olando Uter, of South Bromley avenue, is suffering from an attack of pleuro-pneumonia.

Miss Julia Moylan, of Waymart, is the guest of Mrs. P. J. Nealis, of Chestnut street.

Mrs. James Butcher, of South Sumner avenue, has as her guest, Mrs. Claire, of Montrose.

George Robertson, of North Rebecca avenue, is recovering from a long illness.

Mrs. Emma Beers, of Rebecca avenue, is at Tobayanna for a few days.

Frank Chase, of North Bromley avenue, is able to be around again after a threatened attack of typhoid fever.

Mrs. W. T. Ace, of South Lincoln avenue, has the use of her right foot again, after a five weeks' suffering from a gathering.

Misses Emma and Mary Forging, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gaynor, of North Lincoln avenue; Miss Mabel Dershlmer, Mrs. Gibbs and son, George, and Evan Williams, of South Main avenue, are among the West Scranton people at the Pan-American.

Bart. Dunan, of North Bromley avenue, is recovering slowly from his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Tewksbury, of Rebecca avenue, have returned home from Buffalo.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

The Iroquois Dancing class opened their season in Washington hall Saturday evening, with a large enrollment. George Kern is the instructor, and Prof. Rennie the pianist.

AMUSEMENTS.

Lyceum Theatre
M. REIS, Lessee and Manager.
A. J. DUFFY, Bus. Manager.

Thursday, October 3.
THE SEASON'S SOCIETY EVENT.
Edward E. Rice Presents H. V. Esmond's Beautiful Love Romance.

When We Were Twenty-One
A Company of Superior Excellence.
Price—Orchestra, $1.00; orchestra circle, 75c; dress circle, 50c; lower box seats, $1.50; lower balcony seats, $1.00; balcony seats, 75c; balcony circle, 50c; boxes, $1.50; $1.00; seats on aisle Tuesday at 9 a. m.

Academy of Music
M. REIS, Lessee. A. J. Duffy, Manager.
ALL WEEK,
CHARLES LEYBURN'S
BIG BON-TON STOCK COMPANY,
Supporting MISS EMMA BUSTING. Opening Tonight With

THE PRINCESS OF PATCHES
Matinee daily, commencing Tuesday.
Matinee Prices—10 and 20 cents.
Evening Prices—10, 25 and 50 cents.

STAR THEATRE
ALE. G. BERRINGTON, Manager.
Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday,
"THE RAMBLERS."
Matinee Tuesday and Wednesday.

Dr. W. G. Simpson; recitation, Miss Arthur; duet, "Lead, Kindly Light," Miss Newell and Mr. Layton; talk by Mrs. J. S. Miller on Sunday school work; talk on the home department of the Sunday school, by Mrs. W. G. Simpson; singing, by the school, address, Rev. W. J. Ford, pastor of the Green Ridge Baptist church; address, Dr. W. G. Simpson; hymn, "Nearer, My God, to Thee." The church was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves, flowers and fruits.

A large assemblage gathered in the chapel of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church yesterday to observe the annual rally day exercises of the Sunday school of that church. Beautiful floral decorations adorned the rooms, and seldom does one see a more interesting gathering of young people than was there assembled. The exercises were full of interest, excellent music was rendered by the church choir, and the primary department of the school did themselves great credit in singing two little songs, "Help to Set the World Rejoicing" and "Little Fishermen." Addresses were made by the pastor, Rev. I. J. Lansing, D. D., and Prof. George Phillips, after which classes from the primary department were produced and classes assigned their respective positions. About 500 persons were in attendance.

Staturday morning a young lad by the name of James Moore, of Providence road, entered the office of the Pointville Ice company, during the absence of Manager James Atherton, and stole $5 rally, banquet and social at St. Leo's hall on Thursday evening, Oct. 19, James H. Brown will be the toastmaster.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Coleman, of 112 South Seventh street, were tendered a surprise party on Friday evening, the occasion being Mrs. W. J. Coleman's birthday. The special features of the evening were vocal and instrumental music, after which refreshments were served to those present. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carter, Miss King, Miss Reilly, Miss Holland, Miss Barrett, Miss Sloan, Miss Gilligan, Miss Mamie

Dr. W. G. Simpson; recitation, Miss Arthur; duet, "Lead, Kindly Light," Miss Newell and Mr. Layton; talk by Mrs. J. S. Miller on Sunday school work; talk on the home department of the Sunday school, by Mrs. W. G. Simpson; singing, by the school, address, Rev. W. J. Ford, pastor of the Green Ridge Baptist church; address, Dr. W. G. Simpson; hymn, "Nearer, My God, to Thee." The church was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves, flowers and fruits.

A large assemblage gathered in the chapel of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church yesterday to observe the annual rally day exercises of the Sunday school of that church. Beautiful floral decorations adorned the rooms, and seldom does one see a more interesting gathering of young people than was there assembled. The exercises were full of interest, excellent music was rendered by the church choir, and the primary department of the school did themselves great credit in singing two little songs, "Help to Set the World Rejoicing" and "Little Fishermen." Addresses were made by the pastor, Rev. I. J. Lansing, D. D., and Prof. George Phillips, after which classes from the primary department were produced and classes assigned their respective positions. About 500 persons were in attendance.

Staturday morning a young lad by the name of James Moore, of Providence road, entered the office of the Pointville Ice company, during the absence of Manager James Atherton, and stole $5 rally, banquet and social at St. Leo's hall on Thursday evening, Oct. 19, James H. Brown will be the toastmaster.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Coleman, of 112 South Seventh street, were tendered a surprise party on Friday evening, the occasion being Mrs. W. J. Coleman's birthday. The special features of the evening were vocal and instrumental music, after which refreshments were served to those present. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carter, Miss King, Miss Reilly, Miss Holland, Miss Barrett, Miss Sloan, Miss Gilligan, Miss Mamie