pecial to the Scranton Tribune.

Dallas, Pa., Oct. 2.-Rain put a summary end to all proceedings at the fair grounds here today at 3.30 this afternoon. The downfall was not of a doubtful variety. It poured in a most disheartening way and the moisture was accompanied by a cold north wind that added greatly to the discomfort of the spectators who were brave enough to visit the grounds, despite the ominous forebodings of the earlier part of

Three heats only were trotted before the races were declared off. In the 2.23 the races were declared off. In the 2.23 pole horse, and it was not until the fifth time class Miss Jennie and Slasher Boy had cach won a heat, the latter one being the drivers for so doing. Two times more the Miss Jessie Ross, of Wilker captured by the Avoca gelding in the midst of a thunder storm, with lurid sheets of lightning as a side effect. The heat that Miss Jennie captured made a new mark for the Wilkes-Barre

The second race, of which only one heat was trotted, belongs to Post Haste so far, he capturing the heat in easy style for his owner, Smith Gorman, of Scranton.

The rainfall made getting from the fair grounds to the village, two miles away, quite interesting. The roads were so soft that in more than one instance stages got stuck and passengers had to alight and help the horses by putting their shoulders to the wheel.

Miss Leroy, who had been expected to perform a startling balloon ascension, was unavoidably delayed en route. It is hoped and expected that she will be on hand tomorrow.

Were Postponed.

racing events were postponed until I o'clock tomorrow. If the weather then should be unpropitious the fair will be carried over until Saturday. At 12.50 Merrill's concert band, of Plymouth, struck up an overture and the seventeenth annual meeting of the Dallas Union Agricultural association was formally opened. The morning was a very unsatisfactory one, from a weather viewpoint, the skies being in a capricious mood, alternately smiling and frowning, and at frequent intervals a pettish little shower would descend, adding a fresh layer of moisture the already overladen grounds. Walking was very bad, especially around on the outside of the main building and the poultry tent, the grass being soggy and the soil soft Rubber boots were a necessity in order to insure a comfortable tour of observation about the cattle sheds and the Closed at Noon.

The entry list for all exhibits closed today at noon. Nearly every department has filled well, and the many varieties of fruit, in particular, are pleasing to behold. The exhibits are arranged nicely and fixed up to show to the very best advantage.

Some of the attendants at the fair were inclined to avoid the regular entrance gate and scale the high board fence, and they were sorry for it. Alert policemen watched their efforts with a welcoming smile and as soon as the climber's feet touched terra firma the policeman gathered them in and marched them before a justice of the peace, who has his office on the grounds, and the culprits were as sessed $1, four times the regular price

The theratening aspect of the heaven kept the attendance down to low fig-There were not more than 500 spectators in attendance when the firs race was called and the large grandstand looked almost deserted, except In the spots where a good view of th finishes were possible. The dresses of the feminine contingent were devoid in most instances of those bits of bright coloring that always make the grandstand so charming on race days in fair weather. Every one came prepared for rain and sombre colors were the rule.

Mayor Nichols Present.

Among the most prominent of the visitors to the fair today was F. M. Nichols, mayor of Wilkes-Barre, who is a candidate on the Republican ticket for Orphans' court judge at the next election. The mayor was kept busy all the afternoon getting acquainted with the rural voters of Luzerne county. The honorable gentleman is well posted on politics, doubtless, but his remark anent the racers show that he has considerable to learn regarding horses He wanted to know why it was that the pacers "had all those straps around their legs. I should think it would annoy them like sixty," was one of his comments.

The judges in the various departments will begin their annual inspec-tion of prize-winning exhibits tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. They will have a long task before them, particularly the umpire who will pass upon the merits of the poultry.

The bell rang for the horses to come out for the first race at 2 o'clock. At that time it threatened rain. The track was wet and cuppy, and presaged slow Slasher boy and Tony Wilkes appeared to be the favorites in little betting that was being done. The

First Race-2.23 Class.

First heat.-There were five starters out of eight estudidates. Tony Wilkes drew the pole, Miss Jennie was second, Gold Seeker third, Slasher Boy fourth, and Walter J., the only Scranton horse in the race, was trailing. The driver of Tony Wilkes was dressed all in white, the only concession to color made by the drivers. The field of five sparred three times for the word, but it was not given until the fourth time up, when Mr. Moore let them get away to a very poor start, Tony Wilkes having an advan-tage of two lengths. At the quarter pole Slasher tage of two lengths. At the quarter pole Slasher Boy had caught up and was on even terms with Tony, while the next nearest was Miss Jennie, half a dozen lengths back. At the half Tony led Slasher by a neck, while Miss Jennie had reduced her distance appreciably and was within easy hall. At six furlongs Jennie had overtaken Slasier Boy and was in second place, half a length from Tony Wilkes. Rounding the turn for home, Jennie crept up inch by inch and passed Tony fitty feet from the wire, winning by half a length. Time of heat-2.22%. Second heat-There was a heavy shower on Modjeska and James.

From what has been heard of Wagenhals and Kemper's hig production of "Henry VIII," in which Madame Modjeska and Louis James will appear here on Friday evening, it should prove one of the most if not the most memorable of-ferings of the season. With such artists as Madame Modjeska and Louis James at the head o the cast, the acting performance must neces sarily attract attention.

On the other hand the production itself in it scenic effects and accessories and the attention given to minute historic details it is said to rival the famous production of "Henry VIII." which Henry Irving and Eilen Terry appeared on heir first visits to this country. THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Oct. 2 .- The market started out to day with something of an upward rush of prices. There was quite an active demand for a while for United States Steel, which lifted the price 1% United States Steel, which lifted the price 14 over yesterday. Colorado Fuel and Tennessee Coal showed some strength on the assumption that the favorable conditions in the trade revealed by the statement of the steel corporation's earnings would benefit those companies also. The railroad list was affected by a demand from the shorts, but the force of the demand apent itself early and the market fell into dullness and bear and the market fell into dullness and bear and seed to the demand spent itself early and the market fell into dullness and bear and seed to the demand spent itself early and the market fell into dullness and bear and seed to the demand spent itself early and the market fell into dullness and bear and seed to the demand spent itself early and the market fell into dullness and bear and the seed to the seed into duliness and heaviness, punctuated by a number of week spots among the industrials. The United States Steel seccurities fell back with the rest of the market. The large profits reported by the steel corporation had some re-assuring ed by the steel corporation had some re-assuring effect, nevertheless owing to the prosperous conditions in the iron and steel industry. The distrust left by the Amalgamated Copper episode and the annual reports of one or wo industrial corporations recently showing earnings in sufficient to pay the current r of dividend and a consequent encroachment, the surplus for that purposes reachible. and a consequent encroachment the surplus for that purpose probably accound for the continued weakness in that class of securities. American Car stocks, the pressed steel car stocks, glucose and national salt were notably affected, losing from 214 to 4 points. National biscuit, losing from 21s to 4 points. National biscuit, rubber goods, international pump and international preferred fell from 1 to 11s. Brooklyn Transit continued weak under pressure of liquidation, which is attributed to a weak annual report expected soon. The stock fell an extrem 4% below 60, the lowest price of the year. Man hattan declined 2%, partly in sympathy. The reduction in refined sugars explained the recent decline in the stock, which steadied toward the close of the day, ending with a net gain. The level of prices generally was carried below last night's, but net gains did not reach a point ir important railroad stocks, except for Missouri Pacific.
