'An enthusiastic meeting of local Republicans was held last evening in the rooms of the West Side Central Repub-Hean club rooms, where the represen-tative party workers met the candidates on the county ticket. There were present Judge Carpenter, Controller E. A. Jones, Coroner Roberts and Surveyor George Stevenson.

The following members of the executive committee were also present: John H. Williams, Hon. John R. Farr, G. T. Davis, C. E. Olver, Hon. Edward James, Joseph Oliver, David J. Davis. Ebenezer Williams and Morgan Thom-The purpose of the meeting was to introduce the candidates to the local executive committeemen and to outline the work of the coming campaign.

Hon. J. R. Farr was chairman of the meeting, and remarks were made by County Chairman H. L. Taylor, Hon. John H. Williams, W. Gaylord Thomas, District Attorney Lewis, George L. Peck, David J. Davis, Ebenezer Willfams, Richard Roberts, C. E. Daniels, Grif T. Davis, Thomas Reynolds, John H. Williams, Charles E. Olver, E. E. Robathau, C. R. Acker, L. A. Howell, J. P. Wedeman, John R. Edwards, John R. Wilson, David Owens, John R. Farr, Judge Carpenter, Controller Jones, Edward James, jr., Walter S. Bevan, Palmer Williams, F. B. Reese and Thomas P. Daniels.

The speeches were in the main culogistic of the Republican candidates and along the line of the work needed in the coming campaign.

Judge Carpenter said he felt very grateful to the members of the bar present for the many kind expressions and said he was grateful at being able to meet so many of the party workers in West Scranton.

He is satisfied, he said, that the resuits from such a meeting will be en-tirely satisfactory, and there is no doubt that there will be but one result
