PEPPERY TALK OVER SCHOOL LINES

Warm Discussion at School Board

Meeting Over Crowding of Certain Pupils and Alleged Discrimination Against These Same Scholars. An Exchange Between President Hughes and Superintendent Garr. Raft of Bills, Amounting to Over Two Thousand Dollars, Ordered Paid.

The first meeting of the school board since the opening of the present school year, took place last night. There was just a quorum present. President Hughes, Secretary Kerwin and Directors Gallagher and Evans answering to the roll.

Following the precedent of the board, matters over which there might he an issue were not taken up, routing business only being disposed of.

Increased Attendance.

The first monthly report of schools for the year 1901 was presented by Superintendent Garr. An interesting ftem of the report was the increased attendance of pupils over the month of September, 1960. The increase, however, was not large. The attendance lar, of Belmont street. He left here during September, 1990, was 2.451, and rather suddenly during the spring, and this year, 2.478. The average attend- his whereabouts were unknown until ance was also higher last month than the sad news of yesterday. He was in September of last year; 25 per cent, a young man who hore a good reputafor September, 1900, and 95 per cent. for the month just closed.

Superintendent's Recommendations

Superintendent Garr made a few recommendations, which the board believed to be worthy and which were adopted. Master Paul Burton.

The most important was that teachers of the same grade be directed to visit among each other, that they might make observations of the methods of instruction that would be help-Another recommendation was that suitable gongs be provided for each school, so as to bring about more uniformity in dismissing pupils. The board then took up a raft of only local organization that will parbills, amounting to over two thousand ticipate in the parade of the Catholic dollars, which were directed to be paid. These claims were chiefly for diocese, at Wilkes-Barre, on Thursday, school supplies, desks, books, the new chemical labratory at the High school, ing this evening for the purpose of per

President Hughes came forward in the cause of the teachers, suggesting to the board that no deductions be made in their salaries for days which they might be absent by reason of sickness or other causes for which they were not responsible. His suggestion was acted on, and it was decided to rely on the judgment of Superintendent Garr to determine whether the cause of absence was a good one

There was quite a spirited discus sion when the matter of the attendance of pupils at schools where they do not belong, and of alleged crowding out of other children from their proper schools, was placed before the board for action. Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 9 were the schools involved.

Mr. Garr urged that, to avert a di turbance, no change be made in the situation. It was a question, he said of caring for the pupils or turning them out in the streets. President Mughes strongly declared that there vas discrimination and insisted that the rules of the board would have to be obeyed in the cause of justice. Mr. Garr suggested that the children were now being comfortably cared for and that the rules should be made flexible, to suit the public good. The schools," he concluded. "are for the public good."

Complaints of the alleged discrimination had been received from parents and this explains why the matter was taken up. The purpose was to make provision for the scholars who were suffering.

Some Warm Talk.

There was a sharp exchange between President Hughes and Superintendent Garr towards the close of the discussion. Mr. Garr vigorously opposed any change in the situation. Mr. Hughes was equally firm in his opinion that there was gross discrimination and resented what he declared was dictation on the part of the superintendent. Matters were beginning to get decided choleric, but gradually cooled, though not until Mr. Garr took the opportunity to say something about knowing what his duties were; of his having discharged them so far and of his purpose to continue doing so.

The matter ended with the under standing that steps would be taken to have the rules of the board, with re-
